TO VISIT IN SEATTLE
Mrs. Roy Alexander left today for Seattle where she will spend two weeks visiting her grandmother.

VISIT IN WALLA WALLA
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morrisette and son, of Athena, were Walla Walla visitors Friday, motoring to the neighboring city.

MRS. ROTHROCK TEL.
Pendleton friends of Mrs. Andy Rothrock, of Athena, will be pleased to learn that she is convalescing after a serious attack of pneumonia.

MRS. MELOY DEPARTS
Mrs. George Meloy, who has been the guest of her daughter, Miss Kathleen Meloy, at the Rev. George L. Clark home, departed this morning for her home in Moro, Oregon.

BALL TO BE GIVEN
March 4 has been set as the date for the Rhinners' ball to be given by the Walla Walla order. Many local people are planning to attend the affair which promises to be one of the largest of the winter social season.

MRS. MILLS VISITS
Mrs. C. J. Mills, of Rochester, Washington, is a guest at the home of her cousin, W. L. Hale, 406 East Alta street. Mrs. Mills formerly resided in this county, having come here from the Willamette valley in 1870. In 1887 she moved to Washington to make her home. She will remain here for several days.

CONVENTION TO BE HELD.
Local club women are showing interest in the state convention of Parent-Teacher associations to be held here May 11 to 14. Following the sessions here, many of the delegates will go to Walla Walla to attend the joint convention of Oregon and Washington P. T. A. Associations. Mrs. Elizabeth Hayhurst, state president of Oregon Associations, will be present. Two local women, Mrs. W. R. Wyrick and Mrs. Thomas Hampton, are state officers, Mrs. Wyrick being three vice-presidents and Mrs. Hampton a member of the board of managers.

BOY WINS PRIZE
Nine-year-old Nathan Porter was the winner of the W. C. T. U. silver medal contest last night at the county library, receiving this honor through his rendition of "A Child's World." It was the boy's first entrance into a declamatory contest. Judges were Austin Landreth, principal of the Pendleton high school, Miss Elizabeth Severance and Miss Laura Ross, members of the high school faculty.

The local union plans to hold another contest within two weeks, and for this event the children will be divided into classes and judged accordingly.

The contest last night closed the W. C. T. U. day's institute held in memory of Frances Willard, noted prohibition worker and founder of the organization. A feature of the day was the noonday dinner, served under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Hoover, a Washington's birthday idea was carried out in the serving of luscious cherry pie and in the little red hatchets which marked the place for each guest.

ARTISANS HAVE MEETING
Members of the Artisans enjoyed a social and business meeting last night, the men who are members of the lodge being hosts. A banquet was served and cards proved a diversion during the evening. Plans were made for a visit of H. F. Hudson, supreme master of arts, who will be a guest of the local chapter March 22.

LITTLE SON BORN
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nutter, formerly of this city, now of New York, are the parents of a baby daughter born February 16, according to word received this morning by Mr. Nutter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Nutter. Mr. Nutter was in the aviation during the war and is still a flyer. He was one of the pilots in the trans-continental flight.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM GIVEN
Yesterday's W. C. T. U. program at the all day institute contained some interesting educational features. The program, say those who attended, was an excellent one. In the community singing, led by R. E. Tucker, the campaign songs were sung. The organization hopes to secure a million members and the songs will play an important part in the drive.

EASTERN STAR MEETS
A social meeting of Bushee chapter of the Eastern Star was held last night following the business meeting. Washington's birthday anniversary formed the keynote, the decorations being flags and streamers of red, white and blue. The table, in white with bands of red and blue, was centered by a miniature George Washington in colonial costume and armed with a musket, standing beside the famous cherry tree. Hatchets, cherries and cut flowers were profusely used as a decorative feature. The young ladies who assisted in serving refreshments were in colonial costumes, with powdered hair.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Frank Saling, Mrs. Otto Koepfen, Mrs. W. E. Ringold, Mrs. Will McCormack, Mrs. E. Chapman, Mrs. Winn Johnson and Mrs. C. H. Belts.

SOCIAL TOMORROW NIGHT.
The Degree of Honor members will be hostesses tomorrow evening for a banquet at the I. O. O. F. hall in honor of Captain Lottie Long and her team which won in the membership campaign of 1920. All members and their families are to be guests and arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. M. Magee, Captain No. 1, and Mrs. Carrie Dale, Captain No. 3.

VISITOR IN CITY
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Maynard and little son Jack of Milton, and Mrs. Al Schrader and baby daughter Alberta, of Walla Walla, are visitors in the city having motored here this morning. Mr. Maynard is manager of the J. C. Penny store in Milton.

KERR'S

A Cordial Invitation

Miss Locklin, demonstrator of the famous Kerr's Breakfast Cereals—Rolled Oats, Wheat Flakes and Pancake Flour—will be at

for a few days, and will be glad to show you and tell you about these popular products.

You will find that the Wheat Flakes can be cooked in ten to fifteen minutes, the Rolled Oats in fifteen to twenty minutes and that the Pancake Flour makes pancakes and waffles fit for a king, in a jiffy.

Many people alternate these cereals, using the Rolled Oats one morning, the Wheat Flakes the next and the Pancakes and Waffles for the third and fourth. "Variety is the spice of life."

THE PENDLETON DRUG CO. THE REXALL STORE

The perennial beauty of a valuable rug is the reward of frequent and thorough cleaning. Such cleaning is easy to perform with The Hoover, because it beats... as it sweeps, as it suction cleans. All injurious embedded grit is flattered out by gentle beating. All stubborn litter is detached by swift sweeping. All loose dirt is withdrawn by strong suction. Only The Hoover combines these three essential operations. And it is the largest-selling electric cleaner in the world.

You may have a Hoover placed permanently in your home for a nominal sum, and its purchase arranged on convenient terms. You may also have it demonstrated for you any time, either in your home or in our store.
