Will Rheumatism Again Bind You Hand and Foot?

If you had Rheumatism last year and treated only the pains of the disease by rubbing with liniments and lotions, you can be sure that soon again you will be in the shackles of this relentless foe. You may get some slight temporary relief from the pains of the disease by the use of these local remedies, but Rheumatism is too real and relentless a disease to be rubbed away. So many cases of Rheumatism come from a tiny germ in the blood, that you should try a remedy that has proven so thoroughly satisfactory in these cases. S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy cleanses the blood of all impurities, and removes all disease germs that may creep into the blood. Begin taking S.S.S. today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. IMMIGRATION IS THEME.

Immigration was the chief topic for discussion at a interesting meeting of the Pendleton Woman's Club yesterday in the county library club rooms, with Mrs. Albert Eklund, Mrs. K. C. Tmanna, Mrs. J. C. Clemens, Mrs. William Dunn, Mrs. George Ferguson, Mrs. L. J. Donaldson and Mrs. H. A. Frick, as hostesses.

"The Eastern Immigration Problem" was the theme for a paper read by Mrs. R. I. Keator, while a paper read by Mrs. Herbert Thompson was entitled, "The Western Immigration Problem." Mrs. T. A. Wylie gave a review of Mary Antrim's book, "They Who Stand at the Gate." Musical numbers were by Mrs. Vinton Robinson, who played a violin solo, with accompaniment by Mrs. H. S. McKenzie, and vocal solos, "Who Knows," and "The Sunshine of Your Smile," by Mrs. Caldwell, with Mrs. A. J. Owen at the piano.

An entertaining feature was a group of rhymes and songs given by little Robert Wylie, aged four years, garbed as Charlie Chaplin.

P. T. A. MEETS.

The relationship between parent and high school student was taken up at a meeting of the high school Parent-Teacher Association last night at the county library. The phases of the relationship were treated in a paper, "Parents' Responsibility to the High School," by Mrs. W. D. McNary; "Student's Viewpoint of the Relationship of the Parents to the High School" by Miss Dorothy Fiebel; "The Teacher's Viewpoint to Parent and Child," by Austin Landreth; and "The Ideal Relationship Between Parent, Teacher and Child," by Mr. Hunter. The musical numbers consisted of a solo by Miss Barbara Edmunds and duet numbers by Mrs. Raymond Hatch and Mrs. J. B. McCook. Arrangements for the next meeting will be made by Mrs. E. J. Mathewson, Mrs. C. A. Swanson and Miss Kate Voorhees.

GUESTS AT TEA.

Mrs. F. E. Judd and Mrs. C. S. Jackson, formerly of Pendleton, now of Portland, represented the Umatilla chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at a tea given by the Multnomah chapter of the D. A. R. on Washington's birthday at the Union society club, with Mrs. J. B. O'Mulgonigery, first state regent, as hostess. The tea, which celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the D. A. R. in the state, was a delightful social event. Daughters from all over the state were present. Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Judd poured at the tea table, and Mrs. Thomas G. Halley, formerly of this city and a member of the Multnomah chapter, was among those who assisted about the room.

MRS. HAYNES APPOINTED.

Mrs. Charles Haynes was yesterday appointed clerical secretary of the Red Cross to perform the stenographic duties of Miss Virginia Todd, Red Cross and home service secretary, who resigned. A social service worker is desired. She is appointed to carry on the Red Cross and home service work done in the past by Miss Todd, who will in future be known as elected secretary of the chapter. Mrs. Haynes is employed as part time worker and will be in the office each half day, although she may later be employed for the entire day. Miss Todd will remain in the office for the next few weeks until the new regime is well established.

PARTY IS GIVEN.
The Bissinger Brothers home in South Cold Spring was the scene recently of a delightful evening party. In a guessing contest, Mr. Marshall won first prize and Fred Slocum was awarded the consolation trophy. At midnight a supper was served, the guests drawing partners by lottery. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. John Wichman and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Evans and family, Mr. and Mrs. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. John Gentry and daughter, Miss Gentry Gentry, Miss Yaekel and Fred Slocum.

