

DAILY EDITION

The net press run of Saturday's daily 3,315

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

VOL. 33

DAILY EAST OREGONIAN, PENDLETON, OREGON, MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 11, 1921.

DAILY EDITION

The East Oregonian is Eastern Oregon's greatest newspaper and as a selling force gives to the advertiser over twice the guarantee of circulation in Pendleton and Umatilla county of any other newspaper.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

NO. 9798

GREAT BRITAIN'S INDUSTRIAL STRIKE APPEARS CRUSHED

Sentiment Against Striking is Reported Growing in Railway and Transport Ranks.

IMPORTANT CONCESSIONS MADE TO OBTAIN PEACE

Miner's Negotiations Reopened This Morning With Sir Robert Horne Presiding.

LONDON, April 11.—(Ed. J. Keen, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—Britain's threatened industrial strike is regarded as crushed. The sentiment against striking is reported growing in railway and transport ranks. Indications were that the miners, owners and government representatives would make important concessions to gain peace. The miners' negotiations reopened this morning with Sir Robert Horne presiding.

28 POUNDS OF BLACK BASS CAUGHT ON RIVER

Twenty eight pounds of foxy black bass was the total catch of Harold Brook, Brooks Dickson, Bob Saunders and John Downing who spent a strenuous day Sunday on the Columbia river fourteen miles below Umatilla.

The boys report that they had a hard time to get their car over the sandy roads. For a stretch of three miles they had to "get out and push" in order to reach their destination. At Umatilla they were joined by Ole Arkus who accompanied them down the river.

ESTES TEAM TAKES LEAD FROM FOEMEN

Estes team, 225 points. Wyrick team, 112 points. As far as the Pendleton score is concerned the Estes team wins for crow-mapple-hawk killing competition. Though behind on Saturday the east end gunners were very busy yesterday and ran up an additional string of 132 points on reports made up to noon today. They killed 49 crows eight mangles and two hawks.

ATTEND CONVENTION. CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 11.—(A. P.)—Hundreds of delegates and alternates arrived last night to attend the second annual convention of the National League of Women Voters, which opened here today.

SEAMEN ACCEPT WAGE CUT. SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—(A. P.)—Seamen employed by the Alaska packers association agreed to accept the wage of seven cents a fish and an additional $1.50 for the trip, as against nine cents a fish and $200 for the trip last year, according to an announcement made today.

THE WEATHER

Reported by Major Lee Moorhouse, observer. Maximum, 68. Minimum, 41. Barometer 28.76. Yesterday's maximum, 74.

TODAY'S FORECAST. Tonight and Tuesday fair and colder.

If William X. Jackson looks indignant in this picture it is not without cause. Same goes for the appealing expression worn by Laddie Boy, the White House Airedale. William is the dog's official keeper.

JAPANESE EMPEROR SENDS PRESIDENT GOOD WILL MESSAGE

Understood to be One of Number of Gestures of Friendship Japan Contemplates.

CAREY IS SENTENCED TO YEAR IN SCHOOL

CHICAGO, April 11.—(U. P.)—Francis J. Carey, an employee of the National City Bank of Ottawa, Ill., who stole $36,000 was sentenced to one year in the national training school at Washington, D. C., by Judge K. M. Landis.

MAY AND JULY WHEAT CONTINUES TO DECLINE

Wheat continued its decline in price today. May wheat closing at $1.2, and July at $1.19. Saturday May wheat closed at $1.22 and July at $1.12.

PIGSKIN PUSHERS PRACTICE

BUTTE, Mont., April 11.—(A. P.)—Spring football practice, preparatory to getting the 1921 squad into shape for service on the gridiron, has begun at the Montana School of Mines here.

67TH SESSION OF CONGRESS OPENS AT NOON TODAY

New Republican Administration Gets Under Full Headway; Program Limited to Opening

CONSIDERATION OF TARIFF MATTERS FIRST BUSINESS

President Harding's Message May Not be Complete Until Tonight or Tomorrow Morn.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(U. P.)—President Harding will deliver his message in person at 1 p. m. tomorrow.

