WIDE SEARCH IS BEING MADE FOR JACK THE RIPPER

Missing Man is Held Responsible for Death of Two Women in This Vicinity.

LATEST VICTIM WAS ATTACKED NEAR HOME

Woman Was Seized on Sidewalk, Carried to Vacant Lot and Brutally Slain.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., March 14.—(A. P.)—Sailors hangouts, "poison house" dens and other dives of Perth Amboy, and Staten Island are being searched for "Jack the Ripper," who is held responsible for the deaths of two women in this vicinity. The latest victim is Mrs. Harvey Wilson, 28, an organist at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church. She was seized on the sidewalk within a few paces of her home, just off the main street of Perth Amboy, carried to a vacant lot and there brutally slain. The crime is connected by the police with the recent killing of a young woman at West New Brighton, Staten Island, under similar circumstances. The same man is held responsible. The place where the outrage was committed has been roped off and guarded by the police. The spot is staked off by huge crowds. Mothers have kept their daughters indoors. Girls went in pairs, afraid to venture out alone.

U. OF O. GIRLS' GLEE CLUB WILL SING HERE

The Girls' Glee Club of the University of Oregon will appear in Pendleton March 31 at the high school auditorium in a concert full of clever and original stunts, new songs never before heard in the west, and a large variety of snappy songs. Margaret Phelps and Vashli Hoskins are two Pendleton girls among the 23 chosen to tour Eastern Oregon. The Glee Club, selected from 90 applicants have been training since last fall to make these concerts a success. Local alumni of the University are in charge of arrangements for the club's appearance here.

Will Visit Towns Enterprise, La Grande, Pendleton, Heppner, and Hood River are included in the girls' itinerary through the eastern Oregon towns. The club will travel in a special car over the main line of the O. W. R. & N. This is the first time in several years that the club has scheduled a trip through the eastern Oregon counties.

Contrary to custom, the girls appeared in their home concert before going on any trip and met with unprecedented success. Leland A. Coon, director of the club, is of the opinion that this will give the girls more confidence and tend to perfect their organization. The success of the home concert made it possible for the girls to take this eastern trip.

Girls in Club Following are the girls who will appear in concert here: Alice Gohlke, Genevieve Clancy, Eloise McPherson, Bernice Altrock, Imogene Letcher, Laura Rand, Katherine Baker, Gladys Keneey, Constance Miller, Portland; Leah Zink, Sterling, Nebraska; Esther Wilson, Plainfield, Oreg.; Florence Garrett, Hillsboro; Dorris Hoefler, Astoria; Vashli Hoskins, Margaret Helms, Pendleton; Marian Linn, Irene Hugh, Eugene; Nell Gaylord, Tillamook; Naomi Wilson, Medford; Belle Chaburn, Marshfield; Alberta Carson, Hood River; Elizabeth Kessel, Corvallis; Marcelle Booth, Conville and Friederike Schille, La Grande.

THE WEATHER

PACKING PLANT CALLS ELECTION TO FORM AN INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACY

Organization Would Settle Matters of Working Conditions, Wages and Hours.

CHICAGO, March 14.—(A. P.)—Armour and Company today called an election in all its plants tomorrow for the employees to elect representatives to form an industrial democracy in which employers and employees would have equal representation and which would settle all matters of working conditions, wages and hours. The packing house employees in Chicago and other centers went to work today under the reduced scale pending the outcome of mediation plans and the result of the strike vote.

PRISONERS ARE HANGED, WORK IS SUSPENDED

DUBLIN, March 14.—(A. P.)—Six prisoners convicted of complicity in killing British intelligence officers and members of the crown forces in Ireland were executed in Mount Joy prison today. The prisoners were hanged in pairs at hour intervals. Twenty thousand persons gathered outside during the hours the executions were going on and all work in the city was stopped until 11 o'clock.