MRS. PIERCE CONVALESCE.

Friends of Mrs. W. P. Pierce will be glad to know that she has sufficiently recovered to be removed to her home from St. Anthony's hospital, where she recently underwent an operation.

MEN ARE HOSTS.

A group of men who are members of the Kill Kare Club entertained charmingly last night with a dancing party at Eagle-Woodman hall, the event being one of the series given by the club this year. After a few hours of dancing refreshments were served and favors presented, the men receiving "lucky dogs" and the ladies balloons and carnations. Assisting in the serving of refreshments were Mrs. W. J. Clarke, Mrs. Fred Bonnton, Mrs. Roy Buchanan, Mrs. H. E. Green, Mrs. E. P. Tulloch, Mrs. V. E. Snavely, Mrs. James Hill and Mrs. E. J. Mathewson.

Roy Buchanan acted as chairman for the group who were in charge. For March 10, the date of the last meeting of the Kill Kare, L. C. Scharpf heads a group made up of the other men members of the club. They are planning a "kid party" and each member of the club is to appear in costume for the event.

Spring Styles

And now enters Spring—herald of the new and beautiful—a season when all womankind turns to the creators of fashion for something refreshing in apparel. Fresh and youthful, breathing the very beauties of springtime, are these new suits. We doubt if you will find a display anywhere offering greater selections of the new modes, and materials, the style, the fit, and, above all, the modified prices.

BURIED BEES MEET.
The Busy Bees met yesterday afternoon at the county library, with Mrs. J. M. Payne, Mrs. L. Pinson, Mrs. Augusta Rust, Mrs. M. A. Byles, Mrs. Hassell and Mrs. M. E. Kirkpatrick as hostesses. The afternoon was spent in conversation and needlework, and a program was much enjoyed. The numbers included a vocal solo and an instrumental solo by Miss Thelma Dupuis, and a recitation by little Jack Wright.

FINDS SOMETHING TO DO THE BUSINESS
"I tried everything that I heard of for the stomach and bowel trouble and bloating, but got no permanent help until I struck May's Wonderful Remedy, and that did the business. My son in Canada has also taken it and writes it has done him a lot of good." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

THE PENDLETON DRUG CO.

MRS. W. F. BAKER of Milwaukie, Oregon, who says she has been restored to perfect health by Tanlac after having suffered for twenty years. Her statement is remarkable.

"For the last twenty years I have suffered from stomach trouble in its worst form. I was in misery all the time. If I took a drink of coffee or milk or even water, it would cause belching and gas. In fact, absolutely nothing would digest in my stomach. I always had an awful burning sensation in the pit of my stomach. I believe I have taken almost a wagon load of soda for stomach trouble. I would have to take it night and day. Gas would blast me up so badly I couldn't fasten my clothes. At times my heart would palpitate and flutter so badly I would nearly smother and I would have to gasp for breath. In fact, I thought I had heart trouble. "I was very fond of cheese and the least bite would throw me right into spasms. I was also very fond of onions, but they would upset me terribly. "My whole system was out of shape and I was also bothered with rheumatism and neuritis. Pains in my arms and other joints were almost unbearable. I had to carry one of my arms in a sling and couldn't raise it up to my head. My hands would swell up and for a long time I was in just an awful condition. "I told my husband I guessed I would have to give up and die, as the doctor's medicines and other things I took didn't do me any good. Then he got me some Tanlac and said I had to take it. Well, before I finished one bottle, I found the things I would eat did not bother me so much. I kept gradually getting better and finally after taking five bottles, my trouble was entirely relieved. I can now eat onions, cheese or anything I want. In fact, I am in perfect health in every way. My neuritis and rheumatism have also left me. I know that five dollars worth of Tanlac has done me more good than a hundred dollars' worth of other medicines. I will sing the praises of Tanlac as long as I live." The above remarkable statement was made by Mrs. W. F. Baker, whose address is Milwaukie, Oregon, R. F. N. 2. Tanlac is sold in Pendleton by Thompson Brothers.
