FORMER UKIAH MAN WEDS GARFIELD GIRL

(East Oregonian Special.)
 UKIAH, April 18.—Mrs. Metter, mother of Charley Metteer of Ukiah, passed away early Wednesday morning, April 13, in Pendleton, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will Dale, they lived for many years.
 At an advanced age, Mrs. Metteer and husband were among the first early settlers of Camas Prairie and located on a homestead near Alba where they lived for many years. Mrs. Metteer's health failed and they moved to Helix, where Mr. Metteer died, and Mrs. Metteer returned to Camas Prairie, and made her home with her son, caring for her two small grandchildren, who had lost their mother.
 She leaves one son, Charley Metteer of Ukiah and one daughter, Mrs. Will Dale of Pendleton and several grandchildren.
 Floyd Martin, formerly of Ukiah, but now of Garfield, Washington, was married on Easter Sunday, March 27, to Miss Laura Powell, also of Garfield. Floyd is well and favorably known in Ukiah, having made his home here with his parents, and his many friends here extend hearty congratulations to him and Mrs. Martin.

 Miss Tassie Meascar of Baker City, arrived last week to visit with her sister, Miss Arthur Gilliland, for an indefinite time.
 Miss Millie Andrus of Range, has accepted a position at the Mossie ranch.
 Mrs. J. H. Constant returned to her home in Ukiah last week, after a three months' absence in Pendleton and Hermiston.
 Mrs. Herald Dobyns of Lena, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Lorenz for an indefinite time.
 Mr. Paulus, Pilot Rock banker, was in Ukiah last week on business.
 A. Kottmeier of Alba, came in last week with his cattle, which he had wintered at the half way station.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond returned to the Bond ranch last week after spending several months at Yoakum, where Mr. Bond wintered his cattle.
 John Booser, wife and three children of Cove, Iowa, arrived a few days ago to make their home here. John Booser Sr., came with them to visit his son, John Booser Jr., who lives here, but will return to his home after his visit.
 William Allison of Oriental, is visiting in Ukiah this week.
 Clarence Huston, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huston, while playing with other children, accidentally ran against a cross-cut saw, two teeth penetrating deep in his ankle, which is now healing nicely.
 Archie McCampbell, a government trapper of Ukiah, succeeded in getting eleven coyotes in the first ten days of April.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Surface and Mrs. B. Constants left the last of the week for a few weeks' visit with Mrs. Constants' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Surface of Ritter.
 A lively game of baseball was played last Sunday at Ukiah.
 Clair Sturdivant returned last Thursday from Stanfield after spending the winter there with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sturdivant. He brought their cattle back to the range after wintering them at Stanfield.

 Lyman Peterson made a trip to Gardana the last of the week with Archie Campbell, bringing back a bunch of thoroughbred Angora goats which Albert Peterson had purchased.
 After spending the winter at Pilot Rock, Mrs. Lorenz returned to Ukiah Saturday. Carl Lorenz attended high school there during the winter.
 Walter Allison left Tuesday for Pendleton to bring Mrs. Allison, and little Willie who has fully recovered from his burns back to their home here.
 Jim and Felix Johnson of Range, were guests at the Ukiah hotel Sunday night.
 Fred Schoenherr, has been in Ukiah shaking hands with old friends.
 Mrs. William Moens of Bridge creek left for Pendleton Tuesday for a short visit.
 Henry Lazinka, Sr., came up Tuesday from his Nye ranch, bringing his horses back to the range.
 Frank Simpson left the first of the week for the Hynd ranch where he will assist in the spring farming.
 Lee Burr left Monday morning with a six horse team for a load of freight for Peterson Bros.
 Two inches of snow fell Tuesday night but soon melted Wednesday morning.
 Wesley Slaughter left for Ritter Wednesday to bring back his horses, which he had wintered there.
 Phasen Mettie and wife left for Alba Wednesday where Mr. Mettie will do some carpenter work and paper hanging for Mr. Cahlarbaum.
 Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dern of Alba, passed through Ukiah a few days ago en route to Bridge creek for a short visit with their daughter, Mrs. Oscar Hilbert.
 Miss Agnes Mettie left for Pilot Rock last Friday where she will remain for a month or two.
