Terrible Storm Feature of Dramatic Moment on Screen

"ONCE TO EVERY WOMAN" TO BE SEEN HERE
ALTA TODAY

A terrific electrical storm serves as the background for one of the most dramatic scenes in "Polly of the Storm Country," starring Mildred Harris, Chaplin, and to be shown at the Arcada Theatre, beginning today. Oscar Bennett, a farmer, is struck by lightning and taken to Polly's little cabin in the quarter community of Evelyn Roberts, the woman whom he had secretly married years before. Robert, the son whom Polly loves, bursts in on the scene and is surprised at the sight of the dying man in bed. Evelyn, to guard her own secret, tells Robert that Bennett is "Polly's man." Leaving Polly, Robert leaves without awaiting further explanations, but later he comes to know the whole truth of the complicated situation, after Bennett dies and Evelyn marries the rich land owner, arch enemy of the squatters.

American theatergoers who revel in the dramatic wealth of "The Heart of Humanity" and captivated to the irresistible qualities of "The Right to Happiness" are doubtless of the opinion that in these two photodramas Dorothy Phillips and Allen Holubar, star and director, have reached the heights of screen perfection. But the public is asked to reserve its final verdict until it has had a view of "Once to Every Woman," the newest Universal-Jewel super-production, coming to the Alta Theatre today.

The popular appeal of "Once to Every Woman" is heightened because it deals with every-day people and treats of a theme that is as old as humanity. Mother love is its keynote, and it shows the utter vanity of worldly ambition when not founded on human affection.

Miss Phillips first appears as a

"Made in Heaven." That's the label on the marriage of Tom Moore (inset) and Renee Adoree (above). It really happened that way. Tom went to New York to make the first scenes of his picture, "Made in Heaven." There for the first time he met Renee. She played the part of his sister in the film. Now Renee is playing the role of Tom's wife in real life.

QUEER ANSWERS ARE RECEIVED IN REPLY TO ARMY CIRCULAR

Soldiers Wax Sarcastic When Uncle Sam Asks for Names of Men Who Have Not Yet Received Victory Medals.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—Several queer answers were received by Captain H. C. Billings, U. S. A., San Francisco, in answer to a circular letter he sent recently to California men who fought in the World War asking them to send him names of ten eligible friends who had not applied for the Victory Medals issued to former soldiers.

Some of the replies read:

"Dear Sir: I got too of the boys to right there names and address on here but most all the boys say nothing doing on the mendell stuff. They all want more bonas. Medals don't by them anything but that bonas bizness seems to be up to Congress and they will have to wait and see what Congress says."

"Sir: Your recd. contents noted. I presented my army discharge at the Oakland recruiting station for the victory medal and I don't believe there is any War Dept. order out compelling me or any one else to give you names of ten men who not recd. their medals anyway I am not going to do same, so after my rendering about two years service in the army, and then can't get the medal without hunting up ten other men like myself you may keep mine."

"Gentlemen, Dear Sirs: Did not get my victory medal. They gave them all out here when I was under quarantine here for smallpox on Nov. 11th when Armistice Day was celebrated here. I am well and sound now and old. (The family had it) Hoping this will be O. K. Will await the medal. I never had it but light. How much do they pay enlisted men in the service now?"

is giving something which makes the raising of the money not such an objectionable job as it might otherwise be. Saturday evening the committee reported that they were within one hundred dollars of the goal.

Mayor H. A. Barrett of Athena was hobnobbing with Weston friends the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mayberry, who have been on an extended visit with relatives in Milton, returned to their home Sunday.

Wendel Phinney, small son of Rev. and Mrs. Mark A. Phinney of the United Brethren church, had the misfortune Saturday afternoon to fall and fracture the bone in his left leg just above the ankle joint.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Rasmussen, late of Tacoma, are making an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Soren Thorsen. They are returning by easy stages to their old home in Denmark. Mrs. Rasmussen and Mrs. Thorsen are sisters. In order to acquire all the English they can, the visitors have placed two young children, a son and a daughter, in the Weston schools.

DOROTHY PHILLIPS
Brilliant Star of "The Heart of Humanity"

ONCE TO EVERY WOMAN

ONCE in every woman's life comes a certain great moment. Once in her lifetime something comes to her on which her whole future depends. It has come—or will surely come—to you just as it came to Aurora Meredith. What do you think it is? You'll know when you see splendid Dorothy Phillips, the star of "The Heart of Humanity" and "The Right to Happiness" play this great part in a picture that every woman in the world will understand. A picture for which a whole opera was produced in which the players sang just as they sing on the mighty stage of the Metropolitan—a dazzling production in which the social leaders of a great western city acted as the "extras"—a marvelous love story that you'll never forget. See it now. Don't miss it. Remember—"Once to Every Woman."

WESTON CITIZENS ARE AT WORK RAISING FUND

(East Oregonian Special.)

WESTON, March 2.—Sam Banister, who used to farm quite extensively near Weston, and who was rated as the champion thrashing machine operator in these parts, is visiting here from Enterprise, near which place he is engaged in farming.

W. S. Ferguson of Athena, was a Saturday caller on Weston business institutions.

W. M. Davis, of North Water street, returned Saturday morning from Walla Walla where he has been on business for a few days.

The Sam J. Culler were Saturday visitors to Walla Walla.

James C. Turner, erstwhile bonanza farmer north of the city, now living in Pendleton, was a business visitor here Saturday.

S. S. Price who owns wheat land northwest from Athena, was seen on our streets Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Henderson left Sunday morning for Franke, Wyoming, where Mr. Henderson has accepted a mechanical position with an oil company.

Quite a large delegation of Weston three-linkers are attending the I. O. O. F. district convention in Heppner this week. Those who are attending mostly went by automobile. Part of them went down Friday while others went early Saturday morning. They returned Sunday.

Mrs. Joe J. Read came up from Pendleton Sunday to visit for a few days with relatives. Mr. Read is working in a grocery store in Pendleton.

Some sales of wheat were reported in the Weston market during the closing days of the week. The ownership and who should pay the taxes had a tendency to depress the market.

Frank Price, J. A. Lumsden and J. H. Price, the active committee who are raising Weston's quota of the Chinese-Armenian relief fund, report satisfactory results. Nearly every one
