MEETING IS INTERESTING

For an interesting meeting of the Current Literature Club, Mrs. James Johns Sr., and Mrs. Charles H. Marsh, were hostesses yesterday afternoon at the Marsh home on Lewis street. French fiction was the theme for the afternoon. Mrs. George Clark gave a comprehensive review of "The Thief," by Henry Bernheim. A reading from "Madeline at Her Mirror," by Tinsyre given by Mrs. J. C. Snow was enjoyed as was a paper on the lives and works of Tinsyre, Rostand Loti, Roland, Brieux and Zola, modern French authors, by Mrs. Fred Dohmert. Tinsyre and apple blossoms were used as a decoration, and during the social hour, Mrs. R. Alexander and Mrs. C. S. Jerald presided at the tea table.

DINNER IS ENJOYED

Members of the Eden Club and their friends were guests last evening of a dinner at Jolly's Inn. Tulips centered the table where a three-course dinner was served. Later the guests spent a few hours at cards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith, where supper was served during the evening. These present were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dimick, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Melroe, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Crabtree, Miss Emily McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winer and Pete Shavvr.

INSTITUTE TO BE HELD

Mrs. Agra B. Anderson, of Indianapolis, national worker for the Missionary Society of the Christian church, will be the chief speaker at an institute of the society to be held on Monday in the reception rooms of the church. The topic for the institute will be "The Finished Task," and the sessions will open at 10:30 a. m. and will continue during the day, with a noon luncheon. A large delegation from Milton is expected. Mrs. Anderson will speak tomorrow night at the Christian church at 7:30 p. m.

MRS. CURTIS DEPARTS

Mrs. Emma Furlington Curtiss, who has been spending the past few months in Pendleton as the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. A. Lowell, left yesterday for Portland and Washougal, Washington, where she will visit for a season before starting for her home in Clinton, Wisconsin. Mrs. Lowell accompanied her, and will attend the state Congregationalist conference to be held in Portland Monday and Tuesday of next week.

PARTY IS GIVEN

Twenty five little boys and girls are guests today for a birthday party at the home of Mrs. C. A. Johnson, who is entertaining in honor of the fifth birthday of her daughter. The afternoon is being spent in games and later luncheon is to be served at a table decked in pink and white. A big white birthday cake with pink candles, the place cards and little candies carry out the color effect.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN

On the occasion of the fifth birthday, little Miss Madeion Reed was hostess Wednesday evening for a party at her home, 401 East Webb street. The hours were spent in games and later refreshments were served. Guests for the enjoyable affair were Nellie Brundage, Catherine Brundage, Mabel Sutherland, Reta Davis, Leona Davis, Laura Davis, Leo Davis and Thayne Bryington.

MRS. WARNER TO RETURN

Mrs. H. J. Warner of Pendleton, who has been the guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. T. C. Warner, is leaving today for her home in Eastern Oregon. During her stay in Portland, Mrs. Warner was entertained at a number of informal affairs, among them the bridge party given for her Tuesday night by Mrs. T. C. Warner. —Portland Evening Telegram.

Ouija Acquitted

A jury returned a verdict for Mrs. Albert Yost of Lockport, Ill., when a neighbor sued for $10,000 damages alleging slander because Mrs. Yost repeated a message from Ouija. Judge Helm said it is not slander to repeat spirit messages.

WHAT PENDLETON GRADE SCHOOLS ARE DOING

Lincoln School
 Baby Snow presented a new Victor record to the first grade. This makes the tenth record owned by the first grade.
 Thayer Bryington a pupil in the second grade has left for Idaho where he will reside for the future.
 The pupils have completed their Red Riding Hood posters. These illustrate the Red Riding Hood story and were under the supervision of Mrs. Baker. The cut work is especially pleasing. The pupils were also instructed in correct mounting.
 May baskets will be made next week in the art period.
 Lester King has returned to the fourth grade after his visit in California.
 Mrs. C. P. Miller and Mrs. Taylor were visitors in the fifth-grade this week.
 The sixth grade has finished posters of the counties of Oregon. Alva Albert and Marion Albert had the best posters for products. Raymond Rugg and Dorothy Barthel had the best for neatness and products.
 Twenty four pupils were neither absent nor late this month.
 Those that will represent Lincoln school in the city track meet are as follows:
