

People Here and There

Sergeant E. B. Berryman, who is here as one of the representatives of the Marine Corps at the Sheldon Ulrich funeral, served with the sixth marine in France and was through many of the engagements in which the Pendleton man took part. Sergeant Berryman was wounded but recovered and reentered the service. He is now stationed in Portland. He lost a brother in France.

Rev. John Secor, pastor of the Methodist church, returned this morning after a visit to Portland.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Irrigation Dispute in Court. Approximately fifty witnesses have given testimony before Referee J. E. Beckwith in the case of the Western Land & Irrigation Company against O. D. Teel. The company is suing for the collection of water furnished the defendant since 1912. This is alleged to amount to $2,500. Mr. Teel sets up a counter claim of damages to the amount of $20,000. This he alleges is due to the failure of the company to furnish him with water as per agreement.

Highway Commissioners Here. Chairman Booth and Commissioner Barrett of the state highway commission, are in Pendleton today. They arrived this morning by auto, having come from Arlington by way of Heppner and Pilot Rock over the Oregon & Washington highway. They are spending the afternoon in going over the various proposed routes of the Pendleton-Cold Springs highway and will endeavor to settle on a route. They leave tonight for Joseph, Oregon.

Woman Alleged Insane. Mrs. Maud Keys of 126 Thompson street, is being examined as to her sanity before County Judge Schanepf this afternoon.

Utah Stockmen Pay Taxes. Henry Lazinka and Lowell Gangier, the two well-known Camas prairie stockmen were called at the tax collection window of the sheriff's office immediately after lunch today. Mr. Lazinka lives in Pendleton, but has been at the ranch near Ukiah for several days.

JUDGE WOULD ROT IN JAIL RATHER THAN BETRAY CONFIDENCE

DENVER, April 2.—"I do not care to make my statement before I appear in court," Juvenile Judge Ben S. Lindsay told the United Press. "I do not know what the court will decide in my case, nor do I know just what action I will take." Lindsay is to appear today for a final arrangement for contempt of court. When Frank Wright was shot and killed at his home here, five years ago, Mrs. Wright was tried for murder and acquitted. Lindsay, in the capacity of Juvenile Judge, gained the confidence of the son, Neal Wright, aged 15. When Judge Lindsay refused to tell what the boy told him, he was held in contempt of court, and ordered to pay a fine of $500 or serve a year in jail. The case went to the United States supreme court, which threw the lower courts. Lindsay declared he would rather rot in jail than betray the confidence of a child. The lawyers in Denver and newspapers throughout the country offered to pay the fine, but the judge refused to accept the offer.

A Service That Is a Service

Why We "Do More—Do It Better"

There is no word so much abused as this word "service."

It's a great word to conjure with and make promises on.

It either means much, little or nothing.

What you expect of it and what you get from it are too often very different.

So when we say "service that is a service" we mean just what we say.

As the Lalley Light and Home Electric Power Plant serves you—as it has so faithfully served thousands, during the past ten years—so we aim to serve you. And that means a lot.

As the Lalley Light "Does More and Does It Better" so we propose to do by you—do more and do it better.

The manufacturers of this wonderful plant have spared no pains, no time, and no expense in producing the best the market affords.

It is our clean-cut duty and our policy to go all the way with them in backing them up, in backing up the plant and in backing up our own reputation, by giving you the service and the co-operation that you expect and have a right to expect.

The Lalley Light and Home Electric Power Plant is as nearly trouble-proof as it is humanly possible to build it. It is free from complications and numerous parts. It is the most accessible plant made. Yet if there is ever any minor adjustments to be made, if we can be of help to you in its operation or care, if we can assist you in any way and thereby enable you to get the most from your Lalley Light, call on us freely.

Possibly you have some wiring problem that we may help you solve; perhaps there is something in the nature of electrical equipment that will save you and the family many hours of work. Here again we ask that you call on us, for we are headquarters for high quality, reliable electrical equipment for farm or home.

We are here to serve you—to serve the Lalley Light and the manufacturers.

We are here to keep old customers happy; to keep new customers informed and satisfied; to keep prospective customers posted on the many advantages of the Lalley Light and Home Electric Power Plant, and why it "Does More—Does It Better."

We welcome you all to our salesroom; come often—bring the family and your friends; know why and how "we do more—do it better."

SHOOTS COLLEGE DEAN THEN ENDS OWN LIFE

SYRACUSE, April 2.—(A. P.)—J. Wharton, dean of the college of business administration of the Syracuse University, was shot and killed by Thomas Beckwith, professor of financial and insurance subjects, in the college today. Beckwith then turned the gun on himself and committed suicide. Chancellor Day believed that Wharton had tried to prevent Beckwith from committing suicide, as Beckwith left a note indicating his intention to end his life. Beckwith had been ordered dismissed at the end of

30 WORKMEN BUILD 5 ROOM BUNGALOW WITHIN TEN HOURS

CHICAGO, April 2.—(A. P.)—An example of the rapidity with which the housing shortage may be overcome was given today by the Lumbermen's Association of Chicago, when 30 workmen employed by the association erected a five room bungalow within 10 hours. The workmen started work on a foundation at 7 a. m. and completed the house at 5 p. m. The task included installation of electrical and plumbing fixtures and decoration of the interior of the house.
