WEDDING SOLEMNIZED.

At a 12 o'clock ceremony yesterday morning Mrs. Miriam Caldwell and George Kemp were united in marriage at the Baptist church with Rev. W. H. Cox, pastor, officiating, amid a setting of hyacinths and ferns.

Mrs. Grace Hawkins of Elgin, was matron of honor and Francis Riley was best man. The bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Bert McDonald. The bride chose for her wedding gown a charming model of rose satin veiled by apricot gossamer, with smart tulle to match. Her bouquet was a shower of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride and groom. Guests of the affair were:

MRS. WHIPP WEDS

Of interest to Pendleton people is the following from the Oregonian regarding the marriage of Mrs. Harriette Whipp, who has friends in the city:

A wedding of exceptional interest was solemnized yesterday when Leona Fisher Whipp (Mrs. Harriette Whipp) and Alvin Thomas Shane were married at 2 o'clock in an attractive suite in the Multnomah hotel. Rev. Joshua Stanfield officiated. Mrs. Shane is a widely known organist, having appeared here and throughout the northwest in concert and recital. She is recognized for her musical ability and her charm of manner has endeared her to a large circle of friends. The ceremony was simple, but the suite was banked in rare flowers. The bride wore a Paquin gown of becoming model with a touch of rich coloring in the flowers at the girdle. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Shane will return to take up their residence in the Multnomah hotel, where they have engaged a handsome suite. Mr. Shane will take his bride on a trip east. He is from Idaho Falls, where he has extensive business and banking interests. No announcement of the betrothal had been made and the wedding was a surprise to the many friends of the bride. The couple will be away for two months, but on their return doubtless will inspire a number of social events of interest.

MRS. NORRIS HONORED

A tribute to Mrs. Charles Norris, who for the past four years has served as treasurer of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid and who during that time has never failed to attend each meeting, was paid at yesterday's meeting of the Aid when members presented her with a set of silver salad forks. Mrs. Norris, with Mr. Norris, recently went to Portland to make her home, but returned to attend the meeting yesterday. She will leave for Portland on Saturday and much regret is expressed at her departure.

Officers of the Aid for the year 1921 were chosen at yesterday's meeting. Mrs. Kenneth McRae was chosen president; Mrs. William Blakeley, first vice president; Mrs. R. Raymond, second vice president; Mrs. S. A. Newberry secretary and Mrs. A. J. Smith, treasurer. With the exception of Mrs. Raymond, who succeeds Mrs. H. E. McLean, and Mrs. Smith, who succeeds Mrs. Norris, the old officers were re-elected.

Hostesses yesterday were Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. Guy Boyden, Mrs. Brunham, Mrs. Joe Cox, Mrs. Ed. Morgan, Mrs. Dorothy Thomas and Mrs. G. W. Myers. Refreshments were served during the later hours, the tea table being centered by hyacinths and carnations.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and softens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night. "Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.
