CONVENTION PLANS MADE
Tentative plans for a banquet and luncheon to be given during the state Parent Teacher Association convention here May 11, 12 and 13 have been made by the members of the Parent Teacher Council of this city. Presidents of the various Parent-Teacher Associations, or their representatives if presidents are unable to attend, will be honor guests at a banquet which will be given on the evening of Thursday, May 12. The luncheon is to be given at noon on Friday, May 13, the last day of the convention.

The "Blue Bird Procession," an attractive event planned for the convention, is to be given on the evening of May 12. The hour set for the procession, which will be based on Maurice Maeterlinck's play, is just at twilight, and if the weather permits the presentation will be out-of-doors. Otherwise, it will be in the high school auditorium. Two hundred pupils of Pendleton grade and high schools will take part, under the direction of Miss Eva Hansen, instructor in physical training in local schools. The story of the "Blue Bird" is to be interpreted in the parent and there will be special costumes, solo dances and other features.

Riverside Parent Teacher Association will join with Pendleton's association in receiving the visitors who will attend the convention. The sessions will be held in the Unadilla county gymnasium. The number of delegates who expect to be here has not yet been determined but it is probable that there will be a large attendance. Mrs. W. H. Nixie, of this city, one of the vice-presidents, whose district is made up of Unadilla, Walla Walla, Union and Blaine counties, expects to be notified soon regarding the number of delegates who will be in Pendleton from the four counties.

Ask How and Why Ice can be saved--

The insulation of a refrigerator is under the surface. It is the insulation, or lack of it, that determines the size of your ice bill.

The manufacturers of the Automatic (which we believe is the best Refrigerator on the market) furnish us with a sample wall construction, so that we can show you the Eight Walls of insulation.

THE BOOK SHELF

NEW BOOKS ON ECONOMICS AT THE COUNTY LIBRARY
 Cabot—Social Work
 For the thousands of men and women now engaged in social work, Dr. Cabot has prepared a book that contains within compact compass precisely the authoritative information and instruction that every social worker needs, and that will take its place as the one indispensable text-book in its field.

Hansen—Adventures of the Fourteen Points
 Two often have you said "I want to read all at once what happened at the Peace Conference when it is all over; I am tired of reading daily forecasts, rumors, denials, corrected statements, and so on, and all these presented, and necessarily so, without any proper proportion?" Well here is a book you have waited for. Mr. Hansen, a profound student of diplomatic history and technique, covered the Peace Conference for a dozen or more American newspapers. In this book he presents a clear picture of the Peace Conference, from its beginning to the end, and he has remembered that the man who is not a student of international affairs does not care for detailed discussion of diplomatic matters. Mr. Hansen tells what happened at the greatest international conference the world ever saw. He shows the conference on its human side; he treats his account as a story. And he tells it with humor and with the clearness and swiftness of good narrative; and he covers the whole ground, presenting all the great controversial subjects and verifying with scrupulous accuracy his statement of facts on such subjects.

Link—Employment Psychology
 Besides serving as the pattern for much of the employment psychology that is to come, this book will help executives (the higher the better); will constitute a handy manual for employment managers; will be a valuable source book for university courses in personnel work; and will inform interestingly and reliably those who want to know how much there is, anyway, to all this talk about psychology.

Pepper—American Foreign Trade
 The foreign trade of the United States and the profound changes wrought by the War is the central theme of this book. Chief among these changes is our development into a creditor nation. What this means to the future commerce of the country is indicated while the influence of investments abroad is explained. The value of the new Merchant Marine is succinctly set forth. The wide demand for information about trade opportunities is met in the chapters on the markets of South America, of the Caribbean countries and of Canada; and there is also description of the commerce of the Pacific, with special reference to Japan and China. WHEAT TOOK SLUMP IN PRICE TODAY

Both May and July wheat slumped in price today, May wheat closing at $1.21 3-4 and July at $1.02 3-4. Yesterday's closing price was $1.24 1-4 for May and $1.05 1-2 for July grain.

Following are the quotations received by Overbeck & Cooke, local brokers:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
May	1.23	1.23	1.20 1/2	1.21 3/4
July	1.04 1/2	1.04 1/2	1.02	1.02 3/4

Wheat—Higher temperatures over the belt failed to bring out any complications of crop deterioration and in consequence sentiment again became pessimistic as to stability of the market. Further liquidation was particularly noticeable in the July wheat which was 1-1/2 below the previous low mark. There was evidence of support on the decline, at the close the tone was rather firm. Belgium, Spain, Germany and Italy were in the market and took about two million bushels for export despite the report that Argentine wheat laid down on the continent is now slightly cheaper than American. All United States cash markets were easy and some 1 to 4 cents lower while strange enough Winnipeg cash wheat was strong with number 1 northern bring 22 cents over their May. On the surface the domestic situation appears quite bright but this condition is now a matter of history and we believe there is far greater probability of occurrences in the immediate future changing for the better than of becoming more pessimistic.

HAT ADDED TO COLLECTION
 PARIS, April 19.—(A. P.)—The hat that Napoleon wore at the battle of Waterloo will be among the relics of the great Corsican to be displayed at the Arc de Triomphe on May 5 when the 100th anniversary of the Emperor's death at St. Helena, will be celebrated.

In the room that followed the crushing of the Guard, Napoleon came very near being captured by Blucher's divisions, leaving the farm at Hougomont a few minutes before the allies arrived. Floating through the night in a downpour of rain Napoleon's hat suffered greatly and when he reached Paris on the morning of the 20th of June, he sent the hat to his hatters at the Palais Royal to have it repaired.

Events precipitated with such rapidity that Napoleon left Paris before the hat was repaired and it remained with the hatters, who presented it to the Museum at Sens where it still is.
