

People Here and There

Philo Rounds, of Sawtelle's Jewelry store, left last night for a business trip to Walla Walla.

No "picture bride" for Togo, well known to Pendleton people as the porter at the O. W. B. & N. depot, Togo, who left for Japan in September, has sent word to local Japanese that he will return here next month, bringing a bride from the land of cherry blossoms.

Fred W. Falconer, of the Cunningham sheep Co., left yesterday for Enterprise after a business visit in Pendleton. Mr. Falconer says that the lambing season has been extremely successful and that weather conditions are favorable to the sheep business.

Bert Jorard returned last night from a trip to Heppner, where he spent a few days in the interests of the Equitable Life Assurance Co., which he represents.

Frank Engdahl, warehouseman of Helix, spent last night in Pendleton. He visited friends and attended to business matters while here.

Will Ferguson, prominent rancher of Athena, was among those from that city transacting business here this morning.

William Albee, county game warden, is here from Helix today. Mr. Albee says the water is so high in the creeks that he has no chance to apprehend illegal anglers.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Convict Denied Freedom
W. Burlingame, serving a 10-year term in the state penitentiary at Salem for obtaining money under false pretenses, was denied liberty on a writ of habeas by Judge Bingham in Salem Tuesday. Burlingame, who was sent up from Umatilla county in September, 1913, was indicted on two charges but tried on only one, it appears. The clerk of the court in writing up the decree inserted the wrong charge, it was claimed, and this error was Burlingame's basis for his plea for release.

Mrs. Hilton Dies
Mrs. William Hilton, formerly of this city and well known here, died this morning at her home in Portland. Mrs. Hilton is survived by her husband, a sister, Mrs. J. L. McPherson, of this city who was in Portland at her sister's bedside, a nephew, Harvey McPherson of this city, and two nieces, Miss Daley McPherson of this city, and Mrs. C. N. Jackson of Hermiston. The body will be brought here for burial.

Moosejaw Players Invited
A wire was forwarded today to the Moosejaw baseball club inviting the team to hold early spring practice in Pendleton. The team is offered free use of the ball ground at Round-Up park and will be entitled to any gate receipts they may collect from games they play here but local people assume no other obligations for the team.

Miss Veto to Depart
Miss Donna Veto of the dry goods department of the Peoples Warehouse, will leave the employ of the store on Saturday. She will remain here for a short time before going to Seattle to act as buyer for a firm there.

Supervised Play to be Given This Summer
That Pendleton will have supervised playground work this summer was announced last evening by City Superintendent H. E. Inlow at a meeting of the community service council. As outlined by Superintendent Inlow, Miss Hansen, physical culture director, will conduct the work during the early part of the summer and during the summer normal session here pupils and instructors in the normal will carry on the work. When the normal session is finished Miss Hansen will resume charge of the work. Full details as to the supervised play have not yet been worked out.

At the community service council last evening E. E. Tucker, representative of the general organization, made a farewell talk and was given a resolution of thanks for his work here. Mr. Tucker will probably go to Everett Wash.

Sentiment expressed last night was that the community service council should continue with its work on a strictly local basis.

KING AND QUEEN MAKE VISIT LONDON, March 17.—(A. P.)—King George and Queen Mary left today for Knowsley, home of the Earl of Derby, near Liverpool, whose guests they will be for the Grand National Steeplechase.

PRESIDENT RECEIVES INVITATION TO SPEAK AT STATUE UNVEILING
WASHINGTON, March 17.—(A. P.)—President Harding is understood to be giving serious consideration to an invitation to attend and make the principal address at the unveiling

April 15, in New York, of a new statue of Simon Bolivar, Venezuelan patriot. No decision, however, has been reached.

Mr. Harding is understood to favor acceptance of the invitation, if it is possible to leave so soon after the convening of the special session of congress, April 19.

PRESIDENT ASKS FOR REVIEW OF DEBS' CASE

WASHINGTON, March 17.—(U. P.)—Harding has requested Attorney General Daugherty to submit as soon as possible a review of the case of Eugene Debs.