NEW TYPE G. M. C. MOTOR TRUCK WILL BE DEMONSTRATED

A disassembled of the new type G. M. C. truck motor will be given under the auspices of the Eldridge Buick Co. at the Willard Service Station, corner of Garden and West Court streets, on Wednesday at 5 p. m. Henry J. Lowden, representative of the company, is here to make arrangements and states that the public is invited to attend. The motor will be disassembled by Jay La Chapelle, traveling service representative of the Eldridge Co., Seattle, and during the process John B. Power, transportation expert of the same company, will lecture, explaining each part as it is taken off. These two experts are on a tour of the northwest, holding "school" for the benefit of truck owners, truck drivers and for the interested public. The 1921 G. M. C. motor was designed by the engineers of the General Motors Company four years ago. It is no longer in the experimental stage, having been improved and put through all sorts of tests during the four year period since it was designed. The motor, which has just been perfected has a number of new and interesting features in truck motor construction which are said to be of special interest to truck owners from the standpoint of economy and efficiency. The Eldridge Co. distributors for the G. M. C. truck, has gone to a great deal of expense in putting on this educational tour and believes everyone interested in motor truck transportation will profit by availing himself of this opportunity to acquaint himself with the motor construction of the future.

NEW SECRETARY OF COMMERCIAL CLUB ARRIVES IN CITY

C. L. Barr, new secretary of the Pendleton Commercial Association arrived this morning from Astoria and has assumed his duties. Mr. Barr, with James H. Sauris, president of the Association, met Pendleton business men this morning. Mr. Barr, who was formerly secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is well known here having been district agent of the local O. W. R. & N. office. Mrs. Barr will join Mr. Barr here within the next few weeks. Both are popular in Pendleton and their return here is welcomed.

COAL MINES ARE TO BE CLOSED DOWN FOR AN INDEFINITE PERIOD

SEATTLE, March 14.—(U. P.)—Two thirds of the coal mines in the state will close Wednesday for an indefinite period, as a result of the failure of mine operators and union members to agree on the proposed wage reduction. Operators have announced a wage reduction of 24 percent effective March 16. The workers remain firm in their refusal to accept.

HOTEL PETROGRAD WILL CLOSE ITS DOORS TODAY

PARIS, March 14.—Another hotel, this time not due to prohibition, is to close its doors. The Hotel Petrograd in Paris, the rendezvous of all women war workers in France during the war, is to pass out of existence on Monday, March 14th. The hotel, which was opened in December, 1917, by the War Work Council of the Y. W. C. A., will be taken over by the American Women's Club, recently organized to continue the hotel as a club center for American women in Paris. During the war thousands of war workers were entertained within its doors.

MEN REMAIN AT WORK IN PACKING PLANTS

CHICAGO, March 14.—(U. P.)—"Men back of the yards" went to work stoically today, without any disturbance, although a 12 to 20 per cent reduction in wages and a change in the working hours at packing plants went into effect. They will remain at their jobs until the result of the strike vote, which is now being taken is known or the difference are settled by arbitration.

WIDOW OF MURDERED MAN WILL GIVE HER TESTIMONY TODAY

Mrs. Hamon's Testimony is Expected to Furnish Dramatic Ending to Murder Trial. ADMORE, Okla., March 14.—State case against Clara Smith Hamon, who is on trial for the murder of millionaire Jake Hamon, drew rapidly to a close. With the story of the widow, the prosecution hoped to close its case today. Her testimony is expected to furnish a dramatic ending to the prosecution testimony. Frank Ketch, a thousand dollar a week business associate of Hamon, is the chief witness for the state today. He corroborated the other witnesses and testified that Hamon told him before his death that the defendant had shot him while he was reclining on his bed in the millionaire's "love hotel" in the Randall hotel.

WOMAN OF MURDERED MAN WILL GIVE HER TESTIMONY TODAY

Gave Prisoner $5000. ARDMORE, March 14.—(A. P.)—Frank L. Ketch, formerly business manager for Jake L. Hamon, and now administrator of his estate, testified today in the Clara Smith Hamon murder trial over an objection of the prosecutor who announced that developments Saturday were such that Ketch might be charged as an accessory after the fact of Hamon's murder. After Ketch left the stand the prosecutor said the witness under the law had been rendered immune by the fact that he had testified. Ketch testified that under Jake Hamon's instructions he had given Clara Hamon $5000 on the day following the shooting and told her to leave Ardmore. Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, the widow was expected to testify this morning but was too nervous to go on the stand.
