VAST SUMS OF MONEY LOST TO U. S. TREASURY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(U. P.)—That lack of effort lost the federal treasury two billions or more dollars funded by the liquor interests, Senator Pellgrin charged in the senate.

The money represents the refunds under the claims filed by taxpayers, he said. His charge followed one by Senator Smoot, who declared there was a movement afoot in the treasury department to return billions of dollars to distillers, brewers and other liquor interests.

Entertaining a Gent From 'Frisco
Frank Kipp was showing a stranger from San Francisco around the city in a high-powered car, and when pointing out the Auditorium, Frank said:

"That's our big auditorium, and Joe Grieb built the whole thing in six months."

"That's nothing," said the stranger from San Francisco. "We built a bigger one in three months."

Then Frank drove him out and they passed the beautiful water tower next to Gen. Otto Falk's house.

The stranger said: "What's that?"

"I don't know," said Frank. "That wasn't there day before yesterday."

ENVY HER?

MRS. JAMES B. BLUM

Here's a woman most women will envy. She's Mrs. James B. Blum, who as representative of the New York probate court will wear a $100,000 pearl necklace for 30 days every year. The pearls have been in a vault and experts said only contact with living flesh would preserve their luster.

SAYS SHE WAS "SOLD"

MRS. CORA JOHNSON

Mrs. Cora Johnson of Rockford, Ill., says Eric Johnson, her husband, "sold" her to his butcher for a lot worth $500. This was after Mrs. Johnson and the butcher had been arrested in a hotel, on complaint of Johnson.
