BUSY BEES MEET.

Mrs. E. Stansbury, Mrs. Hannu Sahl, Mrs. Eula Simpson, Mrs. Henry Sirova, Mrs. Augusta Rist and Mrs. Edgar Thompson were hostesses yesterday afternoon for a meeting of the Busy Bees at the home of Mrs. Charles Rhoad.

A feature contest, which afforded much entertainment, resulted in the award of the first prize to Mrs. K. Stenstrom and second honors to Mrs. A. A. Ferguson. The afternoon was spent in needlework and conversation, and later a luncheon was served. Guests other than club members included Mrs. Lee Brown, Mrs. Emil Doherty, Mrs. Enoch Friedly, Mrs. Dorothy Thomas, Mrs. E. E. Buer, Mrs. William Edwards, and Mrs. F. M. Ruse of Nampa, Idaho.

LITTLE GIRL WINS MEDAL.

Little Miss Eleanor Porter, aged ten, won the silver medal in the W. C. T. U. oratorical contest last night at the Baptist church. Her recitation was "A Threat From Tommy." The child is a sister of Nathan Porter, who two weeks ago won the silver medal in a similar contest. Porter had previously won a W. C. T. U. medal. Judges last night were Mrs. Florence Sweet, Miss Boone and Miss Edythe Daubner, all teachers in the local schools.

MISS BRONAUUGH CHOSEN.

Miss Annamary Bronaugh, of Portland, who has visited in Pendleton, is the home of Mrs. J. N. Burgess and also at the E. J. Murphy home, has been chosen to represent Alpha Xi chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta, University of Oregon, at the national convention. The convention will be held in New York.

CLUB WILL MEET.

The Pendleton Women's Club will meet tomorrow in the club room of the county library. "Ways and Means for Parks and Playgrounds" will be the topic, and George Hartman, Mayor of Pendleton, and H. E. Inlow, city school superintendent, will speak. In view of the community program of this city, the subject is attracting great interest and it is thought that a large number of Pendleton women will attend the meeting tomorrow.

VISITORS IN PORTLAND.

Mrs. M. E. Robertson and Miss Dorothy Robertson of Pendleton are guests of Mrs. W. E. Robinson. Later they will go to Seaview, Wash., for a visit, with relatives. Miss Robertson was society editor of the Pendleton Tribune. She will enter Chautauqu work in the summer.

WILL MEET TOMORROW.

Pendleton Auxiliary No. 5, Patriarcha Milliam, will meet Thursday night in the I. O. O. F. hall.

MRS. CAMERON HERE.

Mrs. Eleanor Cameron, of Portland, arrived last evening in Pendleton to spend the week as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Fletcher. Mrs.

Cameron formerly resided here and has many friends in the city.

WILL MEET TOMORROW.

Mrs. Rex Gray, leader of Division No. 2, of the Missionary Society of the Christian church, and Miss Alice Greenwald, leader of Division No. 5, will be hostesses tomorrow for a meeting of the society at the home of Mrs. Gray. Members are being asked to bring their record cards, completely filled out.

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED.

Of special interest was the wedding this morning of Miss Miriam Caldwell and George O. Kemp. The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock in the Baptist church with Rev. W. H. Cox, pastor, officiating. The bride wore a smart frock of old rose taffeta. Following the ceremony, friends of the couple gave them an old fashioned charivari, which included the use of whistles, horns and other devices. Mr. Kemp is a member of the firm of Riley & Kemp and the couple will make their home in this city.

NEW PLANT TO COST $45,000 PLANS SHOW

The new ice and cold storage plant to be built by the Smythe-Lorenson company to replace the one recently destroyed by fire, will cost $45,000. It was revealed today when application was made to the city recorder for a building permit. F. J. Leonard is named as the contractor in the application and the building will be completed by June 1.

The new building, as announced previously in the East Oregonian, will occupy the same ground as the old plant and will be approximately 77 feet square. Ice storage capacity will be 600 tons, whereas the old plant could store only 225 tons. There will be 3000 square feet of storage space for commercial storage use.

SAYS RAILROADS WANT TO BAR ALL AGREEMENTS

CHICAGO, March 9.—(A. P.)—The railroads are not fighting to abolish the national agreement but want to bring about a condition where there can be no agreements and no negotiations between the roads and their employees. D. W. Heit, president of the railroad American, declared today in the National agreement hearing before the railroad labor board.

"To abolish the agreements would mean discontent and dissatisfaction among the signalmen, the men on whom public safety depends," he asserted.

Statistics to show decreases in signal failures under the national agreements were introduced by Mr. Heit. Examples cited included: "Union Pacific, one division—238 failures in 1917; 56 in 1920. "Oregon Short Line—118 failures in 1918; 177 in 1920."

ver of Tacoma that if his official duties permit, he desires to visit the Pacific Northwest during the coming summer and he hopes to include Alaska in his itinerary.

The president said he has long wished to visit this part of the country and it would afford him especial pleasure to see some of the reclamation projects and other Western problems with which he will have to deal as president. Whether or not he can go will depend largely upon the time required for the extra session of congress to complete its work.

STOMACH O. K.

Indigestion, Acidity, Sourness and Gases ended with "Pape's Diapiesin"

Millions of people know that it is needless to be bothered with indigestion, dyspepsia or a disordered stomach. A few tablets of Pape's Diapiesin neutralize acidity and give relief at once. When your meals don't fit and you feel uncomfortable, when you belch gases, acids or rains sour, indigestion food. When you feel lumps of indigestion pain, heartburn or headache, from acidity, just eat a tablet of Pape's Diapiesin and the stomach distress is gone. The cost is so little. The benefits so great. You, too, will be a Diapiesin enthusiast afterwards.
