and as long as the Rucks came out on top every thing was lovely.

The leaguers started right off in the first inning as though they meant business and ran two scores over before the locals could set their breath. Hookins the first man up struck oft, Williams seemed to have logs of sturt and got a nice hand for his work but Leifer the next singled through second for the first of his three hits, Lang doubled into left field sending Leifer to third and Shandling went out Hamley to Cary, Leifer scoting the play: Walters singled to short right field scoring Lang. Taylor struck out. Taylor struck out.

Pendleton in her hair went out in one-two-three order. Olson fouled the first pitch down third and on the next throw drove a hard liner to Taylor a nightmare. Moose Jaw making throw drove a hard liner to Taylor a nightmare. Moose Jaw making throw who made a pretty dive and speared it runs on only one hit. Leffer the lead man was safe on second on Hanley's man was safe on second on Hanley's man was safe on second on Hanley's just off the ground. Hanley struck out, Captain Peterson also struck out out, Captain Peterson also struck out double error. Dick cuffed and kicked and was thrown out to first when Bell the ball and then threw wide to Cary;
