cussion During Bout With Young Griffo, Aged 16.

Physicians say death was caused by concussion of the brain and internal bleeding, probably the result of a fall from a blow to the jaw and neck by Young Griffo, whose real name is Jack Hlanda.

Hlanda was arrested and held pending investigation by Coroner Dibble. Hlanda is 16 years old.

NEW ALPS TUNNEL WILL OPEN SOON

BY HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
ROME, Feb. 25.—Announcement has just been made that, barring accident, the second tunnel under the Simplon pass, The Alps, and which runs parallel to the present one, will be opened for traffic during the coming summer.

Its operation is expected to stimulate an increase immensely both passenger and merchandise transportation between the channel ports and the Mediterranean and Adriatic.

Work on the second Simplon tunnel has been in progress since 1912. Despite the war a certain amount of work was at all times kept up.

In building the present tunnel, the engineers were able to utilize the gallery which had been built when the first tunnel was constructed for the purpose of ventilating the latter. In fact, the new tunnel is little more than an enlargement and adaptation of this gallery, although the engineering problems involved, were fully as great as those of the original tunnel construction.

The first tunnel was pierced at a cost of over $15,000,000, whilst the second one will cost only about $7,000,000.

The two tunnels now have a total of about twelve and a half miles of which five and a half are on Swiss territory, and the remainder on Italian soil.

HARDING FAVORS ACTIVE WORK TO SAVE U. S. FORESTS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—(U. P.)—Greater strides toward a national forest policy were made in 1920 than ever before, Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry Association, told the members at the opening of the annual meeting of the organization at the Willard Hotel. Pack called attention to the fact that President-elect Harding is heartily in favor of forest legislation and quoted this message from the incoming president:

"It is perfectly practicable and feasible to provide for a new growth of timber and an imperative duty to improve our forest protection. I can think of no forward look in relation to the good fortunes of America which does not contemplate a forest policy which will assure us the essential in the lumber line for all our constructive activities."

The Steel forest bill has been introduced in congress, Pack pointed out, and behind this measure was the united approval, he said, of not only the American Forestry Association, but every business interested, such as the American Newspaper Publishers Association and hundreds of wood using industries and the United States Forest Service.

"With the coming of a new congress, said Pack, "we are at the point where something constructive can be done in the perpetuation and preservation of the forests, one of the nation's greatest natural resources. Conservation has been quite a bugaboo in America just, but the call of war upon our resources has awakened the nation in the fact that the American Forestry Association has not been calling 'wolf in the wilderness' just for the fun of it. The fact of the matter is if we do not act something done there will be nothing but the wilderness in which to call 'wolf' and then it will be too late.

"Waste must be stopped. Our forests are being used or destroyed by fire four times faster than we are re-producing them. We must put the idle land to work. We must have forest crops coming long every year just as we have corn and wheat crops. The great encouraging note comes from the man who will take next week the highest office in the gift of the American people. He is a newspaper publisher and knows all about one big phase of the high cost of forest products—the pulpwood that goes into the making of news print. You can be assured, from his message I have just read you that he is with us on this great question and on the fact that he is with us the country is to be congratulated."

THE tendency to constipation begins with girls as they approach maturity, and that is the very time the mothers should watch that the important function of daily elimination is regular and normal.

Many thousands of mothers who have daughters will tell you they give only Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. A teaspoonful is sufficient to relieve constipation and its commoner symptoms such as headache, bad breath, biliousness, loss of appetite and rest less sleep.

Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics, and a sixty-cent bottle is enough for many months. Eight million bottles were bought at drug stores last year, the largest sale of the kind in the world.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been on the market thirty years and there must be genuine merit behind it to develop so large and steady a sale. Buy a bottle today and you will quickly see why it is so popular.
