Byron Gumm will leave on Friday for Portland for a short business trip. Upon his return to Pendleton he will leave on an extended trip through the Northwest in the interests of the Pendleton Woolen Mills, for which firm he is a salesman.

When Oliver Dickinson is not visiting his holdings in the southern end of the county he is running one of the best farms in the county. He is the owner as well as manager and it is located on the highway between Adams and Athena.

George Carnes, the pioneer Pilot Rock merchant, who is classified as a farmer for jury service purposes, is in Pendleton today. George was drawn for duty for the April term of court, yesterday, but he says he will not be able to serve as that will interfere with the proper opening of the fishing season.

Advise Delegates to Use Patience

TOKIO, March 22.—(A. P.)—Based on information from a reliable source in European Russia, says the Red Cross New Agency, a semi-official message reached here states that the representatives of the Russian Far Eastern Republic expressed a sincere desire at the recent general conference of the Soviet elements, held by Chita, for the amalgamation of the republic with the Soviet government. The latter advised the republican delegates to exercise patience, in consideration of the republic's relations with the Japanese government.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Superintendent Visits Adams.
School Superintendent W. W. Green visited the schools at Adams this morning. He reports the condition of the schools as most satisfactory.

Superintendents Relected.
The superintendents of schools at Umatilla, Hermiston, Echo and Athena have all been reelected, according to advices received at the office of the county superintendent.

County Schools Progressing.
A great many of the one-room schools of the county are reporting that they are ready for standardization and Superintendent Green says that by the close of the year practically all of the town schools in the county will have been standardized.

Court's Creation Undecided.
The county court went to Walla Walla this morning without having announced any decision with reference to the proposed division of the Pendleton justice court district. It is probable that as the members view the state line road they will make up their minds and announce a decision tomorrow.

Umatilla Schools Are Standard.
Superintendent Harold Benjamin of the Umatilla schools has advised the county superintendent that the elementary grades are all ready for standardization in accordance with the rules promulgated by the state board. The high school was standardized last fall so that the entire school system of the west end town will be standard.

All High Schools Are Standard.
The county school superintendent was advised this morning that Adams high school had been admitted to standardization by the state board, thereby making every high school in the county a standard one. Arnold Gralapp is principal of the Adams school, which is the 13th in the county to become standardized. The elementary grades of the school are also standard.

ILLICIT DRUG TRADE IS BROKEN BY FOUR MONTHS HARD DRIVE

In Anti-Narcotic Drive Large Number of Arrests Made, Quantities of Drugs Seized.

NEW YORK, March 22.—(Clairing) virtually to have broken the back of the illicit drug trade in New York City, in four months' drive, Special Deputy Commissioner Carlston Simon today declared war on an international ring which he charges is responsible for illegal distribution of dope throughout the United States.

In the anti-narcotic drive here made more than 1,000 arrests have been made and millions of dollars worth of drugs seized.

Although the illegal drug trade has been broken Dr. Simon asserted the work of his bureau is not only to continue here but to be enlarged to meet the problems in other big cities in America and abroad.

By means of an international bureau of criminal records now being established, all data concerning drug crooks is to be ready for cities where "leads" pointing to New York might be uncovered, the commissioner said. Recently he added, "Antwerp police had requested information concerning an alleged leader of the international ring. It has shown by means of information furnished by New York that the man had police records in London, Paris, Brussels and New Orleans and had served prison sentences at various places aggregating 20 years."

"We made more arrests these past few months than in any 24 months heretofore," said Dr. Simon, who was selected to direct the drive because of his medical training. Every ring of the metropolitan police department was coordinated, working in conjunction with the Federal agents. In consequence, "the fear" has been spread through the army of vendors.

Before he assumed his job, Dr. Simon said traffic in drugs in New York had reached an amazing stage. His first move was to seek to clean up New York then aid in solving the drug vending problem in other cities—a resultant evil of the situation here.

Squads of special men were spread to all parts of the greater city, expert men being picked to patrol the lower East Side where vendors were even using school children as "go-betweens" to supply addicts.

