ANNIVERSARY OF D. A. R.

Tomorrow, Washington's birthday, will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Oregon. The Umatilla Chapter of the D. A. R. will observe the day by their assistance in the presentation of a Washington's birthday program at the Pendleton high school and under their auspices, Judge S. A. Lowell, a son of the American Revolution, will speak.

The Umatilla chapter was founded in October 1917, with Mrs. Mary J. Lathrop Lane as first regent. Mrs. Lane gave the chapter its name. Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell and Mrs. Sylvan Cohn are also former regents, while Mrs. George Hartman is regent at the present time.

Multnomah chapter was the first chapter in the state and was organized February 22, 1896. Since that time the chapters throughout the state have increased to nearly 20, with a membership well up toward a thousand.

Chapters throughout the state have been invited to attend a tea to be given tomorrow by Mrs. J. B. Montgomery of Portland, in celebration of the anniversary of the University Club. Mrs. Frederick E. Judd, formerly of this city, now of Portland, and a member of Umatilla Chapter of the D. A. R., will represent the local chapter.

The objects of the Daughters of the American Revolution are "to perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence; to promote institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom; to foster true patriotism and love of country and to aid in securing for mankind all the blessings of liberty.

The D. A. R. members throughout the country are centralizing on Americanization as their major activity and Oregon Daughters are particularly gratified over the passage of the home teachers' bill by the state legislature. This is an act to Americanize foreign born children and parents and authorizes discretionary powers to school boards to employ home teachers, whose duty will be to work in the homes of the pupils, instructing children and adults in matters relating to school attendance and preparation thereof, also in sanitation, in the English language, and particularly in the fundamental principles of the American system of government and rights and duties of citizenship. This has been found to be the most practical way to establish relations or respect, neighborliness and helpfulness, and the Daughters of the American Revolution in many states are financing the training of teachers for this purpose, special preparation for this work being necessary for best results.

Besides the anniversary to another event in the D. A. R. calendar is the state convention to be held March 16 to 18 in Salem. Several delegates from the Umatilla chapter will probably attend. The chapter has a membership of about twenty-five, the personnel being made up not only of Pendleton women, but Daughters from Weston, Boardman, Hermiston and Echo.

MISS CRAWFORD SPEAKS

Miss Isabelle Crawford, of New York, a prominent missionary board member of the Presbyterian church, gave an interesting talk on the work of missions at a meeting of the Hegeman Guild Saturday at the home of Mrs. Elmer McCormack with Mrs. McCormack and Mrs. George Stanger as hostesses. Ladies of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church were additional guests.

A delightful musical program consisted of violin numbers by Mrs. Vinton Robinson, with Mrs. H. R. McKenzie as accompanist; a vocal solo by Mrs. A. M. Christall accompanied by Mrs. H. E. McLean and a vocal solo by Mrs. Fred Bennion, accompanied by Mrs. B. M. Huntley. After the program, dainty refreshments were served with Mrs. R. Raymond and Mrs. P. J. Hegeman presiding at the tea table.

DELPHIAN CLUB MEETS

Of unusual interest was a meeting of the Delphian Club Saturday afternoon in the library club room with Mrs. Sylvan G. Cohn and Mrs. L. M. Spalding as hostesses. The program was made up of a paper on early Anglo-Saxon literature by Miss Barbara Hoch; a detailed description of the elegies of that period, given by Mrs. G. M. Rice; a talk on Cædmon by Mrs. Lyman Rice and a review of the poems of the Cædmon school by Mrs. Fred Bennion.

For the musical program, Miss Mildred Berkeley sang a pleasing solo with piano accompaniment by Miss Pauline Rice. Mrs. Vinton Robinson, violin and Mrs. H. S. McKenzie, piano, played charmingly. An especially attractive feature was a minuet, danced by little Miss Lois Scharpf and Homer Welch, attired in colonial costume.

For the social hour, Mrs. J. T. Richardson and Mrs. Earl Tulloch presided at a tea table centered by a huge basket of flowers which carried out the Washington's birthday idea in tints of red, white and blue. Assisting the hostess in serving were Mrs. Fred Liseaull, Mrs. James Welch, Mrs. Lyman Rice, Mrs. Alger Fee and Mrs. Herbert Thompson.

