LECTURES VERY ENJOYABLE

Only the presentation of an opera or play itself would give a more complete understanding of the subject than the lecture-recitals given yesterday afternoon and evening at the library club room by Mrs. Louise Van Ogle as the last of a series of three presentations under the auspices of the federated clubs of Pendleton.

Mrs. Van Ogle, with her charming speaking voice and perfect diction, told the story of operas and play with a dramatic power made all the more effective because of simplicity and naturalness. These qualities combined with Mrs. Van Ogle's easy command of the piano, and her knowledge gained by extensive travel, placed the presentations in a class distinctly their own.

Three one-act operas by Puccini formed the program for yesterday afternoon. The operas, "Il Tabarra," (The Cloak), "Sister Angelica" and "Gianni Schicchi," were characterized by Mrs. Van Ogle as a study in scarlet, mauve and yellow. The theme of "Il Tabarra" is summed up in the words: "Every man must needs carry with him a great cloak, under which he may hide sometimes a wondrous joy—and sometimes a profound sorrow." It is the story of the eternal triangle as enacted by husband, wife and lover in a boat on the Seine river, and ends in deep tragedy. Mrs. Van Ogle played delightfully some of the music of the opera, the "love music" with the fate theme being among the selections.

"Sister Angelica," the second opera, while a tragedy like "Il Tabarra," differs greatly from the latter. Mrs. Van Ogle explained, because of the contrast in action and setting. The scene is laid in a covenant garden, and the theme is not concerned with the love of wife for sweetheart, but of mother for child. Mrs. Van Ogle played, among other numbers, a charming intermezzo written, she said, "for lovers of sugar and music."

Relieving the somber tone of "Il Tabarra" and "Sister Angelica" was the comedy "Gianni Schicchi," the story of a lovable rogue, the character being inspired by Dante's "Gianni Schicchi." The music, so characteristic of the opera, was played in Mrs. Van Ogle's brilliant style.

"The Cherry Orchard," a play chosen by Mrs. Van Ogle for last night, is a Russian drama by Chekhov. Mrs. Van Ogle spent many years in Russia, and with the story of "The Cherry Orchard," she skillfully interwove her intimate knowledge of the customs of the Russians. Of particular interest was the fact that Mrs. Van Ogle chosen the play with the wife of Tchekhov in the leading role.

Mrs. Norborne Berkeley, president of the Current Literature Club, introduced Mrs. Van Ogle yesterday afternoon, and Mrs. J. T. Richardson, representing the Delphian Club, introduced the speaker in the evening.

Club women are well pleased with the results of the lectures, which were in the nature of a benefit, the proceeds being for the purpose of defraying expenses of the State Federation Convention to be held in Pendleton May 31 and June 1 and 2.

How to Be "Different"

NEW YORK—Madame Minaloy is creating frocks and hats for those who seek to be different.

At bottom, right, the design for a dress that Madame calls "a background for stockings." It is of dove-gray taffeta. The bodice and the underlining are of scarlet chiffon with a series of dots and stitchings in a cherry-colored twist. A panel at the side carries out the scheme in cherry-colored beads which run over the shoulder to the extreme right back.

And the hats! "The Canoe" (above), is a rimless, crownless innovation. Oiled silk in light green with an underfacing of midnight blue pin-striped velvet. Tabs of this velvet are placed at intervals on the sunny side and ribbons of jade lace in and out over this canoe-like form.

Madame says her "Horse Ear Hat," at left, is the very smartest. It's of beres straw with a basketwork stitch in beige wool, and curving under the chin and ending in two ear-like sprays at either side of the head, the strap of real horsehair.

Get a Farm from the CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY

The Canadian Pacific Railway offers you a great opportunity to own a farm home. Many of these farms have been paid for thousands with the first crop. One of the best things about a farm home is that you can buy your home under a plan of long term payments. The money is saved for annual farming and grain growing. Later, the same land can be bought only from private owners—prices will be higher. Never again in North America will farm lands be offered at such low prices.

Your Last Big Opportunity

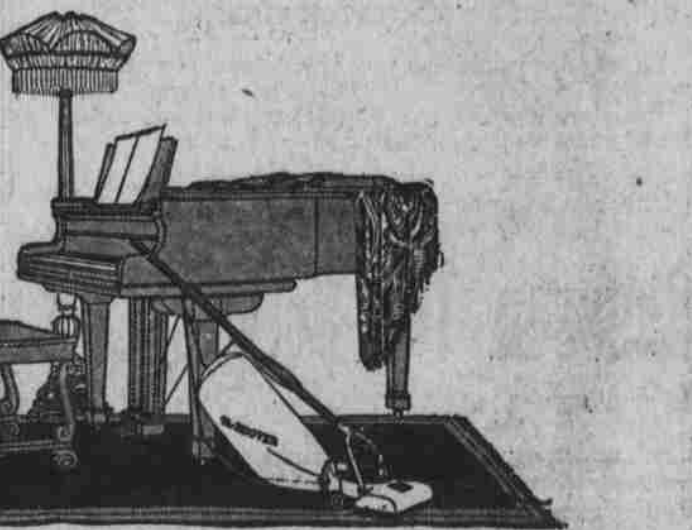

Until this land is offered by the Canadian Pacific Railway you have never had a chance to own a farm, achieve independence and grow rich in Western Canada. It offers to sell you farm lands in the rich open prairie and fertile part lands of the Saskatchewan and Manitoba Provinces of Canada. The choice of settlement is yours. You are invited to come to the home of Canada.

The Hoover lifts the rug from the floor, like this—flutters it upon a cushion of air, gently "beats" out its embedded grit, and so prolongs its life.

The perennial beauty of a valuable rug is the reward of frequent and thorough cleaning. Such cleaning is easy to perform with The Hoover, because it beats... as it sweeps... as it suction cleans. All injurious embedded grit is fluttered out by gentle beating. All stubborn litter is detached by swift sweeping. All loose dirt is withdrawn by strong suction. Only The Hoover combines these three essential operations. And it is the largest-selling electric cleaner in the world.

You may have a Hoover placed permanently in your home for a nominal sum, and its purchase arranged on convenient terms. You may also have it demonstrated for you at any time, either in your home or in our store.
