CLUB HAS MEETING.

The ladies of the English club formed the theme for a meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club yesterday, for which Mrs. Clarence Whitman and Mrs. Benjamin S. Burroughs were hostesses at the library club room.

The program was one of decided interest. Mrs. Alfred Lockwood read a paper on Arthur Remond and Ernest Dowson, and Mrs. H. W. Dickson and Mrs. A. L. Schaefer read the play, "Pierrot of the Minute," by Dowson. Mrs. Harold Warner told of the life and read two of the poems of Gertrude Hart, and a letter in the handwriting of the English poetess, written to Mr. Mosher, the well known magazine editor, was a feature. The letter was sent to Mrs. Burroughs by Mr. Mosher.

For a delightful musical program, Mrs. Benjamin L. Burroughs sang "Less Than the Dust" and "Kashmir," by Laurence Hope, with piano accompaniment by Miss Edna Gates, and Miss Mildred Berkeley sang "Farwell" and "Morning Wind," with Miss Pauline Rice at the piano. During the social hour, Mrs. M. M. Wyrick and Miss Ida Boyd presided at the tea table where lovely clusters of apple blossoms were used as a centerpiece, and candles carried out the color scheme of pink and white. Assisting the hostesses in serving were Mrs. Herbert Green, Mrs. A. L. Schaefer, Miss Mildred Berkeley and Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice.

AID SOCIETY MEETS

Projects for the coming year were outlined at a meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Baptist church yesterday in the reception rooms of the church.

It was decided that among the activities of the aid, a cooked food sale will be held once a month. The committee appointed consists of Mrs. G.

W. Owings, Mrs. A. E. May, Mrs. Louise Lampkin and Mrs. Anna Marsh. The aid decided to hold a bazaar in the early fall and Mrs. Will Wyrick was chosen as chairman of the apron booth and Mrs. Ridd as chairman for the handkerchief booth. The committee for the cooked food booth will be the same as for the monthly cooked food sales and a committee for the fancy bag committee will be appointed later.

A membership campaign is planned also, and will continue during April, May and June. The members of the aid have been divided into two teams, the Blue and the Red, with Mrs. Mason Thompson and Mrs. Goy Johnson as leaders for the Red team and Mrs. F. L. Ingram and Mrs. W. E. Myers as leaders for the Blue team.

The next meeting of the aid will be next Thursday, when a Missionary Aid meeting will be held at the church.

MISSUS MEMORIES WEDS.

At a simple ceremony yesterday afternoon in St. David's Parish House in Portland, where her father and mother were wed twenty-eight years ago, Miss Claudine McMonies of Pendleton became the bride of Glenn Chester Ackerman of Salem. Rev. Jenkins officiated and only the attendants, Mrs. Ralph Temple of this city and Joe Reynolds, of La Grande, fraternity brother of the groom, were guests at the ceremony. The bride wore a dainty frock of blue colored georgette trimmed in eyelet embroidery and her flower-trimmed hat was of blue.

After a short honeymoon in Portland, the couple will go to Corvallis to resume their studies at O. A. C. The bride is an attractive girl and very popular. She attended Pendleton high school and later O. A. C. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ackerman of Salem. He served as regimental sergeant major and later attended O. A. C., where he is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

TEAM TO BE CHOSEN

The winning team in the recent attendance contest held by the pupils of the Presbyterian Sunday School class taught by Mrs. H. E. McLean, will be honor guests tomorrow evening at a 6 o'clock luncheon in the church, with the losing team as hostesses. The winning team consists of Mary Hampton, captain, Mildred Elrel, Mildred Fisk, Louise Heyden, Annie Laing, Isabelle Macy, Mildred Mathew, Dorothy Reed, Marguerite Reed, Esther Temple, Grace Menke, Delight Snyder, Hazel Molstrom and Florence Molstrom. The losing side of which Barbara Llewellyn is captain consists of Jean Bell, Katherine Blum, Lisa Harper, Eva Nelson, Juanita Perkins, Thelma Simpson, Florence Walters, Charlotte Isaac, and Margaret Cargill.

RESEARCH CLUB MEETS

For a meeting of the Research Club yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Fred Donert and Mrs. David B. Hill were hostesses at the Donert home on Jane street. A paper, "Better Films," by Mrs. Gault was read and discussed by Mrs. Clarence Edmunds and Mrs. J. H. Dunham. Following the program, a social hour was enjoyed. At a table centered by lovely yellow tulips, Mrs. William Blakely and Mrs. R. T. Jones presided. Besides club members, guests during the afternoon were Mrs. Blakeley, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. A. M. Chrystall, Mrs. G. E. Reese, and Miss Caroline Wright, of Albany, house guest of her sister, Mrs. Donert.

CLUB HAS MEETING

Mrs. R. H. Horne and Mrs. J. K. Thompson were hostesses last night for members of the Entre Nous Bridge Club and their husbands, the guests being asked to the Horne home on Perkins Avenue. Pink and white apple blossoms formed a charming decoration. During the evening's play, high score trophies were won by Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mathewson. Besides club members, guests were Dr. and Mrs. Fred Llewellyn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kincaid and Mrs. Wesley Matlock.

WED IN PENDLETON

Miss Katherine Porter and James W. Strong, both of La Grande, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian manse, with Rev. G. L. Clark officiating. The bride wore an attractive tan tulle. There were no attendants. Mr. Strong is engaged in the garage business in La Grande where the couple will make their home.

MRS. KREBS HONORED

Mrs. Frank Krebs, of Adams, was honored yesterday when Mrs. Alex McKenzie and Mrs. A. T. Kirby entertained in her honor at the McKenzie home in Adams. Thirty-eight guests, including out-of-town visitors from Pendleton, Pilot Rock and Athena, were present. The afternoon was spent in needlework and later dainty refreshments were served.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Oratorical Tryouts Friday.—Tryouts for representatives for Pendleton high school for the county oratorical contest to be held in this city May 6, will be held in an assembly on next Friday. So far six names have been handed to Miss Severance who is in charge. Representatives from all the classes in school and from the public speaking and drama club will participate. Pendleton did very well in the county meet last year and she plans to carry off a few honors this year.

Domestic Science Classes Shown Through Bakery.—Members of the domestic science class with Miss Kate Voorhies, instructor, spent the morning yesterday at the Oregon Bakery and candy factory. The girls assisted in making candy and cake. They expressed themselves as having a very enjoyable time and learning a great deal. This morning they visited the Pacific Power and Light Co., and witnessed the demonstration on the use of electricity in the home.

Lanterns Out Today.—The Lantern, Pendleton high school paper which is published semi-monthly by the students will be distributed this afternoon. There will be two more issues of the paper before the end of the school year. John Beckwith, editor, plans to make the final number the best of the year and devote most of its contents to commencement and the senior class.

SIX MILES OF ROAD GRAVELING UNDER WAY

(East Oregonian Special.)

COLUMBIA, April 15.—Several carloads of Columbia people attended the funeral of Ed Graham Wednesday afternoon at Pendleton, where he passed away Monday. Mr. Graham has been living in Hermiston for about two years but formerly made his home here where he owned an alfalfa farm and had a host of friends. He leaves a father and other relatives in Erie, Pa., who were unable to attend the funeral. Mrs. Frank Waugaman was his only relative in Oregon. Mrs. Henry Sommerer is appointed project leader of the Babies confer-
