GLADYS LESLIE IS TALENTED PLAYER

Gladys Leslie, who plays the part of Dorcas in "Straight is the Way," the only board picture stars which will be shown at the Alta Theatre today is a young New York screen actress. Although less than twenty-two years old she has already had a wealth of screen experience.

She was educated at Washington Irving High School and Columbia University, and before being engaged by International Film Service for this Cosmopolitan play, appeared in several productions of Edison, Thanhouser and Vitaphone. She was seen to great advantage in "The Vicar of Wakefield," "The Beloved Imposter," "Fortune's Child," "Miss Dulcine of Gray Towers," "Golden Showers," "Dinah," "Switch in Time," "Two Men Crooked," "The Girl Woman," "My

She has a delightful role in "Straight is the Way," playing opposite Matt Moore. The story deals with spooks and crooks, and it is a wholesome satirical comedy throughout. Robert G. Virginia was the director.

BOTH MARRIED AND UNMARRIED WILL LAUGH

A departure from Mack Sennett Comedy tradition is promised in the Comedy King's latest five-reel super-production, "Love, Honor and Betrayal," the first National attraction at the Arcade Theatre today.

Charlie Murray, hero of a million episodes, will be introduced in a role of legitimate appeal. He will impersonate a "grave and revered" Judge of the Supreme Court, playing the part with dignity and power. This revolutionary role will be revealed in the opening scenes of the story when Justice and Romance will come in contact.

Marie Prevost, a bride, and George O'Hara, her young husband, appear before "Judge" Murray, carrying to the halls of justice the fragrance of a romance about to die. Here, it is pointed out, is a sincere and authentic picture of dramatic material, treated in a sympathetic and dignified manner, with ever so slight a wink of the eye on the part of the learned jurist. Not ion, however, does the plot remain in the atmosphere of staid drama, for the jurist, in order to convince the jealous bride of the innocence of her bridegroom, tells a story of his own experience when he too was a bridegroom; the said story's purport being to discredit circumstantial evidence.

It is this story that forms the bulk of the episodes depicted in "Love, Honor and Betrayal"—episodes that bring Murray back to his traditional characterizations.

FARMERS ARE WARNED TO BEWARE CINCH BUG

WASHINGTON, March 22.—(A. P.)—Beware of the cinch bug, the Agricultural Department advised wheat farmers in a recent bulletin, adding: "One cinch bug destroyed now may prevent the production of hundreds to infest your wheat field later." The bugs winter, experts found, in wild grass, leaves along hedge rows and fences and at the edges of woodlands, which should be burned over to prevent them from returning to the field from exposure.

Lives to See the Prescription
He Wrote in 1892 the Worlds
Most Popular Laxative Remedy

DR. W. E. CALDWELL TODAY
Born Sheboygan, Wis., March 27, 1859
Began the manufacture of his famous prescription in 1892

It is particularly pleasing to me to know that the biggest half of those eight million bottles were bought by mothers for themselves and the children, though Syrup Pepsin is just as valuable for grownups. The price of a bottle holding 50 average treatments is sixty cents; such a bottle will last a family several months.

I have never made a secret of what is in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. These ingredients are endorsed in the U. S.

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. E. Caldwell, 513 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

Founder of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, long past Biblical old age, but hale and hearty—Still sees patients daily—Wonderful achievement of a "country doctor."

WHEN I started to practice medicine, back in 1875, there were no pills or tablets or salt waters for the relief of constipation, and no artificial remedies made from coal tar.

The prescription for constipation that I used early in my practice, and which I put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid remedy, and I have never had reason to change it. I intended it for women, children and elderly people, and these need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin.

I am gratified to say that under successful management my prescription has proven its worth, and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that over eight million bottles were sold by druggists last year proves that it has won the confidence of mothers whose chief interest is the health of their children.

Pharmacopoeia. I consider Syrup Pepsin today in the serious 82nd year of my age, as I did in 1892, the best remedy a family can have in the house for the safe relief of constipation and its accompanying ills, such as headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dyspepsia, colds and fevers.

Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and I believe if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies.

SALVATION ARMY MAKE ATTACK ON NIGHT LIFE

LONDON, March 22.—(A. P.)—Two hundred "picket troops" of the Salvation Army, headed by a brass band, made an attack on London night life recently. The forces gathered in Regent Street shortly before midnight and appeared suddenly in Piccadilly Circus surprising the crowd in the cafes and other places of amusement.

Without warning the strains of "Shall We Gather at the River?" burst upon the ears of the revelers and the cafe devotees. Pedestrian traffic practically stopped while the marchers passed up Shaftsbury Avenue into Leicester Square, thence to Charing Cross.

When the battalion reached Leicester Square, four young women in fur, silk stockings and Piccadilly complexion brought up the rear of the column.

"Things have been in a very bad way here for some time past," said Commissioner Cox, who led the attack. "An outcry has gone up that nobody is doing anything in behalf of the young women and girls who are found on the streets nightly in greater numbers."

"Why there should be so many mere children on the streets it is difficult to say, but probably the war has had a great deal to do with it. It gave them a taste, not for wickedness, but for "life" as they understand it. They want too much dancing and pleasure and that very often leads to sorrow."

Young Girls
Need Care

FROM the age of twelve a girl needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time.

If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter make life easier for her.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions. It can be taken in safety by any woman, young or old.

Guttenberg, N. J.—"My daughter was all run down and had fainting spells often, had a bad complexion, and suffered at her monthly periods. Her grandmother had been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for the Change of Life, and got a bottle of it for her. She began to improve with the first bottle and took five in all and was entirely restored to health. For a time she had not been able to attend school, but she does now. She recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to her friends and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. CATHERINE McGLAVE, 304 25th St., Guttenberg, N. J.

Roxbury, Mass.—"My daughter is a schoolgirl and she suffered very much with irregular periods, painful cramps and dizzy headaches. She was sometimes as long as three months between her periods and when they came she was not able to do her school home lessons because she could not even sit up. A copy of one of your little books was left in my letter-box and she began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for her troubles. She is now in good health, is regular and can help me with the housework when not in school."—Mrs. VICTORIA G. STRICKLER, 74 Bragdon St., Roxbury, Mass.