Constant watch was kept on incoming ships where alleged smugglers were resorting to all manner of tricks to "smuggle" the narcotics into this country. Arrests of persons on the docks revealed drugs hidden in artificial arms and limbs; in suitcases and clothing. Once the anti-narcotic forces were working systematically and arrests became frequent, the situation soon gave evidence of being cleared up.

The almost daily raids in the city reached a climax recently in Brooklyn when agents entered an apartment, arrested several persons and seized drugs worth thousands of dollars. The great majority arrested, were "curbstones" vendors.

NEWS NOTES OF PENDLETON

Marble for Building Arrives.

Two carloads of marble to be used for the addition to the Pendleton Museum, have arrived in Pendleton. The addition will double the size of the structure and bring the total number of crypts up to 488, one of the largest mausoleums on the Pacific coast.

Trip is Successful

After a buying trip characterized as one of the most successful in the history of The Peoples' Warehouse, John Benson, head of the dry goods department of the firm, returned to Pendleton yesterday. He visited St. Louis, St. Joe and Kansas City and everywhere, he states, he found opportunity to take advantage of low prices. Mr. Benson says that there has been a great reduction in wholesale prices and that the drop will in turn be of benefit to the shopper who buys at the retail price.

Men Are Sought.

Parents of William Myers, who served in Company M, 2d Infantry, are seeking their son, according to a letter received today by Perry Blismann, commander of the Pendleton Post American Legion. Myers is thought to have been in Pendleton for a time. Fred Farley, who served in the army, is sought also. Mr. Blismann asks that anyone having information regarding either of the men notify him at the American National Bank.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Campaign to Begin.—This afternoon marked the beginning of the campaign between the classes to decide which class would be the first to sell 100 tickets to the Whitman College Men's Glee Club concert which will be given in this city tomorrow evening. Mr. Austin Landreth made the announcement that five dollars would be given to the class who was the first to sell 100 tickets. The campaign will last until tomorrow. The freshmen have already disposed of several of their tickets and expect to take the reward. The glee club will arrive in the city tomorrow morning and will go to the school where they will give a sample of what they will give the public in the evening.

Lantern Out Yesterday.—The lanterns were off the press yesterday and were delivered to subscribers. The issue this time has a large cut on the front page of the girls' basketball team. Of special note of this issue is the editorial column. The problem of the high school as a community center is well discussed from the students' point of view.

Miss Severance Returns to School.—Miss Elizabeth Severance, head of the English department, has returned to school after being absent yesterday due to a severe cold. Her place was filled by Miss Louisa Gerard.

CLEMENCEAU RETURNS FROM A SIX MONTHS TRIP THROUGH INDIA

Says 'France Lives, Everywhere I Have Experienced It,' Would Not Talk Politics.

TOULON, March 22.—(A. P.)—Georges Clemenceau, France's war premier, radiant with health, returned today from India, whither he went six months ago. He walked down the gang plank of the Ormonde with a step like a young man, although he is nearing his 57th birthday.

Exchanging greetings with the prefect, Admiral Sagot, Andre Tardieu and his family, M. Clemenceau said, "I am happy. All I have to say is embodied in this single sentence: 'France lives; everywhere I have experienced it.'"

He showed a touch of emotion when he spoke, but was soon the irrepresible old statesman, for almost immediately he resumed his customary bantering tone and in replying to a question as to whether he hunted tigers while away remarked: "I didn't know there were any left in India."

One correspondent made mention of the Upper Silesian plebiscite and M. Clemenceau gave him a withering look. "Don't talk to me about politics or I shall go right back to India," he snapped.

The former premier enjoyed fine weather during the voyage, except last night when a gale was encountered which the ship weathered gallantly.

"She's a great ship," he said. "I shall take her again when I go to Australia."

There is a strong movement among funny newspapers urging M. Clemenceau to go to the United States before Australia, but he declared he was first going to his native Vendee to celebrate his 50th birthday and then would probably proceed to Australia. He will arrive in Paris Wednesday.
