FISHERMEN TAKE TACKLE AND HIE THEMSELVES TO STREAMS TO FISH TROUT

Early this morning at that particular instant when Old Sol peeked over the hill in the east the trout fishing season in the state of Oregon was open, and cognizance of that fact is being taken today by disciples of Isaac Walton in Umatilla county.

The opening of the trout season has the same degree of importance to Pendleton that the opening of the big league baseball season has in the large cities. Many men were missing from their usual places today, and their absence is explained by the short story, "The fishing."

The season is opening later than in former years by just fifteen days. Thirty trout, or 20 pounds in one week or 60 fish and 40 pounds in one week is the catch limit that is imposed by the law.

Water in the streams is low enough to make the sport interesting in this county. Some few violators were found during the closing days of the closed season, but there was comparatively little of this sort of thing, and indications are that the season will furnish a lot of good sport.

BIG TRADE IN BABY CHICKS

NORWALK, Conn., April 15.—The chicken counters at the five and ten cent stores here are doing a rushing business this year. As a strange life the baby peepers sold as "merchandise" lead. Snatched from the "brood hen" incubators before they reach the tender age of one day, they arrive at the popular five and ten emporiums via the mail. Purchased by flappers for pets, and by housewives for future dinners, they leave the stores, chirping singly in the fur muff of a cooing young mistress, or crowded together in the bottom of a water pail. The only growlers of their species they ever see are not of the feathered variety.

SIX SKELETONS ARE UNEARTHED ON HIGHWAY NEAR DESCHUTES RIVER

THE DALLES, Ore., April 15.—(U. P.)—Six skeletons were unearthed by excavation crews working on the Columbia river highway near the Deschutes river. The skeletons are thought to be those of soldiers who lost their lives in a combat with the Indians during the early wars in the Oregon country. The cause of the skeletons' being unearthed in the same area, and the skulls were crushed in each instance and some also contained bullet holes.

GOT THE REAL THING

"For five long years I suffered with stomach trouble and what the doctors called gall stone colic, and all said nothing but an operation would do me any good. A friend who had taken your medicine advised me to try it, and I found it to be the real thing. I feel better than I have in eight years and I am praising God for May's Wonderful Remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Druggists everywhere.

GET TOGETHER MEETING

failure on the part of so many business and professional men to take the association's work personally. Usually a few men must bear the burdens that should be borne by many, and then, some men stay on the sidelines and make criticisms and find fault. Don't be a knocker. Attend the meetings and do all you can to help.

"Do constructive work. Our organization at Pendleton has recently been greatly strengthened, and we are broadening the scope of our work so that we may be of assistance in a bigger field. We want to help the whole of Umatilla county, because, to be frank with you, we realize the more we can help you the better it will be for Pendleton. Mutual benefits appeal to all of us."

Crowd Lauds With Clark
That cities in common with nations suffer or prosper together and that their interests are so closely related that one community can not gain success without passing on to its neighbor some measure of this success was a statement made by Rev. George Clark, and in support of this contention he asked his audience how much of their surplus fruit is probably moved every autumn on account of the great crowds that come to Pendleton for the Round-Up that might otherwise be held over for a later market.

Interspersed in his more serious remarks were humorous anecdotes that won the close attention of the big audience and brought forth many laughs. A plea that the organization remember that the needs of humanity offer the greatest field for usefulness to such an organization, was presented to the men.

Get New Members.
An opportunity to the Freewater men in attendance, not already members of the club to join was extended at this time, which resulted in more than doubling the membership list. A compliment to the spirit displayed was made by Attorney Fred Stelver when he made his address of the evening. Neither surrounding country nor wealth are the chief essentials needed to make a metropolis of a small city, he declared, but the spirit of its citizens.

That new opportunities of service and help will present themselves as the life of an organization is strengthened was a statement of the speaker, who pointed out that all of the blessings that are enjoyed today are the result of sacrifices on the part of the present generation or preceding generations. Banking institutions, churches, road building, management of schools and all similar community and civic problems are the result of cooperation and sacrifice.

