Holidays spent Here.

Lloyd Montgomery, who is attending O. A. C., is here for spring vacation. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Montgomery.

Robert Bowman Here.

Robert Bowman, a student at Hill Military Academy in Portland, is spending the Spring vacation in Pendleton at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Furl Bowman.

Roller Mills Closed.

The Pendleton Roller Mills is now closed and the crew is laid off following order received by A. G. Closser, manager, from Mr. Lena, president of the company owning the mill. Unfavorable conditions in the flour trade is the cause of the mills closing down. Mr. Lena is now in the east and is expected to be here some time during April.

Left This Morning.

William Hilton and adopted daughter, Ruth Good Hilton, left this morning after having been here for the funeral of Mrs. Hilton Monday. They will stop off at Hermiston for a visit with Mr. Hilton's niece, Mrs. C. M. Jackson, before returning to Portland. Mr. Hilton was a resident of Pendleton for many years and both he and Mrs. Hilton had a wide circle of friends here and in Portland.

Homeseeker Rate Made.

The Union Pacific system is making a noise like pre war railroading by announcing a homeseekers' rate from middle west points to Oregon points east of Sherman during the coming summer. A reduced rate is given for the round-trip on certain days between April and October. However there is a much shorter return limit than formerly the homeseeker having but 21 days to sojourn in this country before returning home under the reduced fare.

Dress Form Demonstration.

Mrs. Edith G. Van Deusen, home demonstration agent, will hold a paper dress form demonstration Saturday at 2 p. m. in her office in the federal building.

Distillate to Arrive.

A carload of distillate will arrive tomorrow at Blakeley for distribution among farmers who pooled their orders through the Umatilla County Farm Bureau.

Pays $50 Fine.

John Doe has enlarged the financial showing of the city by the contribution of a $50 fine imposed by Judge Fitz Gerald for having liquor illegally in his possession.

Roses Transplanted.

The rose garden at the rear of the St. George Hotel has been transplanted to the home of Mrs. L. Montross. The garden was the special care of the late George Darveau, pioneer hotelman, who died recently.

Glee Club Pleases.

The concert by the Whitman Men's Glee Club last night won favorable comment from local people, who pronounced the club the best in the history of the college. Howard Reed, baritone, sang two solos, "The Road to Mandalay," and "The Bells of St. Mary," which were especially excellent. Harper Joy, comedian, was amusing in several stunts.

A. M. E. Society Meets.

The Woman's Mite Missionary Society of the African Methodist Church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. N. Young, 711 Ann street. Mrs. W. M. Howard read a paper comparing the lives of the people of today with those of other days. Mrs. L. L. Anderson sang a solo, "Life is Like a Mountain Railroad," and Mrs. Carey gave a lecture on "The Power of Influence."

Montie R. Gwinn Is Here.

Montie R. Gwinn, former president of the American National Bank, is in the city today visiting his brother, J. H. Gwinn, and old friends made during the days when he was a local banker. Mr. Gwinn is returning home to Southern Idaho after two months in California. From discussions he has had recently with financial men he believes this region of the country is more prosperous than other sections.

Theater Work Is Underway.

Actual work is underway on the new theater to be erected on the west side of Main street by the Pendleton Amusement Co. Workmen have been busy tearing down a brick shed in the rear of the restaurant that was vacated and excavation work will be started shortly. The entire theater site is to be excavated to a depth of nine feet. It is anticipated that the construction work on the theater will be finished by September 1.

Fire Truck Is Shipped.

Councilman F. J. McMonies, chairman of the fire committee, received a wire today from the Stutz organization saying that the recently purchased Stutz fire truck was shipped from Indianapolis yesterday. It is estimated the truck will be here in about 10 days. The message received stated that the truck shipped has some good features not previously announced and that surprises will be in store for the local officials.

Invent Crank Pin Tool.

M. L. Akers and A. D. Seibert of the Pendleton Iron Works, are the joint inventors of a crank pin tool that promises to be very valuable to machine shops and profitable to the inventors. The tool was devised by Messrs. Akers and Seibert in order to overcome disadvantages in tools formerly used and they believe they have solved the problem. It is believed the new tool will be almost indispensable in garages and machine shops when once it becomes known. A few of the tools are being made at the Pendleton Iron works but it will be necessary to do some of the manufacturing elsewhere. The present plan of the inventors is to handle the sales direct.

Barber Has Bad Luck.

Bob Hazlewood, barber in the William Humphrey shop on Court street is in the hospital today nursing a badly injured arm as a result of a fight with his Ford bug about 8 o'clock last evening. The car was parked on Court street and when Hazlewood cranked the car it started after him pursuing him across the street. As Hazlewood reached the curb by the Need Funds for Auto Park

The question of how to finance the auto tourist park in the east end of the city during the coming season arose to trouble the city council last evening. The problem was turned over to the park committee with a request for a report.

Would Beautify Highway

Members of the Pendleton Woman's Club are anxious to see highways in the county beautified by the planting of trees along the highway. The subject was before the council last night in the form of a request that trees be planted on the road to the state hospital. The club likewise has the matter before the state highway commission and their query on the subject has been referred to the legal advisor of the state commission.
