"PAYING THE PIPER" A STORY OF LIFE IN NEW YORK

New York, ever-changing, ever-fascinating and gay, is the locale of the latest George Fitzmaurice Paramount production, "Paying the Piper," which will be displayed at the Arcade Theatre today. It is an original story by Ouida Bergere, who wrote the continuity for that other Paramount masterpiece of New York, "On With the Dance," and it possesses scenes, characters and situations just as convincingly real as did its predecessor.

For "Paying the Piper," the authors chose persons typical of New York—Wall Street millionaires who have heartlessly married to the top; their spoiled, reckless offspring; ambitious, hardworking professional people who find their defeat or success in the great metropolis. Around them she has spun a theme showing that money cannot buy the happiness or the most desired things of life.

BIG GISH COMEDY IS FILLED WITH LAUGHS

Thrills and laughter are happily combined in Dorothy Gish's latest Paramount comedy, "The Ghost in the Garret," which will be shown at the Alta theatre for two days beginning today. This is one of the best comedies in which Miss Gish has been seen for many months all her admirers will agree after they have seen the picture.

Miss Gish, in the story, is a poor girl who goes to the home of her wealthy uncle and aunt, taking her dog and parrot with her. The dog puts a fashionable party to rout and from that moment the action is not permitted to drag for an instant. Then comes the theft of a valuable pearl necklace by a society crook who flees with his booty to a haunted house where his pals are in hiding. Going in pursuit of the thief to protect her sweetheart who has been arrested for the theft, she finally recovers the jewels after a series of thrilling and laughable developments.

BUCK JONES TO SHOW

US A LIVELY CHASE

The wildest ride that Victorville, Cal., once the headquarters of the toughest men the West has produced, has been in many years, was that of Buck Jones, the Fox star, and Pat Harmon in the making of "Firebrand Trevison," on the great Verde ranch. The picture, adapted from a story by Charles Alden Seltzer and directed by Thomas N. Heffron, is shown at the Pastime Theatre today. One scene called for a ride of nearly a mile in which Harmon, as the villain, was pursued by Buck Jones. The villain on a light pony, the fleetest of foot on the ranch, was turned loose in a pasture some two miles in length lying in a bottom along the Mojave river.

Buck, on Blondy, his sorrel horse, fifteen hands high and weighing 1,000 pounds, thought he would have an easy time to catch Harmon, as the picture required, but the pony ran with such speed that Buck had to chase him for more than half a mile to get within shooting distance.

"Blondy is one of the fastest horses I ever rode," said Buck, "but that pony sure can travel."

Half the population of Victorville was out to see the race, which furnished one of the big thrills in "Firebrand Trevison."

HARDING CEREMONY TO BE QUIET AFFAIR, WILL DO SOME WORK ON DAY

Says He Will See That Penrose and Lodge Play Less Important Part in Senate, According to Some Solons.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 11.—Harding will ride to the capitol in an automobile without an escort as fast as the speed laws of the District of Columbia will permit and return immediately to the white house after a few appropriate remarks following his inauguration as president of the United States, on March 4, he said, discussing inauguration plans. There will be no social function at the white house on inauguration day, he declared.

"I'm getting past my father, brother and sisters both for luncheon," he said. "I may even do a little work; maybe I'll appoint some of the faithful to office on that day."

"My plans to organize a new administration group in the senate, in which the old senate 'oligarchy,' including Lodge and Penrose, will play a less important part than formerly is under way among senators especially friendly to the president-elect. It was learned from a reliable source.

Harding it was said, decided to build up an organization of his own, instead of allowing himself to be placed under control of the older leaders.

SEC'Y COLBY DECLINES TO SEND JAPAN-U. S. REPORT TO COMMITTEE

Says There is Considerable Misunderstanding as to What Has Been Done But no Information Available Now.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—(U. P.)—Secretary Colby declined to send to the senate foreign relations committee a report from Ambassador Morris on negotiations with Ambassador Shidehara, of Japan, concerning the California land and immigration questions. In a letter sent to Senator Lodge, Colby said there was considerable misunderstanding regarding just what had been done, he said there was no information he could give the committee now.

Colby's letter, in effect, said there was nothing definite to submit to the committee, although admitting that the Morris-Shidehara negotiations had been marked by substantial progress towards a settlement.

SHERIFF FORGETS DATE OF NEGRO'S HANGING

NEW ORLEANS, La., Feb. 11.—(A. P.)—An opinion handed down today by Attorney General Cocco declared Louie Eaton, the negro whose execution February 4, the date set, was forgotten by the sheriff of Ouachita parish, may legally be hanged. Prior to the rendering of the opinion, many attorneys had contended that because the negro's life had once been placed in jeopardy when the governor fixed the date for execution, and that date had arrived without a reprieve, he could not now be legally hanged, but was legally dead and must be granted his freedom.

The attorney general after setting out that he could find nothing to furnish a basis for such arguments, and then ruled that it would be legal for the governor to again fix a date for the execution of the negro, who was convicted of the murder of Charles McQuillier, a white planter, in 1917.

A movement has been started in the state to have the death sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

GRANDMOTHER KNEW

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister. Musterole, does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears. Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).
