WOMEN WHO CANNOT WORK

Read Mrs. Corley's Letter and Benefit by Her Experience. Edmund, S.C.—"I was run down with nervousness and female trouble and suffered every month. I was not able to do any work and tried a lot of medicine, but got no relief. I saw your medicine advertised in a little book that was thrown in my door, and I had not taken two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I could see it was helping me. I am keeping house now and am able to do all of my work. I cannot say enough for your medicine. It has done more for me than any doctor. I have not paper enough to tell you how much it has done for me and for my friends. You may print this letter if you wish."

PASTIME SUNDAY—MONDAY

Text: 'This is an absorbing picture of how a woman's white lie tangled up three lives, until it seemed as if the snarl would never be straightened out. A story laid in the golden foothills of California among simple, understandable people hungry for happiness—very human drama full of breathless moments in which a few little boy and a spoiled pup play two mighty important parts. It's the kind of picture that all the family should see. Because there's something in it for everyone.'
