Brother Comes To Aid
A brother of Shozo Shizuta, the Japanese who killed a fellow countryman in a Chinatown basement the morning of Feb. 7, arrived yesterday morning from Fresno, California. He employed Fred Steiner of the firm of Bailey, Bailey & Co. to defend the accused. The man had left last night on his return to Fresno to collect funds with which to make the defense.

Idaho Prisoner Escapes
The sheriff's office was notified this morning of an escape from the Idaho penitentiary Saturday morning. The man, John Grantstrom, was a trusty and was employed as a laundryman at the institution. He is described as being 41 years of age, a native of Sweden and possessed of one long and one short leg. The left leg is about two inches shorter than the right, giving him a decided limp when he walks.

Will Start Assessing
County Assessor Hawkins announced this morning that the work of assessing the property owners will start about March 17. The ownership books are now being prepared for the field men, most of whom have been appointed and are ready for duty. All of the numerous transfers of property made in the county during the year must be taken from the books in the office of the recorder and transferred to the records in the office of the assessor before the field men can start. This work is now nearing completion.

Treasurer to Spokane
Miss Grace Gilliam, county treasurer will be in Spokane March 7 to testify in the case of the state of Washington against Hough. This is the trial growing out of the failure of the bond selling house of Millholland & Hough. Hough is the junior member of the firm. Millholland having committed suicide when informed that Hough had confessed that they had embezzled half a million dollars from Mike Galahan, the northern Idaho mine magnate. Both men had made a suicide pact but the younger man weakened a few hours before the appointed hour. His defense is that he was under the influence of his partner.

AT 73 YEARS HE GAINS 28 POUNDS

Portland Man Overcomes Troubles of 40 Years by Taking Tanlac.

"There is bound to be something unusual about a medicine that will make a man my age gain twenty-eight pounds," declared L. Gray, 234 East 5th St., South, Portland, in relating his remarkable experience with Tanlac.

"By taking Tanlac I have gotten rid of a case of rheumatism which had troubled me more or less for forty years. Two years ago I got so I couldn't walk a block couldn't even get out of the yard. My whole system seemed to be affected and for along time I couldn't move my hands, wasn't even able to put on my shoes and I suffered so I could hardly keep from yeh'g out every time I tried to move a pain would catch me in my back when I stopped over, and it hurt terribly when I straightened up. My muscles cramped and seemed like they were drawn in knots and my kidneys bothered me a great deal.

"I had been told so many times that nothing could help me that I thought I would never be well again. But I finally decided to see what Tanlac would do for me and I have improved so much some of my friends hardly know me. Although I am now seventy-three, I don't feel that old by a good many years and this past summer I put in full time at my work, something I hadn't done in a long time."

be an address by Judge S. A. Lowell and music by a recently formed Knights of Pythias orchestra. A week from tonight there will be competitive literary work between teams from Damon lodge and the lodge at Weston.

Robin Hood Enjoyed.
Though the opera "Robin Hood" has been given here several times during the past never has the delightful old production being more creditably presented than by Arthur Parr and troupe at the Oregon theatre Saturday evening. The cast was entirely different from previous performances. Mr. Parr played "Robin Hood," Betty Baxter, Alan-a-dale and Tom Burton the sheriff of Nottingham. The male voices were especially good.

Lost Auto Wheel
The heavy rain of yesterday afternoon resulted in at least one slight auto mishap. Richard Rice was unfortunate enough to skid into the curb on Riverside Drive near the Park View apartments when the mud failed to provide traction for his wheels. Fortunately he was not driving fast and the loss of the left front wheel was all the damage sustained. The rain had caused a quantity of mud to be washed down from the hill and pedestrians as well as motorists were compelled to watch their step at the point where the accident occurred.
