Quiet Prevails On Portland Market

(From the Oregon Journal.) With only a nominal run in the day, there was little activity in any line at North Portland Tuesday.

Job began at North Portland at this time. No carloads came forward for Tuesday, and the few arrivals were showing a slow demand, although trade was steady in spots.

One of the features of interest was the scant call for feeder stuff, prices being lower, with an average of $10.50.

PRAIRIE DOGS SOUSED. CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 20.—(U. P.)—Wyoming prairie dogs are the latest victims of illegal booze traffic. When a sheriff's posse recently the country west of Cheyenne visited in search of moonshine stills, members of the band saw staggering prairie dogs, unable to find the "front door" of their holes. Investigation showed that several pints of whiskey had been "cached" in various prairie dog holes and had been broken with the consequence of a spree in dog-town.
