AMUSEMENTS
 Two ladies in an auto were going through Centerville last summer and stopped at a beautiful ranch there to get some water for their car, there was a man in the front of the house feeding some chickens and one of the ladies asked him "Where place it was" he smiled and answered, "It is where C. William Kolb, of Kolb & Dill lives." She was very anxious to look over the place and said that she knew Mr. Kolb very well and she was sure if he had been there he would have gladly shown her around, the man said he would do so and after taking the ladies over the ranch, etc., and accepting a tip, resumed his work. While they were still sitting another car passed and the driver waved and hollered a "Hello Kolb" wonder what the lady would have said had she been there at that time, slipping Kolb a half dollar—we wonder.

One cannot be too careful when the country is so full of "Gentleman Farmers"—even if they do "Know Kolb very well."