HOST FOR PARTY

Richard Rice was host for a dinner party Saturday evening at the G. M. Rice home, the guests being Allen Polson, Walden Byers, Claude Snow, David Swanson, John Simpson, John Henderson, Jens Tejelson, Charles Snyder, Perry Davis and Richard Lawrence. Later in the evening a few hours of dancing were enjoyed, the additional guests being Miss Iva Dale, Miss Ruth Douglas, Miss Blanche Isaacs, Miss Eula McAtee, Miss Mildred Hoyt, and Miss Myrtle Hoyt, of La Grande, Miss Edna Murphy, Miss Genevieve Phelps, Miss Marjorie McMonies, Miss Iuth Minnis and Miss Marjorie Boyle.

RECITAL IS GIVEN

Piano pupils of Mr. Frank E. Boyden appeared in a class recital Saturday morning at the Boyden home. Those appearing on the program were Mrs. David B. Hill, Miss Mildred Rogers, Miss Mary Clarke, Miss Katherine McNary, Miss Isabel Ross, Miss Mildred Wyrick, Miss Shirley Hew, Miss Harry Elizabeth Hopf, Miss Betty Bond, Miss Laura Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Simpson, Miss Anna Eich, Harace Boyden and Ralph Rothrock. The recital is one of a series given by the pupils of Mr. Boyden.

MRS. ROSE ON PROGRAM

Mrs. Ada Losh Rose, formerly of this city, now of Portland, is to give dramatic readings as a part of the program for a colonial tea at the Portland home of Mrs. Charles E. Dant tomorrow. The affair will be given to raise funds for the erection of a community clubhouse for Alameda Park. The hostess, her assistants and those on the program will appear in the quaint costumes of colonial days with hoopskirts and powdered wigs. The event is attracting much interest in Portland society.

BIRTHDAY DINNER GIVEN

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wright were hosts last evening for a dinner party the occasion being Mrs. Wright's birthday. A color scheme of pink and white was used, carnations of this shade centering the table, where covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clomens, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Dupuis, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Conroy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mestrana and the hosts.

MISS SHANARD TO WED

Miss Jean Shanard, who has visited in Pendleton at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James S. Johns, Sr., is soon to wed Walter Burke, of Pierre, North Dakota. Miss Shanard, whose home is in Bridgewater, North Dakota, is a charming girl and during her stay here made many friends.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (if often prevents pneumonia). 25c and 65c jars; hospital size $3.00

W. C. T. U. TO MEET

Honoring Frances E. Willard, founder of the W. C. T. U., members of the local union will meet tomorrow at the county library for a day's session.

The program will open in the morning with a devotional quiz led by Mrs. William Dale. This will be followed by a talk, "Good Citizenship," by Mrs. Will Wyrick. A Union Signal "stunt" will be presented by Mrs. Louise Lampkin, Mrs. F. M. Riley and Miss Daisy McPherson. Mrs. Stephen A. Lowell will speak on the W. C. T. U. children's farm home. Mrs. A. J. Owen will speak on child welfare, while "Physical Hygiene" will be the theme for a talk by Miss Eva Hansen, physical training teacher. Mrs. A. E. May, president of the local W. C. T. U., will speak on "Americanization." There will be community singing led by R. E. Tucker and a noon dinner for the members and guests.

For the afternoon there will be a "Prohibition Victories Devotional Service." Mrs. Kenneth Warner will conduct the roll call. A discussion of law enforcement will be held, and Mrs. E. A. Newberry will be in charge of the decalogue. Mrs. Vinton Robinson and Mrs. H. S. McKenzie are on the program for musical numbers, with a piano duet by Miss Marguerite and Miss Thelma Akey. Mrs. J. A. Bernard will give a reading, "The Co-operation of Missions and Temperance" will be discussed by Mrs. Arthur E. Rudd.

In the evening, the silver medal contest is to be held and promises to be exceedingly interesting.

RUFFLES

Ruffles are the thing this season, and here is one of the most attractive of dresses.

The dress is of Canton crepe in a light tint of gray with bands of the same material in medium blue for trimming. The latter are applied as bias folds on the edge of the ruffles, which in turn are adjusted to the skirt in spiral effect. A pair of double ruffles finishes the sleeves.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Program Planned—Washington's birthday will be celebrated at high school tomorrow with an assembly. The high school orchestra will play several numbers. The main speaker of the day will be Judge Stephen A. Lowell, who will speak on Washington.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success. They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pains, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 15c and 30c a box.
