COMEDY

She was educated at Washington Irving High School and Columbia University, and before being engaged by International Film Service for this Cosmopolitan play, appeared in several productions of Edison, Thanhouser and Vitaphone. She was seen to great advantage in "The Year of Wonders," "The Beloved Impostor," "Fortune's Child," "Miss Dule of Gray Towers," "Golden Showers," "Dixie," "Stitch in Time," "Too Many Crooks," "The Girl Woman," "Mystery," "Midnight Bride" and "Elsie in New York." Miss Leslie lives in Brooklyn.

She has a delightful role in "Straight is the Way," playing opposite Matt Moore. The story deals with spooks and crooks, and it is a wholesome natural comedy throughout. Robert G. Vignola was the director.

ARCADE TODAY

BOTH MARRIED AND UNMARRIED WILL LAUGH

A departure from Mack Sennett Comedy tradition is promised in the Comedy King's latest five-reel super-production, "Love, Honor and Behave," the first National attraction at the Arcade Theatre today.

Charlie Murray, hero of a million episodes, will be introduced in a role of legitimate appeal. He will impersonate a "grave and reverend" Judge of the Supreme Court, playing the part with dignity and power. This revolutionary role will be revealed in the opening scenes of the story when Justice and Romance will come in contact.

Marie Prevost, a bride, and George O'Hara, her young husband, appear before "Judge" Murray, carrying to the halls of justice the fragrance of a romance about to die. Here, it is pointed out, is a sincere and authentic picture of dramatic material, treated in a sympathetic and dignified manner, with ever so slight a wink of the eye on the part of the learned jurist. Not long, however, does the plot remain in the atmosphere of staid drama, for the jurist, in order to convince the jealous bride, of the innocence of her bridegroom, tells a story of his own experience when he too was a bridegroom; the said story's purport being to discredit circumstantial evidence.

It is this story that forms the bulk of the episodes depicted in "Love, Honor and Behave"—episodes that bring Murray back to his traditional characterizations.

HOOD
WHITE ROCK
PORTLAND

You couldn't make them better
if you made them yourself.

YOU couldn't buy better materials, blend them any more carefully or put them together with any better workmanship, even had you been a lifetime on the job. For HOOD in the new White Rock Portland has met all your needs with the experience of a generation.

Best grade wool uppers, all fleece linings, strong insoles, and the 4-ply tough sole of tire-tread stock—all driven together for miles of wear by the Hood Pressure Process. Ask at your shoe dealer to see the White Rock Portland. If he hasn't them, write us. Remember, HOOD is your guarantee.

ONCE SAILED AS SHIP'S BOY, NOW AS VICEROY

LONDON, March 23.—(U. P.)—Lady Reading thinks it is "like a fairy-tale" that her husband, who when 15 years old went to India as a ship's boy, is now going to land at Bombay as Viceroy.

Quite soon now, Lady Reading will be receiving veiled ladies at Parnassus parties. Discussing her approaching departure, Lady Reading said she was looking forward very much to the whole affair, except that she would have to leave her "beloved grandchildren."

Lady Reading has spent much time studying the problems of the women of India and hopes to be a great help to them.

WAR ON FLOUR BEING STAGED IN PORTLAND

PORTLAND, March 23.—(U. P.)—A real war on the flour milling circles following a cut of 40 cents per barrel Monday was begun when the Kerr-Gilford company duplicated the cut again today, bringing the price to nine dollars per barrel. Other mills cut the price to $9.40.

MINERS CALL STRIKE

PITTSBURG, Kans., March 23.—(A. P.)—Alexander Howatt and the Kansas miners union executive committee called a strike of 150 miners in defiance of industrial relations and in junction of the district court.

PUTS PEP IN CUBS

Everyone has heard tell of rejuvenated ball teams. That's the Chicago Cub outfit this year. With the snappy, scrappy Johnny Evers back at the helm, there is zip, pep and go-get-'em aplenty in the spring training of the crew this season. Here he is giving his crew the once over at their training camp in Pasadena, Cal.

Mrs. Jack Dockweiler was a week-end visitor in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Connell went to Pendleton on business Friday.

Ben L. Burroughs, from Pendleton, was here between trains Friday.

Mrs. Ruby Loomis was here from Huntington visiting her parents.

Dorothy Shreckhise has been quite sick with measles, but is getting along nicely.

Steve Lawlor has returned home from Pendleton.

Miss Letta Hawes from La Grande has been here visiting her brother Roy Hawes for the past few days.

W. M. Chell went to La Grande Saturday evening to attend the dance.

Chinook winds have been blowing the last few days and the snow is rapidly disappearing.

The first teams over the mountains came in March 20. They came through snow drifts ten feet deep. They were bound for The Dalles, Ore.

MADELON OF GREAT LAKES TRAINING STATION
MURDERED BY HUSBAND

ROCKFORD, Ill., March 23.—(U. P.)—The "Madelon" of the Great Lakes training station lies murdered here, Mrs. Beulah Tipton Howard, who like the girl in the popular French war song, kept up the morale of the student sailors at the Great Lakes by singing during the war, was shot in a hotel last night by Corporal Charles Howard of Camp Grant, her husband, who then suicided. The marriage of "Madelon" to the corporal was a result of a war romance.

PORTLAND "Y" HAS BIRTHDAY

Is Your Business
Stationery Distinctive?

DOES your business stationery say to your customer, "I am substantial and reliable;" or does it give him a negative, false impression of you? Golden opportunities to reinforce prestige are often sacrificed for the saving of a few pennies in printing. Probably no money saving was effected.

Every letterhead, envelope and billhead does more than carry the message itself—it conveys an impression to the one who receives it. Don't dress your fairy in rags. Make it distinctive.

We are specialists and qualified to supply the nucleus of favorable impressions—excellent and appropriate business stationery, properly printed and our prices are right.
