EXPECT POSTPONEMENT OF TRIAL OF PLAYERS INDICTED FOR SCANDAL

Indications Sunday Are Delay of One Month Will be Granted; May Hold for Six.

CHICAGO, March 14.—(A. P.)—The case of Chicago White Sox baseball players and others indicted for the alleged "throwing" of the 1919 world's series, is scheduled to be called by Judge W. E. Dever, tomorrow, but a postponement of at least 26 days is considered certain. The state tonight reiterated its intention of moving to have the case taken off the court calendar which would prevent its coming up for at least six months while the defense was preparing to fight any attempt to postpone the trial more than 30 days.

Claude Williams, Joe Jackson, Oscar Welch, Buck Weaver, Fred McMillin and Swede Risberg tonight were ready to go into court, while Eddie Cicotte was expected from Detroit tomorrow. Chick Gandil the other indicted player, was not expected.

No word has been received from Hal Chase, Rachel Brown, Bill Burns or Joe Sullivan, charged with being the men who arranged the alleged conspiracy.

Chas. A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League, who returned from California last night, declared no member of his team who had been indicted last fall would play for him again.

"These players," he said, "are on my ineligible list. It was not necessary for Judge Landis to put them on his, but I am glad that he did. There is absolutely no chance for any of them to play on my team again, unless they can clear themselves to my satisfaction."

WILL HAVE SALARY INCREASE

HONOLULU, T. H., March 15.—The governor of Hawaii, the chief justice of the supreme court, his associates and the judges of the circuit courts are all due for salary increases, if bills introduced in the territorial legislature are made law.

One bill would add $1500 to the salary of $7500 now paid by the federal government to the governor, the difference coming out of the territory's pocket. The other measure plans to increase the federal stipends paid the judges named by $150 per month, plus the federal government increases their salaries in the meantime. This latter measure followed a protest to the legislature by Chief Justice J. C. Cole, who declared that judges of courts of record in the territory could not live respectably on their present salaries.

FILMLAND ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY

KISSES STARTED LIVELY SCANDAL

"The Kisses Girl is Here!" Maybelle Flowers, show girl at the Vanities, has a repertoire of what she terms floral kisses. Here are some of them! Oh! Yum! Yum!—The chaste lily-of-the-valley kiss, the scorching crimson rambler and the lingering, tantalizing honeysuckle toister!

Can you imagine what a furor such an advertisement would cause? It started a whole train of exciting circumstances for Sylvia. Famous on the coast of Southern California aristocracy. They were proud—but oh, so torn! So Sylvia had become "Maybelle Flowers" of the "Vanities" and then the press agent put out that awful story. And Sylvia's lover read the story and believed it. It makes a most entertaining photoplay of "Food for Scandal," which will show at the Alta theatre for two days beginning Sunday.

"Food for Scandal" is different in every way from Miss Hobbs, the initial Wanda Hawley starring vehicle which had such a tremendous vogue all over the country. It is said to have been so selected in order to prove Miss Hawley to be a really versatile star.

Again a splendid cast will assist Miss Hawley in the fun-making. Harrison Ford is her leading man while other well-known players include Lester Cunes, Ethel Gray Terry, Margaret McWade, Monte Provost, Juan de la Cruz, Sidney Bracy.

ARCADIE SUNDAY AND MONDAY W. S. HART IN SERGEANT O'MALLEY

Sergeant O'Malley, of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, is ordered by MacGregor, his chief, to arrest a man, who has killed La Grange in the latter's saloon, and of whose whereabouts little is known, except that the murderer has escaped across the Canadian-American border. Determined to bring in his man, O'Malley starts his quest.

Disguised as a cowboy, O'Malley attends a rodeo in the cow town of Forker City. He watches the riders, ever in search of the young murderer, of whom he has only one clue—he rides a wild untamed horse. The Sheriff and his men also are at the rodeo on the watch for the Baldy Mountain gang of cut-throats. Bud Lanier, a youth, is one of the riders and O'Malley keeps his eye on him, because his instinct tells him that this is the man he is looking for. O'Malley is made stakeholder when a bet is made for and against the boy winning the prize for riding. He congratulates the young man upon the skill he has displayed. They separate and O'Malley stealthily follows the rider into the fastnesses of the Baldy Mountains. Here trouble is brewing for Bud Lanier and his beautiful sister Rose. Red Jaeger, a bully, has his eyes upon her while Big Judson, watches both narrowly.
