MISS TODD TO WED

The marriage of Miss Virginia Todd and Dr. G. E. Holt of this city will be solemnized tomorrow night in Hermitage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Todd. Rev. George L. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, will officiate. Miss Fanny Todd, sister of the bride, will be bridesmaid. Immediately after the ceremony, the couple will leave for Portland for a week's wedding trip before returning to Pendleton to make their home.

Miss Todd is a girl of charming personality and has hosts of friends. During the war she was extremely active in patriotic work and was leader of the Girls Honor Guard. It was through her efforts that the Red Cross canteen was established in Pendleton. She volunteered for canteen services overseas but was prevented from going abroad because of the cessation of the war. Miss Todd then accepted a position as secretary of the Umatilla county Red Cross and of Home Service and has been remarkably successful in the work. Dr. Holt is a graduate of the American College of Osteopathy, Kirksville, Illinois, and is prominent in his profession. He served overseas in the medical corps during the war.

CLUB MEETING ENJOYED

Mrs. D. D. Hobart and Mrs. Roy Morse were hostesses yesterday afternoon for an especially enjoyable meeting of the Thursday afternoon club in the library club room. For the program, Mrs. A. J. Owen gave the life of Bernard Shaw, Mrs. Harold Warner read "Heartbreak House," by Shaw, and Mrs. William E. Lowell read a paper on Granville Baskin, stage director and playwright. The musical numbers were indeed delightful. Mrs. Carlton P. Williams, of The Dances who has been in Pendleton for the past two days as the guest of Mrs. Morse, sang "She Wandered Down the Mountainside," "Twilight," "Christ in Flanders," "The Waters of Minnetonka" and "Her Dream," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. E. E. Boyden. Mrs. Williams is possessed of a beautiful voice and her singing was much enjoyed. Miss Mildred Berkeley sang charmingly, her number being "My Dear," and "At Twilight," with Mrs. E. P. Averill at the piano.

Blue and yellow spring flowers in a basket formed a pretty centerpiece for the tea table at which Mrs. Norburn Berkeley and Mrs. H. H. Hattery presided during the social hour. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Miss Mildred Berkeley and Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice.

PARTY IS GIVEN

For the second in a series of bridge luncheons, Mrs. H. J. Kavanaugh, Mrs. Fred Donert and Mrs. James Hill were hostesses yesterday afternoon at the Hill home on North Main street. Six tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon hours and high score honors were won by Mrs. Thomas Vaughan.
