Fire Truck Tommorrow

News received here today is that the city's new fire truck will arrive to-morfow forenoon. It passed Green river last night and is supposed to be due here at 11 a. m. Sunday. The truck will be demonstrated on Mon day and Tuesday.

Cemetery Irrigation n for irrigating at Olney emetery starts April 1 a number ocal people are taking out permits for the season at the city recorder's office. A charge of $5 per season is made for a full lot and $3 for a half lot. By paying $150 a perpetual irrigation per-mit may be secured. The sexton cares for the graves and attends to the work of irrigating.

Five Teaffic Violators This was John Doe morning at the city hall and Judge Thomas FitsGerald was not there to enjoy the occasion. The judge being absent on account of ess A. G. FitzGerald imposed fines ranging from $1 to $5 on five parties arrested by Officer Lyday on various charges concerning breaches in the traffic laws. Four of the offenders gave John Doe as their names and the ofth varied the monotony by the Richard Roe alibi.

Fred Lampkin Recovering

Fred W. Lumpkin, business manager of the East Oregonian who received a oken leg in a mishap on the reservation Thursday night, is resting well at the St. Anthony's hospital. How tempt to take an X-ray photo today was unsuccessful. As to the details of the acident the reports vary but no blame is attached to Mrs. J. E. Elicins who was driving the car that was stall-ed. Some say the car did not actually run over the injured man's leg while others assert it did.

Legislature Beats Sheep

"No, I'm not seeking an appoint-ment for a federal job," admitted Frank Sloan of Stanfield, who arrived at the Imperial yesterday to see R. N. Stanfield, United States senator. "I'm in the sheep business, even if it is rotten. I mean, the sheep business is all right, except the price." After serving as a lawmaker for 44 days at Salem, Mr. Sloan says it seems strange to go to bed and sleep all night with-cut someone coming to wake him up and asking him to support a bill. "Speaking of the sheep business," he concluded, "you know I said that there was more money in being a lawmaker at $3 a day than there was being a sheepman. Well, that still goes." regonian.

Sheriff is Enjoined.

Sheriff Houser was today served with an injunction which prevents him from collecting the special tax recently levied for school district No. 120 on the reservation. It was alleged in the petition for the abatement of this tax that it had not been legally levied and that the need for the tax had been removed by the consolida-tion of the district in question by an

'UNDESIRABLES' BEING DEPORTED TO RUSSIA REVOLT ON HIGH SEAS

Considered Wirelessing to U.

S. Was Vessel for Assistance

NEW YORK, April 2.—(A. P.)-The story of how seventy undesirables deported to Russia on the steamship Esthonia last February, revolted on the high seas under the leadership of a woman, Rosa Oradovsky, was told ere today by H. J. Skeffington, immi gration commissioner of Boston, wh returned from England on the Adri-

Conditions became so bad that the captain, one time considered wireless ing an American war vessel for sistance. Instead, he had painted on the deck white "dead lines," beyond which the radicals were warned not to advance on peril of death. A gale caused seasickness, welled the fires of revolution.
