ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY

NEW STAR SEEN IN SMART COMEDY

Alta players will witness the first starring effort of one of the newest of film thrillers Sunday. "You Never Can Tell," the initial Rebe Daniels production for Realart.

It is needless to say that Miss Daniels scored a real hit. This was a foregone conclusion with those who have watched her rise through comedies with Harold Lloyd to leading woman roles in Paramount productions.

Marriage, however, is a different matter and tests a player to the limit. Miss Daniels meets the test in a manner that thoroughly satisfied a large audience last night. She is delightfully amusing as the ambitious little check-room girl whose love for beautiful things leads her almost into trouble before she meets and loves a "Prince Charming" whom she thinks a taxi chauffeur but who really is a young millionaire.

The supporting cast shows a really remarkable array of acting ability. Jack Maltby is good-looking and thoroughly likable as leading man, while others who play excellently included Neely Edwards, Edward Marshall, Helen Dunbar, Harold Goodwin, Leo White and Mrs. Harry I. Davenport.

Careful direction is evidenced, for which praise is due Chester Franklin, Tom Geraghty and Helmar Bergman wrote the scenario from two Saturday Evening Post stories by Grace Lovell Bryan.

Some stars are in the ascendant, while others are gradually losing their brilliance. Carmel Myers, Universal's bright luminary, is fortunate enough to be in the former new beauty of fact, charm of manner and deeper dramatic understanding. Her current feature, "Beautifully Trimmied," on view at the Pastime Theatre, may safely be declared to be her most pronounced success.

THE WAITER HAD JUST BROUGHT IN THE SOUP— when he walked the man's wife. And so of course Rowena's first little vamp- ing party was spoiled. But it taught her a lesson that every girl has to learn—that it's better to be good than to be great. She is such a vivacious, frolicsome little girl—you can't be angry with her, and you're pretty happy when it all comes out all right. BEBE DANIELS as Rowena in "YOU NEVER CAN TELL" is the most delightful and exhilarating bit of spiffire you've ever seen.

KENTUCKY GIRL WRITES LETTER

How She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sunnyvale, Ky.—"I suffered for more than two years with my back and nervousness, and was not able to help my mother do the housework. I took treatment from two doctors and they did not do me any good. Mother saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the paper and I took about ten bottles. It has done me a great deal of good. I weigh 128 pounds and am in good health. I will gladly recommend Vegetable Compound to anyone who suffers with the troubles which I had, and you are welcome to publish my testimonial."—VELMA HENDRICK, Route 1, Sunnyvale, Ky.

To many American girls life is often a heavy drag in consequence of illness, and every mother should heed the first manifestations, such as cramps, backaches, headaches and nervousness as Mrs. Hendrick did for her daughter, and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For over forty years this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been relieving women of just such troubles. Write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., about your health.
