CHORUS GIRLS SHAPELY ANKLES CHARM LONDON

LONDON, April 2.—(Lloyd Allen, United Press Staff Correspondent.)—Slender ankles, after all, are the best diplomacy, and the American chorus girls who have been imported here, are cementing Anglo-American understanding in a way undreamt of by ambassadors and such.

In the "League of Nations", C. B. Cochran's latest theatrical production, there are ten of them; and Englishmen, who as a rule are not lavish in their use of superlatives, describe them as the "willowiest, lissomest, and gracesfullest girls" who ever glided across London's "boards." Not only English men, but English women, too, are loud in their expressions of admiration for the American type of womanhood, which differs quite a lot from the English product.

While American chorus girls, without exception, are tremendously popular with audiences—they cause the management one or two extra gray hairs on account of their unpunctuality during rehearsals. From injuries made of various theatrical managers who have fair young Americans under their wing, it would seem that usually they come to England with a glorious anticipation of being thoroughly spoiled. Hence, they begin by turning up late for rehearsals and then proceed to overstay their lunch hour. At the first managerial reprimand they raise supercilious eyebrows; at the second they are prettily penitent; but at the third they begin to realize that the manager means business, and reform accordingly.

However, the conquest of London has not been left to American chorus girls only. Those "stars" which America has spared from her own great firmament are shining brightly over here.

The Dolly Sisters and the Trix Sisters are making a hit, while the two biggest successes of the past season were "Paddy the Next Best Thing" in which Edna Day scored such a prolonged triumph.

There is some flayor about American talent which never fails to please the English palate. The Prince of Wales is certainly not immune from the American lure. At a recent dance of Lady Lavery the Trix Sisters were sorted out by the Prince of Wales for special attention. He danced with one of them and insisted on hearing excerpts from their "act"—and when on applauding and pleading for more until they had finished the third number.

Another complete and individual American success was scored by Mary Nash at the Oxford Theatre, in "The Man Who Came Back."

In London's smartest ballrooms, the American demonstrator is to the fore. At the Savoy Hotel, Leonora Hughes, with her partner, Maurice, held the huge ballroom spellbound each night—and many Londoners went just to watch them dance, without any intention of joining in the whirling throng themselves.

Elsie Janis makes a musical complaint, entitled "It's All Wrong," at the Queen's Theater—and while this finds little favor with Americans in the audience, Londoners clap and encore and pronounce it "Fine."

Managers are at a loss to know whether it's the American "ankles or the accent" that so completely wins London's favor, but the favor is won beyond a doubt, and those programs announcing an "English and American Company" are practically certain to play to a full house.

LOS ANGELES ELKS'

LETTERHEADS BOOST 1925 PORTLAND FAIR

The Los Angeles reunion committee of the Oregon State Elks association has had printed at the bottom of each of its letterheads, "Atlantic-Pacific Highways and Electrical Exposition, Portland, 1925."

The plan should be followed by every convention committee, civic organization, business house and by the various departments of city and state government, in the opinion of the 1925 exposition executive committee.

Support of the exposition will be given in far-away Porto Rico, according to a letter from E. J. Saldano, acting executive secretary of the Porto Rican government, who wrote, "Both the legislature and the governor of Porto Rico recognize the importance of this patriotic undertaking. A letter from Senator Charles L. McNary, to executive Chairman J. L. Meier of the exposition committee states:

"At a very early date I shall remodel the Chamberlain resolution and present it to the consideration of congress upon its reconvention, April 11." The resolution referred to is intended to convey the formal approval of the government for the Portland exposition.

ATTORNEY INSTRUCTS WHITE NOT TO TALK TO NEWSPAPER MEN

YAKIMA, Wash., April 1.—(A. P.)—"My attorney told me before leaving Everet to be careful about talking to reporters," said Isom White, Everet boy, who faces hanging on May 26 for murder, when interviewed at the county jail here this morning. "I don't mind telling you, though," he said, "that I can't believe I will hang on—let's see—what day is it?"

White was housed in the Yakima jail over night with other prisoners, en route to Walla Walla. He appeared to have no realization of the gravity of his situation and snored peacefully in his bunk during the night with apparently not a worry. He was taken to Walla Walla this morning.

PAIGE

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

ANNOUNCING The PAIGE NATIONAL DEMONSTRATION WEEK

For one week—commencing Monday, April 4th.—our Dealers in every section of the nation will conduct a special series of demonstrations with the complete line of Paige cars.

Our "Daytona 6-66" model now holds the world's stock car record for speed. It will be the purpose of Demonstration Week to prove that any Paige car—in the hands of an unprofessional driver—is indeed Master of the Highway.

No other stock car has ever equalled our own speed record of 102.8 miles per hour. No other car, we are confident, can defeat a Paige in the milder tests of general demonstration work.

By proving itself the fastest car, the Paige 6-66 has revealed qualities of endurance and strength that are beyond dispute. World's championship form is a guarantee of all 'round efficiency—the best guarantee that the sporting world affords.

But these are facts that we want you to establish for yourself, and Demonstration Week offers an unrivaled opportunity. You have but to get in touch with our Dealer and he will book you for a ride that will prove finally convincing.

Then, with an actual record of the tests, you will be in position to compare the Paige 6-66 with any other motor car—at any price—on the American market.

You will also be able to determine whether the New Series "Glenbrook Six-44" is or is not the greatest dollar for dollar value in the light six field.

Surely no man could ask for a fairer or more sportsmanlike proposition.

Whether you contemplate buying a motor car or not, we very cordially invite you to ride with Paige during the coming week. It will prove a revelation, we believe—and a liberal education in strictly modern engineering.