Urges Cooperation.
Mr. Stelver urged that the spirit of cooperation be observed to the fullest possible extent and suggested that it would undoubtedly be possible for Freewater to work in harmony with Milton in many helpful ways, and an invitation to make use of the assistance of Pendleton and its organization in every possible way was extended.

"We don't want you to feel for a minute that because we are bigger we have any desire to hog the ring. We want a share of all good things, but we realize that to win success in the big measure, Freewater and Umatilla county must also prosper."
"We have shown that we are able to forego temporary benefits for the benefit of a community larger than Pendleton. The assurance that the McKay reservoir is soon to be built furnishes an example of that fact. The construction of this reservoir will stabilize the future of thousands of acres of irrigated land, cause about 1800 acres of land right at Pendleton's front door to be flooded. There was some opposition to the loss of this land, but the broader benefits were sufficient to overshadow the loss, and Pendleton is boosting for this project."

Secretary Claud Barr of the Pendleton Commercial Association made a brief talk in which he assured the Freewater organization that it might feel free at any time to command the services of the Pendleton association. An invitation to use the organization's rooms whenever they were in Pendleton, was given.

About seventy-five men attended the banquet which was served by some of Freewater's prominent women.

SAYS IT HAS BEEN BLESSING TO HER

Portland Woman Declares Tanlac Relieved Her of Troubles of 15 Years Standing.

"Tanlac has certainly been a blessing to me, for it has relieved me of troubles that had been pulling me down for fifteen years," declared Mrs. Jessemaie Cenci, of 597 Sheridan street, Portland, Ore.
"I suffered dreadfully from a severe case of stomach trouble, everything I ate seemed to be in my stomach undigested, causing a heavy feeling of depression and intense pain. I would blot up with gas and at times become so nauseated I could scarcely retain a thing I had eaten. I didn't dare eat any fruit or starchy foods at all, and frequently had such awful headaches I would become quite dizzy. I was so nervous I didn't know what it was to get a good night's rest."
"My son had taken Tanlac and it had helped him so much I began taking it myself, and it has given me a splendid appetite and relieved me of all my troubles. I never have a pain of any kind, I sleep fine and sound every night and am simply feeling good in every way."

20,000 BODIES OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS WILL BE RETURNED

With Personnel of Over 2,000 Men Working it is Possible to Forward 4,000 Bodies Month

PARIS, April 15.—(A. P.)—Twenty thousand bodies of American soldiers who fell in France have either been shipped to the United States or are now in process of being returned for burial in their native country. With 127 officers of the American army and a personnel of more than 2,000 men working night and day in many sections of France, the Graves Registration Service of the American army has reached a point where it is possible to forward 4,000 bodies a month. The work of sending back the 52,311 bodies designated for interment in America will be completed by the end of next October, if present plans are fulfilled.

The bodies of the Americans have been taken from every cemetery in the south of France. The greater part of the effort is now being concentrated in the zone of the armies—the Argonne, etc. Seventy-seven bodies of American soldiers who died in Italy will be removed to the United States next month. The Graves Registration Service now is working in Berlin on arrangements for shipping the bodies of 150 American soldiers who are buried in various parts of unoccupied Germany. This latter work was rendered very difficult because the location of many of the graves was unknown. An expert has been going over the German burial records in Berlin for several weeks and virtually all the graves have been found. The German government has afforded every facility to the Graves Registration Service.

More than 20,000 bodies will be buried in the former permanent cemetery in which the American government will maintain in France.
The Fine Arts Commission of the American War Memorial Council has arrived in Paris for a series of meetings and a tour of inspection of the permanent cemeteries. The Commission has in contemplation plans for the beautification of the cemeteries and will determine the character of headstones to be used and the general decorative scheme to be followed. The Commission will probably consult with leading French landscape artists.

EMPLOYMENT FOR WOMEN

CHICAGO, April 15.—(A. P.)—Jobs for women, but almost none for men, is the condition in 15 Central states, according to reports made yesterday to the first social service conference of the Salvation Army in this territory.

"We note the preference for women in industry in two directions," said William Heart. "First we are getting fewer applications from women, and second, we are having less trouble in getting jobs for the applicants."