SPANGLE AND M'NURLIN HIGH ARTISTS IN SHOOT

SPokane, April 11.—(A. P.)—Yesterday's results in the Spokeman-Review telegraph shoot: Garfield, 74; Cheney, 72; Wenatchee drew the forfeit; Wainburg, 73; Kellogg, 71; Sprague, 72; Odessa, 71; Yakima, 71; Pendleton, 70; Oroville, 72; Coulee City, 73; Palouse-Colefax, 74; Walla Walla, 70; Spokane, 75; Wallace, 72; Ellensburg, 75; Lewiston-Pomeroy, 74. The shoot off, Cheney, 72, Wallace 72.

WHITMAN PROFESSOR TO GIVE SPECIAL COURSE DURING SUMMER SCHOOL

A special feature that will add strength to the offering of the summer normal school course at Pendleton this summer has been announced by Supt. H. E. Inlow of the city schools.

STRIKE AGAINST WAGE CUT. SAN FRANCISCO, April 11.—(U. P.)—Union painters of San Francisco, Oakland and San Mateo struck against an alleged threatened 7 per cent wage cut. It is claimed that 300 men are out.

CROWDS ATTEND OPENING

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(A. P.)—Crowds attended the sessions of both houses, thousands of bills were introduced.

COUNTY AGRICULTURE AGENT FAVORS GRAIN GROWERS ASSOCIATION

Fred Bennion Says it is Unquestionably Largest Grain Association Ever Organized.

Fred Bennion, county agriculture agent, is in favor of the United States Growers Association, plans for which were outlined at a national convention held in Chicago and which Mr. Bennion attended as one of the delegates from the state of Oregon.

TO FORM CORPORATIONS

A $100,000 finance corporation and an export corporation, both subsidiary to the grain corporation, are to be formed and in Mr. Bennion's opinion will put the whole system in excellent shape to meet foreign buyers.

UMATILLA CO. PIONEER LAID TO REST TODAY

Old friends of the late James Monroe Ferguson, aged 78, pioneer farmer of this county and a veteran of the Civil War, acted as pall bearers this afternoon at the funeral services at the family residence, on Lewis street.

EASTERN OREGON AUTO CLUB MAKES REPORT

The Eastern Oregon Auto Club, as a special service to tourists, will each week prepare a road report. The report for this week, according to Ernest Crockett, secretary, is as follows: Pendleton to Portland.

PENDLETON TO HELIX

Ten miles paved. Gravel, under construction, to Helix.

PENDLETON TO COLD SPRINGS

By Holdman or south Cold Springs road, good.

OLD OREGON TRAIL

Pendleton to La Grande. Deep snow on mountain. All tourists by rail. La Grande to Baker fair. Baker to Huntington, at Durkee bad.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS WILL DANCE SOLO DANCES IN PAGEANT

Pendleton high school girls will dance the solo dances in the "Blue Bird Pageant," based on Maurice Maeterlinck's play, to be given during the State Parent Teacher Association convention here May 11, 12 and 13.

MERELY TO OBTAIN PRACTICE IN CLIMBING

Merely to obtain practice in climbing hand over hand, a fifteen-year-old boy ascended a cable of Brooklyn bridge with the skill of a sailor until he reached the tower three hundred feet above the water.

INFIRMITIES OF OLD AGE RESULT IN THE DEATH OF JOHN HAILEY

Former Owner of Stage That Operated Through This City Passes Away at Boise Home.

LORD MAYOR OF CORK WILL NOT BE GIVEN ASYLUM IN AMERICA

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(U. P.)—Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who arrived at Newport News in January as a stowaway without a passport, must leave the country.

WILL RESHIP AS ALLEN SEAMAN

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(A. P.)—Secretary of Labor Davis said he had "no doubt" but that Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, would reship for his home as an alien seaman within 60 days from date of the state department ruling that he was not entitled to an asylum as a political refugee.

WILL RESHIP AS ALLEN SEAMAN

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(A. P.)—Secretary of Labor Davis said he had "no doubt" but that Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, would reship for his home as an alien seaman within 60 days from date of the state department ruling that he was not entitled to an asylum as a political refugee.

