

ARCANE TODAY ANNETTE KELLERMAN IS SUPPORTED BY STAR CAST IN "WHAT WOMEN LOVE"

Annette-Kellerman was given an All-star cast in her first modern comedy drama, "What Women Love," a First National attraction, which comes to the Arcade theatre today. After the story was purchased from Bernard McConville, the famous screen-cribe, for $10,000, Sol Lesser (instructed Harry Castfield, his production manager, to spare no expense in securing the best available talent for Miss Kellerman's support. Wheeler-Cookman, who played the masculine lead in "The Spoilers," "The Neter Do Well," "Mickey," "The Virgin of Stamboul," and other successes, was chosen to play opposite "The diving Venus." Walter Long, who has been chosen as the ideal heavy by D. W. Griffith, ever since Long played the part of the negro Gus in "The Birth of a Nation," was picked for the part of the villainous Larsen. Ralph Lewis, the veteran character actor; Bull Montana, who is now being featured by Marshall Nelson, and a host of other well known players complete the cast.

ARCANE TOMORROW Roy Stewart, the attractive young actor who has the leading male role in "The U. P. Trail," the Benj. B. Hampton superproduction released through the W. W. Hodgkinson Corporation, which will be shown at the Arcade theatre for three days starting Thursday, has appeared in several well-known Benj. B. Hampton pictures, but never has he appeared to more advantage than as "Walter Neale," who helps blaze the trail for the great Union Pacific Railroad.

ALTA TODAY HONEYMOONS DO A VARIETY OF THINGS

The announcement that Mary Pickford is to appear at the Alta Theatre today in her latest United Artists production, "The Love Light," is of unusual interest to her thousands of local admirers, for several reasons, one of them being that the star, and her author and director, Frances Marion, obtained the idea for the story, a great deal of the furnishings and some of the players while each was honey-

BOLSHEVIKI SEEM TO BE LOSING CONTROL

STOCKHOLM, March 16.—(A. P.)—Russian bolshevik authorities seem to be losing control of the soviet troops, say Finland and Estonia dispatches. Artillery fire from Kronstadt was directed yesterday along the southern coast of the Gulf of Finland. Bolsheviki artillerymen shelled and destroyed a lighthouse near Kronstadt.

VETERANS OF WORLD WAR PREFER LAND GRANT COMPENSATION

JUNEAU, Alaska, March 16.—Veterans of the World War in Alaska prefer a land grant compensation to a cash bonus based on length of service, according to the result of a vote taken in every American Legion post in that territory. In accordance with the decision of its members, the Legion Department of Alaska will ask that ex-service men and women be given grants of one hundred and sixty acres from the unappropriated public lands of Alaska. The area of Alaska is 590,884 square miles which is about one-sixth of the United States proper. Although the desirable land of this large expanse of territory is small compared to the whole, not more than one hundred and fifty homesteads have been patented up to the present, despite the fact that settlement of the more desirable areas is admitted to be one of the essentials of the future of Alaska. Legion officials believe that the proposed land grants to veterans would result in as great a benefit to the territory as to the ex-service men and women.

meeting with her respective husband, in Italy. Miss Pickford and Miss Marion being close chums, and Douglas Fairbanks and Frederick Thompson being fast friends, it was only natural that they should meet on the other side of the Atlantic and spend their honeymoons together, and the two gifted girls sat on the rocks overlooking the Mediterranean in Northern Italy and planned the story. Another reason for the great interest aroused by this production is that it is Miss Pickford's first appearance in an emotional drama following her announced policy of attempting new things and creating new paths in photoplay stories. It will be recalled that some time ago Miss Pickford announced that not only for her own artistic advancement, but for the advancement of the entire motion picture industry, she would endeavor to get away from the conventional hackneyed stories and attempt to present life as it really is.

THE uppers on most red boots crack very quickly when exposed to sun and air. While no boot can stand undue exposure, the Hood Pressure Process produces a boot exceptionally free from this objectionable feature. When you buy a red boot with a yellow label and the word "HOOD" on it, you are getting the latest development — an upper that will stand rough treatment combined with the newest tire-tread soles, which means long wear and good looks. "HOOD" is your guarantee.

Zane Grey's GREATEST NOVEL "The U. P. TRAIL" A thrilling story of life and love in the pioneer days of the cutting of the trail for the great U. P. Railroad, with as great a cast as ever seen in any picture. A Massive Picture of the Great West, With a Powerful Cast Including Roy Stewart, Kathlyn Williams, Robert McKim, Joseph Dowling, Marguerite De Lamotte. Despite the fact that "The U. P. Trail" is a massive production it is possessed of something more than mere physical bigness: It is just as great in theme as it is in production investiture. Dealing with the growth of our country, it shows America in the making, at a time when night was right and every man carried the law on his own hip. BRAY PICTOGRAPH
