Vaudeville opens at the Alta tonight. The vaudeville is from the Hippodrome circuit and promises to be decidedly entertaining.

Tonsils Removed.
Royal Sawtelle, formerly of this city, is convalescing at the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat hospital in Portland after having his tonsils removed. Mrs. Sawtelle and children are visiting in Portland at the home of her mother, Mrs. McGinn.

Store Being Remodeled.
The floor space in the old Sayres location, to be occupied April 2 by the new Crescent store, is being increased one-half by the removal of the downstairs cabinets to the balcony. The balcony itself is being extended. The entire store building is undergoing complete renovation and remodeling.

Eggs, Butter, Flour Down.
Eggs in the pre-Easter market are selling at 25 cents a dozen in Pendleton, retail price, and there is a chance that they will go still lower, say 20 cents, unless the Portland market strengthens considerably. The price is lower than for several years. Butter is also cheaper, as two pound rolls now sell for $1.05, while flour is 20 cents a sack cheaper than formerly. Ear alone shows an increase in price, having recently advanced 75 cents a sack. Most local stores, however, are still selling at $1.10 a sack because of having bought at the old price. When the old stock is exhausted, however, the new price will become effective.

Jensen Forfeits Bail.
Leon Jensen forfeited his bail of $5 by his non-appearance before Police Judge Fitz Gerald this morning. Jensen was charged with running his car without a tail light.

Clever Window Display.
Over 500 dozen eggs are used in a clever Easter window display at Gray Brothers' grocery. Many of the eggs are prettily colored and the entire showing is very effective.

Miss Walsh Writes.
Miss Starla P. Walsh, Pendleton nurse who is serving as a Red Cross nurse overseas, is now with the American Commission to Serbia. She has her headquarters at 15. Hasanska, Ulva, Belgrade, Servia.

Chief Warns Again.
Fire Chief Ringold has again issued a warning to all those who burn brush and rubbish during these windy days and after night. "Tell them I'll come and get them if they don't obey these regulations," he said today. The chief laid emphasis that there should be no fires after dark, none burning when the wind blows and all fires should be carefully extinguished when unattended.

Kirby Is Scout Master.
H. J. Kirby, an employe of Hamley & Co. has been chosen as scout master for the second Boy Scout company being formed here and will meet with the boys of the company at the city hall on Monday evening. There are 25 boys already enrolled in the second company and more will be admitted at the coming meeting. During the war Mr. Kirby, who is a man with a family, was a sergeant in a home guard company here. He also had experience as a national guardsman before the war so understands military routine.

Will Arrive Tonight.
Frank Ulrich will return tonight from Portland and will make arrangements for the burial of his son, the late Sheldon Ulrich, killed in battle in the Sedan sector. News of the shipment of the body reached Pendleton recently and the arrival of the remains is expected this week or early next week. The Pendleton Post of the American Legion will be in charge of the funeral and the war hero will be accorded full military honors. The body will be the first to arrive in Pendleton from overseas for burial. Young Ulrich was serving in the U. S. Marines and met his death November 10, 1918.

Wants Ferry at Boardman.
A. B. Strait, of Boardman, who is in Pendleton today, has applied to the Morrow county court and to the county court of Benton county Washington for a franchise to operate a ferry across the Columbia at Boardman. The application will be acted on by the Morrow county officials at their April term and by the Benton county court in May. Mr. Strait says that through establishment of a ferry at Boardman travel between the two states may be greatly benefited. There is a plan afoot for an auto stage service between Heppner and Prosser, Wash. over the Boardman ferry when it is installed.

Indian Team Seeks Games.
The young men of the Tutuilla Indian Congregation have gotten out their "fan" sticks and mits and have organized in such a way as to throw their hats, so to speak, into the ring of the "Twilight Baseball League" of the different churches in Pendleton. They wish to be admitted into the series, and through their captain, James Crane, of the Missionary J. M. Congregation, they will make such arrangements. Their lineup is something like this with several good "subs" at hand: James Crane, c.; Alvin Clark, 1st. b.; Loas Van Pelt, 2nd b.; Gus Garteau, s. s.; Arthur Motanic, 3rd. b.; Sam Luton, r. f.; Howard Luton, c. f.; Paul Jones l. f.; Philip Wildbill, p. They are also prepared to play out a series of basket ball or tennis with any other church bringing out a team.