RETIRE FROM BUSINESS, DIES 4 HOURS LATER

SACRAMENTO, March 17.—(U. P.)—A. A. Turple retired from business on his 53rd anniversary with the Southern Pacific company. Four hours later he died at his home.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Deputy Assessor Here
L. Brownell, of Umatilla and deputy assessor for that section, is in Pendleton making ready for his work of assessing. He will start active work next week.

Would Collect $145.88
The Waterproof Garment company, an institution doing business at Portland has filed suit in the circuit court to collect the sum of $145.88 from the Weston Mercantile company for goods which they allege was sold to the Weston firm, payment of which has been refused or neglected.

Will Hear Petitioners
The petition for a new justice of the peace district in Pendleton to be known as the West Pendleton district will be considered by the county court at their Monday morning session. There are a number of petitions for the creation of such district and against the proposition filed with the court.

Sues for Divorce
Action was instituted in the circuit court yesterday by Laura Cooper seeking an absolute decree of divorce from Harry Cooper. The plaintiff alleges that her husband, Cooper, abandoned her on March 10, 1920, and since that time she has had only one letter from him. She asks for custody of a minor child.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED AT UMAPINE

(East Oregonian Special.)
UMAPINE, March 17.—On Tuesday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. C. Carter was the scene of a pretty wedding when their daughter Jessie Block was united in matrimony to Ray Records, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Records of Umapine. The bride was charming in a gown of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Lois Records was bridesmaid and also wore white crepe de chine carrying a bouquet. Frank Rominger acted as best man and the wedding march was played by Miss Della Records, a sister of the groom. The ring ceremony was used by Rev. Wilson who officiated.

After the wedding a banquet was served the guests who were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Records and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Records and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Records and family, Mrs. Pool, Frank B. Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rominger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Workman, Mr. and Mrs. R. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Beale, Mr. and Mrs. Don Kirk, Mrs. Exeter and Dick Baxter, Mrs. King of Two Rivers, Wash., Miss Willette of Walla Walla.

Girls! Buttermilk Creates Beauty-Overnight

The first application of Howard's Buttermilk Cream will astonish you. It creates beauty almost like magic, but the most wonderful thing about it is the fact that while it turns the dull and unattractive complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greenness of the skin.

It is absolutely harmless and will neither produce nor stimulate the growth of hair. Within twenty-four hours this wonderful cream will work a marvelous transformation.

Get a small quantity to-day at any good drug or toilet goods counter. The directions are simple and its cost so little that any girl or woman can afford it. In addition the manufacturers authorize every druggist to return the purchase money unless the first application shows noticeable improvement. So be sure to try it at our expense.

Walla, Frank Rominger and Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Carpenter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Records will in all probability go to western Canada for the summer. They are popular young folks from this community and will be missed from many social events.

Clyde Clippinger, foreman of the Great Lowe place, formerly known as the old Hudson Bay ranch, lies in the hospital at Walla Walla, dying of spinal meningitis. Some time ago Mr. Clippinger decided to stop the tobacco habit and by so doing he developed an abnormal appetite for eating. This state of affairs brought on an acute attack of indigestion from which spinal meningitis finally developed. His demise is looked for at most any time. Mr. Clippinger is a man of about forty years of age and has a wife and daughter. Two years ago he was employed in the Coffman wheat ranch above Milton.

Monday evening a jolly crowd of friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kirk "surprised" them at their home, and gave them an old-fashioned charivari on the occasion being their twenty-first wedding anniversary. "Pedro" was the card game of the evening and Lane Hoon was first prize winner while Dick Exeter won the lady's prize. At midnight, the guests who brought their own supper served themselves and departed for their homes. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lane Hoon, Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Phillips, Dick Exeter, Miss Alexander, Rebekah and Donald Kirk.

Mrs. Roy Bacon was taken this Tuesday afternoon to the hospital at Walla Walla where she will undergo an operation for abscess. Dr. Charles Thomas and Dr. Shaw are in charge of the case and are hopeful for the recovery. Mrs. Bacon has been ill since the birth of her baby six weeks ago.

On Saturday afternoon, Catherine Wellman entertained at her fifth birthday anniversary, a party of little friends at the home of her grand mother Mrs. W. W. Phillipi. Refreshments were served at the end of the afternoon's fun and those present were Catherine Wellman, Margaret and Gladys Bacon, Clytie and Kathleen Phillips, Opal Waseor and Elmer Bean.

