CUSTOM WILL BE OBSERVED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—(A. P.)—President Wilson will follow the custom of riding to the capital with the incoming president on March fourth.

MARCH WHEAT ADVANCES ONE CENT

March wheat, which fell in price yesterday while May grain advanced, advanced a cent over yesterday's closing, while May wheat fell one cent. The figures show that March grain closed $1.68 and May at $1.57.

Following are the quotations from Overbeck & Cooke, local brokers.

Chicago Grain Market.
Open	High	Low	Close
Mar. $1.68	$1.69 1/2	$1.67 1/2	$1.68
May 1.58	1.59	1.56 1/2	1.57

May Hold Sale
Another Indian land sale may be held at the Umatilla Indian Agency in August, according to Major E. Swartzlander. A sale held in December was unsuccessful but he believes that by August there may be more demand for the land.

Auto Men to Dine
The Pendleton Auto Association will hold its regular monthly meeting next Tuesday night, a week earlier than schedule, and will make final arrangements for the Auto Show, to be held March 10, 11 and 12. The meeting will be at the Elks club and will consist of a banquet, followed by a business session. J. E. Allen, president of the association, will preside and a big attendance is promised.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Baptist Meetings Continue
The revival meetings at the Baptist church will continue tomorrow morning and evening. There will be no meeting this evening.

Estate Is Settled
Therese A. Berlin has been discharged as administratrix of the estate of Frank A. Berlin, the order by Judge Schambly being filed today. A final accounting was made and the estate fully administered.

Weather Very Warm
Last night was one of the warmest of the season, the minimum being 40, the maximum today is 58 and the barometer registers 30.70. Major Lee Moorhouse, weather observer, predicts a warm, bright Sunday.

Sues to Collect
Suit was filed yesterday afternoon in the circuit court by Jack Jewett and Ivan Dimnick, co-partners, against Al Risher seeking judgment for $164.75 alleged to be due for services and labor rendered and for $172.11 for materials furnished.

F. R. Weaver Departs
F. R. Weaver, who has been in charge of the navy recruiting office which closed here recently, left this morning for Portland where he will be employed in the navy recruiting station there. He was accompanied by Mrs. Weaver and their little daughter, Marcella Weaver.

Farmers Discuss Plan
Fifteen Pendleton wheat farmers met yesterday at an informal meeting and discussed the Oregon Co-Operative Wheat Growers Association. The Umatilla county farmers have taken no action regarding the plan for marketing the wheat although it has been discussed widely.

Makes Final Report
Estelle Ross has filed final account and report to Walter Ross in the county court. In addition to the report made she asks that an order be given discharging her as guardian of the person and estate of minor Walter Ross. Walter Ross has become of age, the report states.

Canvass Will Begin
In accord with the nation-wide Presbyterian "Every Member" campaign, the local church will begin a house-to-house canvass March 3. Last year the Pendleton church donated for its work and the benevolence fund the sum of $3,500, or $1.65 per capita, while the national donations ran into millions of dollars.

New Officers Chosen
A. M. Chrystall was last night chosen as the new president of the Men's Forum of the Presbyterian church. James E. Akoy is vice-president and H. E. Dodge, secretary-treasurer. Dr. David E. Hill is the retiring president. About 35 men were present at last night's meeting, which was preceded by a beautiful banquet served by the Ladies Aid. The Forum meets every month and is a flourishing organization.

Boy Is Good Swimmer
Harold Hutton, Pendleton boy who is attending Lincoln school in Portland gives promise of becoming famous as a swimmer, according to a letter received here by Arthur Hutton from Ted Preble, formerly of this city and a prominent member of the Multnomah Athletic Club. Young Hutton, who in the 50 yard comes close to the record time, shows as much or more promise as Norman Ross, now world famous swimmer, says Mr. Preble who was the first coach Ross had. Mr. Preble is encouraging young Hutton to receive instruction at the Multnomah Athletic Club under Jack Cody.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Case In Continued
The case of Clyde Hebert against James Peebe, Ida J. Beebe and Earl Beebe now in the circuit court, has been continued until the disposition of the Portland attorney who drew up the deed in question can be made.

Charged With Illegal Hunting
Isaac Thoms, living on upper McKay creek, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Spears and William Lyday. The officers were on a moon-shine case when they secured evidence of illegal hunting. Thoms is out on bonds and his case will probably come before the justice court next week.

Physicians Will Bid
At the suggestion of Dr. I. U. Temple the county court has given orders that bids be submitted by local physicians for the position of county physician. Dr. D. J. McFarland is now filling the position and it is understood that the physician making the most favorable bid will be named as his successor.

Ward Becomes of Age
Walter Ross, for whom Estelle Ross has been serving as guardian, having reached his majority, the guardian has been discharged by order of the county judge, filed today.

Good Results Obtained
About half of Pendleton's $7,000 quota in the Chinese-Armenian relief drive was subscribed yesterday and local workers hope to close the drive by tonight. The complete county quota, including Pendleton, was $14,000 and other towns in the county are showing a ready response.

First Presbyterian Church

Pendleton

REV. G. L. CLARK, Pastor

The Presbyterian Church at large gave last year for Benevolence, $9,800,000, which is an average of $4.65 per capita. The average is rising.

The method of raising money is a safe and sane method. Every member of the congregation is afforded the opportunity to make a regular contribution into the Church Treasury. This Every Member Canvass will be made on the afternoon of March 6, next Sunday. Canvassers will visit every family of the Church with a pledge card to be filled out. Every Presbyterian will plan to do his or her full share.
