Proper Treatment For Whooping Cough.

It is of interest to all and especially to the parents of young children to know what is best to be done for whooping cough. Mrs. Walter Deall, Portonville, Mo., writes her experience. "A few years ago, our children had whooping cough and the only medicine we gave them was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It kept their coughs loose and expectoration easy. They were not sick very long and had a light attack of it. I give credit for their speedy cure to this medicine."

Chamberlain's Liniment This is a massage liniment, especially valuable for the relief of rheumatic pains and soreness of the muscles. Mrs. E. C. Dodge, Whitesboro, N. Y., writes: "The splendid results I and other members of my family have received by the use of Chamberlain's Liniment, warrant my endorsing it in the highest terms."

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but the fact must be apparent to every one, that constipation is caused by lack of water in the system and the use of drastic cathartics, like the old-fashioned castor oil and liver pills, make a bad matter worse, as they take too much water out of the system. Chamberlain's Tablets are much more mild and gentle in effect and when the proper dose is taken, their action is so natural that one can hardly realize that it is the effect of a medicine.

Good Advice to the Bilious

Those who are bilious, dyspeptic and constipated feel miserably a good share of the time. They would soon feel fine and enjoy their meals if they would take a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen their digestion and regulate the liver and bowels.

person and to play an important, even if ignominious role in "The New York Idea," Alice Brady's latest picture.

Sherman is a Broadway favorite of no mean appearance, and is known as a "clown" dresser, both on the stage and off. So to have such a ridiculous dummy made to represent him was perhaps rather perturbing, but he just had to stand it because in the play he is the unhappy husband of the capricious heroine, who divorces him on an impulse, and is the honor guest, immediately after receiving her decree, at a luncheon given by a group of giddy divorcees to welcome her into ranks of the emancipated. The dummy of the husband she has just discarded is placed next to her seat at the table, and the guests vie with one another in heaping insults on the poor defenseless thing.

ARCADE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

"IF I WERE KING," WITH FARNUM COMING SOON

A picture that is said to include William Farnum's greatest screen effort will be shown at the Arcade Theatre next Sunday. It is "If I Were King," from the great stage success and novel by Justin Huntly McCarthy and is a William Fox production.

Those who follow the stage will remember that E. H. Sothern created the role of Francois Villon in this play, and scored a great success. As soon as the picture was finished Mr. Fox sent a copy of it to England, where it was shown to Justin Huntly McCarthy. The author was enthusiastic.

PASTIME SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Edith Roberts returns to the screen in "White Youth" after four months vacation spent in New York and on the Atlantic Coast. Her first picture since "The Adorable Savage" shows next Sunday and Monday at the Pastime Theatre. It was directed by Norman Dawn, who guided her in the previous unprecedented hit, and who is noted for his artistry of touch and his colorful detail.

"White Youth" is a story of modern Louisiana, a girl just from school, a safe-cracker within the law, a wonderfully-stocked wine cellar, and a priceless cigarette holder presented to an old Creole by the Empress Eugenie. Mixed well and served by Director Dawn, the result is said to be an ultra-modern romance with a picturesque setting in the glass. The story is by those master story writers and playwrights, Clara Bernier and Forrest Halsey. The scenario is by George C. Hull.

Miss Roberts appears as the granddaughter of a proud old Creole general. She has been raised in a school and knows little of the world until her grandfathers writes that he will send for her in a few days to meet the man he has selected as her husband.

Norman Dawn spent several weeks in the South with his cameraman and technical director securing atmospheric photographs and the necessary data for producing many of the historic old spots in Louisiana where the scenes are laid.

The cast includes Arnold Gregg, Alfred Hollingsworth, Thomas Jefferson and Hattie Peters.
