Here to Salvage Stock.
D. C. Blumensfeld, representing the Portland Credit Men's Association, arrived here yesterday to take over the stock of the Jim Beard Cash store, recently closed by order of the association. He will salvage the stock and conduct a sale soon to open there.

Evangelist's Topic Tonight.
Evangelist Milo Bentley, who is conducting services at the Baptist church, tonight will take for his subject "The Unforgotten Sin." He will answer what it is and whether individuals have committed it. "We are all eternity-bound creatures," Rev. W. H. Cox, pastor, says. "It is up to us to answer the question, 'Where Will I spend eternity?'"

Aggie Freshmen From Here Excel.
Six freshmen at Oregon Agricultural College, graduates of last year's senior class at Pendleton high school, made excellent grades at O. A. C. last quarter, according to reports received today by H. E. Inlow, superintendent. In 44 courses they had no failures and only one condition. There were 4As, 22Bs, 13Cs, 4Ds, and 1 E. The respective percentages were: A, 9; B, 50; C, 29; D, 9, and E, 2.

Remodeling Will Be Done.
W. L. Bowlsby, owner of a rooming house at 711 Aura street, today was issued a permit by the city recorder to remodel the dwelling at an estimated cost of $100.

To Return From East.
Mrs. D. C. Brown, head of the department of women's wear at Alexander's is expected to return tomorrow from a buying trip to New York and other eastern cities.

Today Ash Wednesday.
Today is Ash Wednesday and marks the beginning of Lent. Services were held this morning at some of the local churches and there will be other special services during the Lenten season which ends Easter Sunday, March 27.

Walla Walla Line Damaged.
High water along Wild Horse Creek this morning weakened a bridge on the Walla Walla branch line of the O. W. R. & N. and train No. 8, for Spokane, was held here until 10:30 this morning while repairs were made. Train No. 1, from Walla Walla, due at 9 a. m., did not arrive here until after 11 o'clock.

Board Will Meet.
The executive board of the Umatilla county Red Cross will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Red Cross office in the federal building.

Must Have Chauffeur's License.
All men employed by transfer or taxi companies in Oregon are required to have chauffeur's licenses if they drive any car for hire, whether in freight or passenger service, according to the secretary of state, received today, says. A local firm employing a large force of men was notified that it must see that they have the chauffeurs and operators' licenses.

Boys Committee Named.
Five members of the boy's committee of Pendleton Community Service were announced today by Dr. Guy L. Boyden, chairman. They are John T. Lambirth, L. C. Scharf, Richard E. Hanley, Father Noy and Rev. G. L. Clark. This committee will appear before the city council tonight to present a request for the use of the present city library quarters for a boys club.

$1800 Paid in Settlement.
Settlement in the case of R. W. Ayers vs. William E. Hanscom was effected by the payment of $1800, not $2400 as reported yesterday morning. James A. Fee, attorney for the Hanscom interests, said today. Prior to the filing of any action whatever $1600 was paid to Mr. Ayers but the $1800 paid on Monday was all that passed in settlement of the claim advanced in the law suit, Judge Fee said.

Leave for Freewater.
Fred Bennion, county agent, and Professor C. L. Long, horticultural expert from O. A. C., went to Freewater today to arrange for the second of a series of fruit growers meetings to be held February 22 and 23. Professor Long is to speak at the fruiting school to be held at the M. C. Harger orchard near Stanfield on Thursday and at the school at the E. P. Phelps place near Hermiton on Friday of this week.

Dead Man's Relatives Sought.
Relatives of Tom Moore, a young man who died in a hospital at The Dalles Monday following a fall from the bluffs at Arlington, are being sought in Pendleton. A letter from an undertaking firm in The Dalles to the chief of police says that Moore is understood to have been here recently and that relatives may be located through someone in Pendleton. The man was between 18 and 23 years of age, weighed 140 pounds and was 5 feet 10 inches in height.

Peter Corbett Returns.
Peter Corbett, Indian land owner, appeared in police court this morning on a charge of being drunk, less than 48 hours after he had forfeited bail of $10 on the same charge. He did not have sufficient cash to obtain his release on bail this time and Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald added $5 for the second offense, making it $15 or seven days. Corbett sent out the S. O. S. for funds and in the interim went to jail. He was given a warning not to appear in police court on the same charge a third time.

Bond Matter May Be Settled.
What Pendleton shall do with its fire apparatus and park bonds probably will be settled tonight at the weekly meeting of the council. The bids for bonds have been considered for the past week by the finance committee and a report is expected tonight. The report of the library committee on consolidation of the city library with the county library is also to be made and ratification is expected. The annual report of Thomas Fitz Gerald, city recorder, will be read to the council. It will be his 19th report.

Scouts Not Yet Celebrating.
Pendleton's boy scouts are not celebrating the anniversary of the founding of the national boy scout movement this week, owing to their having hardly become organized. The movement is 11 years old in the United States and this week is being observed by the well organized troops all over America. The local boys are studying hard to become first class scouts so that they may obtain badges and uniforms and have already filed their application for a national charter but it has not been received from the east. Rev. J. M. Cornelison is scout master.

E. Gnavauch Dies.
Ed Gnavauch, aged 44, died last night after a week's illness caused by pneumonia. Mr. Gnavauch had resided here for the past 22 years and engaged in farming. He is survived by an eight year old daughter, Freda Gnavauch. His wife died a year ago last May and is buried here. Others who survive him are his father, Wil-

A banquet, with a program of public interest, is to be an event in the club's calendar on the evening of Washington's birthday. Judge Fee will direct the program.

KANSAS INDUSTRIAL COURT FAILURE, CLAIM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—(U. P.)—Frank Morrison, secretary of the American federation of labor, declared the coal strike in Pittsburg, Kansas, proved the failure of the idea on which the Kansas industrial court was based. "Approximately $200 miners quit work in Kansas in face of the order not to strike," he said. "This shows that you cannot compel men to work with machinery of a court or any other form of compulsory arbitration. The strike demonstrates conclusively the gentleness of labor that constitutional means should be resorted to for abolition of court."

PITTSBURG, Kan., Feb. 9.—(U. P.)—The fight between President Howatt, and the Kansas coal miners' union and the state court of industrial relations took a further serious turn when the miners in two southeast Kansas mines walked out in protest against the states action against Howatt. He had been ordered to appear in court, and explain his violation of the court injunction restraining him from calling the strike.

MOTHER WOULD BAIL SLACKER SON FROM JAIL

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 9.—(A. P.)—Carrying an armful of real estate deeds, Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll appeared yesterday in the office of U. S. District Attorney McAvoy to offer bail for her son, Erwin R. Bergdoll, serving a term in Fort Leavenworth prison for draft dodging. Habeas corpus proceedings have been brought to obtain his freedom, but argument has not yet been heard. Mr. McAvoy informed Mrs. Bergdoll that he could not even discuss such a subject with her until the court had ruled.

$100,000,000 IN LOAN FOR FARMERS APPROVED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—(A. P.)—Unanimous approval was given by the senate agriculture committee to a measure by senators Glass and Swanson, of Virginia, authorizing the treasury to purchase $100,000,000 worth of farm loan bonds so as to make available funds for loans to farmers.
