The final score was Johnson 6 shown in Pendleton during Tuesday. Wins and one draw. By yesterday's the first showing will be held in the game Mr. Johnson can hereafter be high school suditorium at 4 p. m. and the second at the library at 8:15 p. m. and the second at the library at 8:15 p. m. and the second at the library at 8:15 p. m. and the second at the library at 8:15 p. m. the same is becoming exceedingly popular around the club rooms and new blood is constantly being developed.

The same was to crowded around the table where the two were playing and there as a big throng of them during the entire game. The first reel on the program is entitled, "Careless Americas and has to do with auto accidents. The remaining three reels are in drama form and portray an intensely interesting story. Railroad crossing accidents are featured in these reels. The pictures are being shown throughout the country as a part of a general program of education fostered by the railroad company.

Johnson is Checker Champ.

A. H. Johnson, former Pendleton resident and orchestra leader, who is now assessor of Walla Walla county, is now heralded as the champion checker player of the Garden City. The following account of a recent Johnson victory is from the Walla Union:

All the champs and hear champs of the Commercial club, saw Assessor A. H. Johnson "wallop" H. D. Lamb, champion of Eastern Oregon in the checker games scheduled yesterday afternoon at the club rooms.
