F. T. A. HAS MEETING

"Recreation" was the subject for a meeting of the Hawthorne Parent Teacher association yesterday at the school building. Discussions of the theme were given by Mrs. H. S. Simpson, Mrs. Thomas Baker and Miss Leota Wagner. Other topics discussed included the discussion of the measures to be taken to improve the school. Mrs. W. W. Harrah presented the school with a lounge which is to be used by the pupils or teachers in case of illness.

A pleasing musical program consisted of a piano solo by Miss Elizabeth Simpson, eighth grade pupil; a saxophone solo, by Thomas Baker, a member of the band, and piano accompaniment by Miss Harriett Benjamin, and several songs by the boys and girls of the seventh grade. A social hour, during which time refreshments were served by the pupils of the fifth grade under the direction of Miss Mabel Johnson, completed the afternoon.

GEORGE TONKIN WEDS

Of interest to Pendleton people is the following from the Morning Oregonian concerning the wedding of George Tonkin, formerly game warden

for this district, now United States game warden:

A wedding of interest to Portland and Boise, Idaho, friends was that of George Tonkin, federal game warden, and Mrs. Gertrude Hill, bookkeeper for the game commission. The ceremony was solemnized Thursday night in the First Presbyterian church. Rev. H. L. Bowman, D. D., officiating. Mr. Tonkin's headquarters are in Boise, where he and his bride will make their home.

HOSTS FOR PARTY.

Some of the members of Pendleton's younger set entertained with an informal dancing party last evening at the Knights of Columbus hall, the dancers lumbering forty couples. Floating streamers of red and white, floor lamps in shades of rose, and tall vases of flowers and pussy willows made a charming decoration. Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. C. S. Wheeler, Miss Carol Wurtzenberger, Mrs. Struck Aune, Miss Olive Roche, Miss Laura Ross, Mrs. J. C. Snow, Miss Dorothy Fiesel and Mrs. J. A. Blakeley. The committee in charge consisted of Miss Muriel Hampton, Lucius Mathewson and Howard Blakeley.

MRS. SOMMERVILLE HOSTESS.

The J. Somerville home on Vincent street was the scene yesterday of a meeting of the Current Literature Club for which Mrs. Somerville was hostess. The interesting program consisted of a sketch of the life and works of Conrad, a review of John Galsworthy's "Freelands," by Mrs. Mary Doseway, and a review of Ervine's "Changing Winds," by Mrs. James Johns, Sr.

Spring flowers were used as a decoration. The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Miss Sydney Somerville and Miss Evelyn Somerville, Miss Stella Rodin and Miss Elizabeth Rodin.

CLUB HAS MEETING

Mrs. P. J. Hegeman and Mrs. G. W. Coult were hostesses yesterday for a meeting of the Spizerinkum Club, the guests being entertained at the home of Mrs. Hegeman. Mrs. Anna Storie read an interesting article on pioneer days, written by Mrs. Mary W. Bell, a relative of Mrs. Storie's. A guessing contest proved a pleasing diversion during the afternoon. The hostesses served dainty refreshments. Mrs. C. C. Curtis, who is spending the winter in Pendleton with her sister, Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell, was a guest of the club.

QUESTS IN PENDLETON.

Major and Mrs. Frederick Whitney, of Chicago, Illinois, and Mr. and Mrs. George Beller, of Milton, were guests recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Cross. Major Whitney has just returned after service in the Philippine Islands and in future will be stationed at Chicago.
