TO BE DEVOTED TO PENDLETON

Because Pendleton is the convention city for the annual convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, to meet here May 21 and June 1, 2 and 3 the next issue of the Clubwomen's Bulletin, the official organ of the state federation, will be a Pendleton number.

One of the features of the convention will be the singing of the Oregon state song, and members of the various clubs has been requested to know the song for community singing. Mrs. Nettie Greer Taylor has requested that delegates familiarize themselves with the song.

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president of the general federation, the national organization of clubwomen, will be present at the convention and will speak on June 1. Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, president of the state federation, is chairman of the program committee. The clubs are stressing child welfare and Americanization.

The convention will be marked by election of officers, and for this reason, a large number of delegates will probably attend. So far, no political predictions have been made and a quiet election is predicted.

CASTS ARE ANNOUNCED

Members of the Thursday Afternoon Club are at work on rehearsals for two comedies, "The Well of the Saints," by Synes, and "Spreading the News," by Lady Gregory, to be presented at the State Hospital auditorium Thursday afternoon, April 23. The cast for "Spreading the News," is as follows: "Barclay Fallon," Mrs. George Hartman; "Mrs. Fallon," Mrs. Harold Warner; "Jack Smith," Mrs. William Lowell; "Shawn Earley," Mrs. Willard Bond; "Tim Casey," Mrs. D. D. Hobart; "James Ryan," Mrs. G. W. Phelps; "Mrs. Tarpey," Mrs. Benjamin L. Burroughs; "Mrs. Tully," Mrs. Clarence Whitman; policeman, Mrs. Gus Boyden; a removable magistrate, Mrs. John Hulley.

For "The Well of the Saints," the cast is "Martin Doull," Mrs. Brooke Dickson; "Mary Doull," Mrs. A. I. Schaefer; "Timmy," the Smith, Mrs. Benjamin S. Burroughs; "Molly Byrne," Miss Beth Smith; "Bride," Mrs. Guy Boyden; "Mat Simon," Mrs. Alfred Lockwood; the Saint, Miss Edna Gates.

MISS TODD WEDS DR. HOLT

Unusually charming in detail was the wedding of Miss Virginia Cotton Todd and Dr. G. E. Holt, solemnized on Saturday evening at Hermiston at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Todd.

Flowers and ferns banked the fireplace where the bride and groom took their places for the reading of the impressive ring ceremony by Rev. George L. Clark, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Pendleton. Miss Fannie Todd was her sister's attendant and Logan Todd, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride looked lovely in a wedding gown of lace and white charmeuse, with touches of silver, and her veil, of rare old lace, was worn on her grandmother's wedding day seventy years ago. Miss Todd carried a shower bouquet of roses and orchids. About twenty guests were present for the ceremony and for the wedding supper which followed. Pink and white snapdragons were used in the dining room and candles in antique silver candelabra cast a mellow light on the scene.

The bride is very popular in Pendleton and in Hermiston and is a member of an old Southern family. Dr. Holt's prominence in his profession and is a graduate of the American College of Osteopathy, Kirksville, Illinois. During the war he served overseas in the medical corps. After a short wedding trip to Portland the young couple will make their home in Pendleton and will be domiciled at the Security Apartment.

MISS SALISBURY HONORED

A group of friends were asked to the home of Mrs. W. F. Matlock on Saturday evening to meet Miss Salisbury, talented young singer who is a student at Whitman College and who has been visiting here.

Miss Salisbury's songs proved delightful as she has a lyric soprano of unusual quality. In addition, Miss Margaret Aune played a piano solo, Miss Lois Swagart gave a reading, "Friendship," Mrs. Wade Privett sang "The Rosary," and Miss Pauline Mims gave Eugene Field's poem, "Seein' Things At Night," and Mrs. William Mays gave "The Little Old Dog-out of the Claim." All the numbers were decidedly enjoyable. Later the guests sang old-fashioned songs, with L. Makers and Joseph H. Scott as leaders, and then enjoyed a few hours of dancing in the spacious rooms of the Matlock home. A delicious supper was served.

YOUNG GIRL FINDS RELIEF

Wants to Tell Other Girls All About It

Evansville, Ind.—"I am eighteen years old and have been bothered for several months with irregular periods. Every month my back would ache and I always had a cold and felt drowsy and sleepy. I work in a millinery shop and I went to work every day, but felt stupid and would have such cramps. I had seen Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and had heard several women talk of it, so mother got me some. This Vegetable Compound is wonderful and it helped me very much, so that during my periods I am not now sick or drowsy. I have told many girls about your medicine and would be glad to help anyone who is troubled with similar ailments. You may see my testimonial as you like."

—STELLA LEXWILER, 6 Second St., Evansville, Indiana. Some girls lead lives of luxury, while others toil for their livelihood, but all are subject to the same physical laws and suffer in proportion to their violation. When such symptoms develop as irregularities, headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations, and "the blues," girls should profit by Miss Linxwiler's experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.