Mr. J. W. Stockton spent the week end with her family at Helix this week. On Friday of last week, Messdames J. E. Jones and Bean motored over to the home of Mrs. Gene Labadie on the Walla Walla river where they spent the day.

On Friday night Miss Della Records entertained at a dancing party, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Records. The large home was tastefully decorated with lovely daffodils and over fifty guests enjoyed a delightful time. At one o'clock a supper consisting of chicken sandwiches, cream puffs and cake and coffee were served and it was not before three o'clock the guests departed for their homes. The party was also a fare well for Ray Records and Jessie Block, a popular Umapine girl, whose marriage occurred Tuesday night.

Another social event of Umapine also took place on Saturday evening when the high school girls entertained at a lumber wagon party for the high school boys. The merry crowd met at the home of the L. O. P. H. and two wagon loads of young people and their chaperons journeyed to the home of Miss Irene Hoon, where they spent a jolly evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winans moved into Roy Sappers home south of Umapine on Monday where they will live this summer.

Phillip Murphy Sr. was removed to the Walla Walla hospital on Tuesday afternoon where it is hoped he will recover his health. Mr. Murphy is past eighty years of age and is gradually losing his strength. He is a great favorite at Umapine and his witty Irish sayings and pleasant manner has won for him a place in the heart of everyone.

Ray Cornick who wintered a band of horses on the D. J. Kirk ranch, left with the bunch on Saturday for his home at Dixie, Wash.

Mrs. W. W. Phillipi is spending this week at Prescott the guest of her daughter Mrs. Judge Kelly.

James Homina leaves Wednesday for his home at Lewiston Idaho. Mr. Homina was in this valley for his health and while not altogether recovered, he is much improved.

Carl Bear who has been visiting his parents in Missouri for two months is again at Umapine.

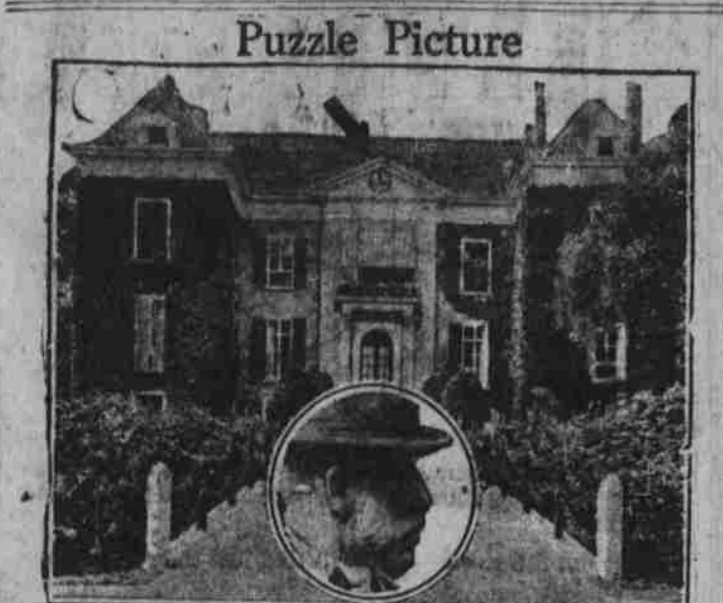

The first ball game of the season is scheduled to take place for the local team on the home diamond, April first and their opponents will be Athena.

Miss Alexander of Walla Walla is visiting at the home of her uncle, Lane Hoon.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church are journeying this Wednesday to the home of Mrs. Roy Exeter who lives two miles north of Whitman monument. At noon a big dinner will be served the guests.

Bob Records narrowly escaped serious injury when on Monday he was run over by William Kinney in his auto. Luckily no bones were broken although the boy was unconscious for a couple of hours.

Mrs. J. D. Harrish was in Freewater Tuesday conferring with Rev. C. G. of Pendleton and Bert Bolt of Milton in regard to the 16th. Baptist association which convenes in Milton May 13, 14 and 15. Mrs. Harrish is Secretary of the convention.

This is the first picture of the ex-kaiser's home at Doorn, Holland, since he has fixed it up the way he wants it. But that's incidental. The clock's the thing. Puzzle: Why did Wilhelm have a big clock set on the front of the house? What's time to him?
