WASHINGTON'S PICTURE

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON. Estables of land especially benefited thoragene, March 21.—That one of the best portraits of George Washington was painted at Valley Forge on an old piece of bedticking and that the first president sat for his pertrait upwards of fifty times for as many as 20 painters and sculptors was brought out in an illustrated lecture last week at the University of Oregon by Professor F. S. Dunn, head of the department of Latip.

During the last three years Pro- tions may be secured at the office of During the last three years Professor Dunn has made a collection of prints of Washington and in his lectures showed more than seventy diffecent pictures, many of which are quite different from Gilbert Stuart's familiar painting that is so frequently shown in fistory books.
