This same victory nearly caused his total undoing later when, after five years of Maine. He has an ambilion to see the weight and one day his wish is the world, and one day his wish is artifled through the generosity of a friend of his dead fathers, who feels compelled to pay a debt of gratifude to the son for a service readered by his father. The friend is Paul Granson, a wealthy artist who has lived life to the utmost, and it is not strange that the unsophisticated Michael should become intoxicated with the galety of the fife thrapson shows him.

All is well, however, until Micaal and meets, at one of Gayson's parties.