WILL RESHIP AS ALLEN SEAMAN

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(A. P.)—Secretary of Labor Davis said he had "no doubt" but that Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, would reship for his home as an alien seaman within 60 days from date of the state department ruling that he was not entitled to an asylum as a political refugee.

WILL RESHIP AS ALLEN SEAMAN

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(A. P.)—Secretary of Labor Davis said he had "no doubt" but that Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, would reship for his home as an alien seaman within 60 days from date of the state department ruling that he was not entitled to an asylum as a political refugee.

FORMER EMPRESS OF GERMANY DIES IN HOLLAND CITY

Augusta Victoria Was Born in Exile and Died an Expatriate at Age of Sixty Three Years.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

Has Not Been Decided Whether William Can Accompany Remains to Former Home.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, April 11.—(U. P.)—Funeral services for former Empress of Germany, Augusta Victoria, who died at 6 a. m. will be held at Potsdam, where she is buried, on Sunday. The Empress was a victim of heart trouble. Born in exile, Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein died an expatriate at the age of 63 years.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

The Kaiser's death was peaceful. In the chambers at the time were the former Kaiser, the third son, Adelbert, and a physician. After leaving the death chamber was reported to have accepted his loss stoically. It is not decided whether the Kaiser can accompany the remains to Potsdam. It would be his first visit there since 1918. Others of the family will make the journey.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(A. P.)—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, died here at six this morning. The end came just one year after she had suffered her first serious attack from heart disease. It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, after a long residence at Amerongen that she was stricken. She called and accompanied her husband here on May 15 last year.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(A. P.)—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, died here at six this morning. The end came just one year after she had suffered her first serious attack from heart disease. It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, after a long residence at Amerongen that she was stricken. She called and accompanied her husband here on May 15 last year.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(A. P.)—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, died here at six this morning. The end came just one year after she had suffered her first serious attack from heart disease. It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, after a long residence at Amerongen that she was stricken. She called and accompanied her husband here on May 15 last year.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(A. P.)—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, died here at six this morning. The end came just one year after she had suffered her first serious attack from heart disease. It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, after a long residence at Amerongen that she was stricken. She called and accompanied her husband here on May 15 last year.

FORMER EMPRESS OF GERMANY DIES IN HOLLAND CITY

Augusta Victoria Was Born in Exile and Died an Expatriate at Age of Sixty Three Years.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

Has Not Been Decided Whether William Can Accompany Remains to Former Home.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, April 11.—(U. P.)—Funeral services for former Empress of Germany, Augusta Victoria, who died at 6 a. m. will be held at Potsdam, where she is buried, on Sunday. The Empress was a victim of heart trouble. Born in exile, Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein died an expatriate at the age of 63 years.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

The Kaiser's death was peaceful. In the chambers at the time were the former Kaiser, the third son, Adelbert, and a physician. After leaving the death chamber was reported to have accepted his loss stoically. It is not decided whether the Kaiser can accompany the remains to Potsdam. It would be his first visit there since 1918. Others of the family will make the journey.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(A. P.)—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, died here at six this morning. The end came just one year after she had suffered her first serious attack from heart disease. It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, after a long residence at Amerongen that she was stricken. She called and accompanied her husband here on May 15 last year.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(A. P.)—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, died here at six this morning. The end came just one year after she had suffered her first serious attack from heart disease. It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, after a long residence at Amerongen that she was stricken. She called and accompanied her husband here on May 15 last year.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(A. P.)—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, died here at six this morning. The end came just one year after she had suffered her first serious attack from heart disease. It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, after a long residence at Amerongen that she was stricken. She called and accompanied her husband here on May 15 last year.

FORMER KAISER ACCEPTS HIS LOSS VERY STOICALLY

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—(A. P.)—Former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany, died here at six this morning. The end came just one year after she had suffered her first serious attack from heart disease. It was while she was preparing to enter the house of Doorn, after a long residence at Amerongen that she was stricken. She called and accompanied her husband here on May 15 last year.