Mrs. Frank Hale, who has been in Seattle several weeks for medical treatment, is still quite ill. Mrs. W. W. Eselstyn returned home Saturday evening from Walla Walla where she was called by her sister, Mrs. E. Harold, who, accompanied by her husband, was departing for Rochester, Minnesota, for treatment with the Mayo Brothers.

Antone Cunha, left Sunday for Portland to join his wife who has been in that city about a week. While in Portland, Mrs. Cunha expects to have her tonsils removed.

Grant Buchana was here on business matters from Butter Creek Monday.

A. Haellor of Portland was transacting business in Echo Monday.

THOUGHT IT JOKE; PROVED SERIOUS

BUTTE, March 1.—(U. P.)—When three masked men entered the room of a local hotel, where a poker game was in progress, the players thought it was a joke, but the affair took its humorous aspect when the trio snatched $4,000 in cash and jewelry and escaped.

WAGES NOT ADVANCED IN ACCORDANCE TO HIGH COST OF LIVING

PARIS, Mar. 1.—(A. P.)—Wages in Budapest are only 15 to 20 times higher than they were in 1914, writes James A. Pedlow, the American Red Cross Commissioner to Hungary. The cost of living, however, Mr. Pedlow estimates at least 100 times higher than seven years ago.

"The average yearly income of 5,700 city employees is 12,000 crowns," he states. "In many instances such a salary is insufficient even to maintain life."

Business First.

"Harry," exclaimed the blushing maiden, "this declaration of love is so sudden that I hardly know what to say. I was unprepared for it. It unnerved me."

"I was afraid it might," said the young druggist, rising with alacrity from his knees, "and I brought with me a bottle of my unrivaled nerve tonic. This preparation, my darling," he added soothingly, as he took the bottle from his pocket, quickly extracted the cork, poured a quantity of the medicine into a spoon he had also brought with him, "will allay any undue excitement, quiet the nerves, aid digestion and restore lost appetite. I sell it at $1 a bottle. This is a dose for an adult. Take it, dearest."
