MEN START WORK ON WESTON-ATHENA ROAD

(East Oregonian Special.)

At a recent meeting of the directors of school district No. 19, all of the present corps of teachers was re-elected to teach in the Weston schools next year. F. C. Fitzpatrick, the present principal, will not likely accept the appointment, as he is known to have offers, at a considerable advance in salary, from other schools. The teachers as elected are as follows:

High school—F. C. Fitzpatrick, principal; Miss Frank Harris Davis, Miss Lurline Brown and Miss Esther H. Husbands.

Eighth grade—Mrs. Gertrude Fitzpatrick.

Sixth and seventh grades—Miss Mabel Isaacson.

Fifth grade—Miss Esther Mark.

Third and fourth grades—Miss Lillian Sheldon.

First and second grades—Miss Louise Rintoul.

Mrs. Eleanor M. Warren has returned to her home on north Franklin street to reside after being absent nearly six months, visiting with her children in Portland, Pendleton and Eltopia, Wash.

Improvement work on the state highway between Weston and Athena was commenced on Friday morning. The work consists in extending the shoulders and cleaning out the ditches along the road's side. About a dozen men were put at this work. It is understood that only men with families were given employment, and that an equal number of men were hired out of the towns of Weston and Athena.

Cash Speaks Louder Than Credit

Many credit stores will tell you that they could sell cheaper if they didn't have to "carry you."

This is true—in fact it's the one big success of our business—when you pay cash here you are doing away with the biggest part of the difference between buying and selling.
