

PASTIME SUNDAY-MONDAY

"Choosing a Wife," Novel Story of Man Who Proposes Marriage to the Wrong Woman.

"Choosing a Wife," the First National attraction which will be shown at the Pastime Theater, starting Sunday, answers the question of whether a young and beautiful girl should attract a man of middle age more than a woman only a little younger than herself.

RHEUMATISM—RELIEF

From its Dreadful Pains and Aches, Stiffness, Swelling—

It is properly to be sought in a good blood medicine, because authorities say rheumatism is a blood disease; acid has entered the blood, settling in the muscles and joints. That's what makes the sharp, sudden, shot-like pains, causing you to jump and cringe in agony. Hood's Sarsaparilla comprises remedies that every physician prescribes for rheumatism, combined with other blood-purifying, tonic and strength-building ingredients in a formula vastly superior in make-up and in curative power. It does give positive relief. Thousands say so. So will you. For a fine laxative take Hood's Pills.

"Chickens" Shows, Fine Directing—Jack Nelson Responsible for New MacLean Picture.

Douglas MacLean's latest Paramount-Ince comedy, "Chickens," is the second of his comedies to have been directed by Jack Nelson, the first having been "The Rookie's Return." Possessing originality and creative ability, Mr. Nelson has handled the clever comedy situations of "Chickens" in a manner new to screen technique. It will be shown at the Arcade theater next Sunday.

Mr. Nelson's record, prior to entering the directorial field, consists of many screen appearances in leading and featured roles, and of several years on the legitimate stage. He recently signed a contract to direct a number of Douglas MacLean productions for Thomas H. Ince. Gladys George is Mr. MacLean's leading woman in "Chickens."

Stranger Sleeps in Other Twin Bed, Wife Wild!

If you are a loving wife, and if you discovered a man other than your husband right in your bedroom, in fact right in the other one of your twin beds, what would you do?

That's exactly what happened to Mrs. Harry Hawkins and she expected her husband to walk in any minute, too.

Mr. Hawkins had gone out early in the evening on business and his wife had retired at her usual hour, without a sign of anything amiss. Imagine her dismay when on waking

"Twin Beds"

From the famous stage play of the same name.

Blame someone for it—quick! But you can't blame little Blanche Hawkins because there were twin beds in her new apartment. And you can't blame Signor Monti when he wandered winefully into the wrong flat.

You can't blame either of them for all the delicious doings before Blanche's husband and Monti's wife, raved in on them. And no one will blame you if you have to be carted home on a plank after you've seen it.
