

People Here and There

John Shaw has returned to his home at Lena, Ore., after a business trip here.

Charles Haynes returned Saturday evening from Portland where he spent a few days on business.

Miss Hazel McCree returned Sunday from La Grande where she has been the guest of friends.

Master Ray Dudley has returned to Pendleton after spending the weekend visiting friends at Athena.

Mrs. Dora B. Schille of La Grande was in Pendleton Sunday as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Edna Morrison.

Joseph M. Scott left this morning for Ione and vicinity where he will look after his farming interests. He expects to return Tuesday evening.

J. P. Walker, veteran clerk of Pendleton camp W. O. W., is rejoicing today over his recovery from an illness that kept him at the hospital for several days.

Merton W. Kidder, son of the late Senator E. K. Kiddle, who is a prominent grain man of Island City, returned to his home Sunday evening after a business trip here.

J. J. Carr, a furniture dealer, and L. O. Harrison, proprietor of a big grocery establishment of La Grande, were in Pendleton Sunday. While here they enjoyed golf.

John Endicott, of this city, left this morning for his ranch near Ukiah.

Alfred Smith, sheepman, drove out to Mencham and back yesterday. He found several inches of snow and plenty of mud and does not recommend the road for travel for a few days until the sun has a chance at the road.

Mrs. J. W. Howard and children of La Grande spent Sunday in Pendleton visiting. They have returned to La Grande, but they will soon return to Pendleton to make their home. Mr. Howard has a railroad run out of here.

A little competition between Pendleton, Baker and La Grande in the way of golf playing is predicted by J. J. Carr and "Larry" Harrison. La Grande men who were here yesterday to play. The club house of the La Grande players is a dandy, they report, and there is much interest being taken in the game there.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY OFFICES AND OFFICERS

Murder Trial Under Way.
A jury to try the S. Shabatov case had not been secured at noon today when court recessed. The Jap is charged with the murder of Shorty Okamoto last February. The crime is one of the most brutal on record in the county. Okamoto's head was mutilated and cut by a hatchet said to have been wielded by Shabatov.

Infidelity Charged.
Allegations that his wife often visited a local dental office and that after a certain dentist, who is not named in the complaint, left Pendleton she corresponded with him, are made in an action for divorce filed with the county clerk Saturday by Haley, Haley, Steiner and H. J. Warner for Emil Beck against Eleanor Beck. The couple married at Portland December 19, 1919, according to the complaint.

Guilty of Larceny.
John Adair and Earl Caldwell were found guilty of larceny Saturday evening by the jury that heard the testimony in the case of the two men who were charged with having been implicated in the theft of household goods from Hermiston. The jury recommended that the court be lenient in sentence. M. M. Shockey who pleaded guilty and received a sentence of two years to the penitentiary has been paroled. He has promised to repay the value of the materials he stole.

Want County Fair Funds.
Delegations of prominent citizens from both the east and west ends of the county were here today before the county court in an effort to secure shares in the state funds for fairs which is to be distributed. Umpire held no fair last fall but the citizens of the town have joined with other towns in the east end of the county for the holding of a fair this fall. A special committee from Hermiston consisting of George Strong, J. W. Campbell and George H. Root, together with E. P. Dodd, member of the fair board were here in the interests of the dairy and hog show. Other men here included Lew Hodgen of Athena, a former representative; C. S. Cheshire, T. C. Elliott, H. C. McQuarry, George Bode, Smith Jessup, all of Milton; P. K. Nordboof, Andy J. Johnson, Hugh Murray, Lane Hoon and L. A. Reinman, all of Freewater; Commissioner R. E. Bean was not here until noon due to a misunderstanding as to the place of meeting. He expected to meet the other members of the court at Weston and remained there until noon. Between $2,400 and $2,800 is available for fairs this year.

Soldier's Discharge Registered.
The honorable discharge of Sidney J. McKeon, a private first class of the Fourth Engineers, has been presented for recording at the office of the county clerk. He enlisted at Portland in 1917 and was discharged in 1919.

Forwards Bond Interest Money.
The semi-annual interest charge on the road bonds of Umatilla county amounting to $20,212.50 has been sent to New York by Miss Grace A. Gilliam.

HE WOULD HAVE SAVED HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS

Oregon Man Is Sorry He Did Not Know About Tanlac Long Ago. Rheumatism and Other Troubles Are Overcome.

"I firmly believe that if I had gotten hold of Tanlac Three years ago it would have saved me the awful suffering I had to endure, besides hundreds of dollars I spent for other medicines that did me no good," said J. E. Wilson, of Linton, Ore.

"I suffered from rheumatism and stomach trouble for about three years, and for weeks at a time I was scarce able to do any work. My appetite was very poor and I was able to eat just about enough to keep me going.

My liver and stomach were out of order, and I would blot up with gas that affected my heart, and I would get so short of breath I could hardly walk up a little hill from the mill to the road. My joints would pain me terribly and my hands get so stiff I could hardly close them, and many a time I didn't think I was going to be able to work the day out.

"Nothing took seemed to do me a bit of good until I got Tanlac. In a month my stomach was in the best of order and I can now eat just anything I want without its causing me the least bit of trouble. The bloating has disappeared, my heart no longer bothers me and my breathing is free and easy. The rheumatism is so completely gone that my joints don't ache any more and I'm simply feeling fine."

Cattle are 25c higher. Choice steers are 17.75 and 18.25. Hogs and sheep are steady. Eggs are weak and butter is steady.

Proper Treatment For Whooping Cough.

It is of interest to all and especially to the parents of young children to know what is best to be done for whooping cough. Mrs. Walter Beall, Pattonburg, Mo., relates her experience. "A few years ago, our children had whooping cough and the only medicine we gave them was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It kept their coughs loose and expectation easy. They were not sick very long and had a light attack of it. I give credit for their speedy cure to this medicine."

Chamberlain's Liniment
This is a massage liniment, especially valuable for the relief of rheumatic pains and soreness of the muscles. Mrs. E. C. Dodge, Whitesboro, N. Y., writes: "The splendid results I and other members of my family have received by the use of Chamberlain's Liniment, warrant my endorsing it in the highest terms."

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse
Perhaps you have never thought of it, but the fact must be apparent, to every one, that constipation is caused by lack of water in the system and the use of drastic cathartics, like the old-fashioned cathartic and liver pills, make a bad matter worse, as they take too much water out of the system. Chamberlain's Tablets are much more mild and gentle in effect and when the proper dose is taken, their action is so natural that one can hardly realize that it is the effect of a medicine.

Good Advice to the Bilious
Those who are bilious, dyspeptic and constipated feel miserably a good share of the time. They would soon feel fine and enjoy their meals if they would take a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen their digestion and regulate the liver and bowels.

SOCIETY

OLD DAYS RECALLED.
High school days of 1912 were recalled at the annual reunion of the Class of 1912 held Friday evening. When alumni were entertained at a dinner at The Delta and later spent a few hours in the library club room. Music by Reuben Beckwith, a member of the class who is now on the coastwise stage, was most pleasing. Letters from Mrs. Ethel Freeman Jaeger, now head of women at Epiphany University; from Mrs. Effie Buff McKay, a student at Columbia University, and from Walter Owen, who is studying photography in New York, were read.

Alumni present were Rexford Gray, Mrs. Ella Lushka Ganser, Mrs. Olive Swinn Moon, Miss Alice Greenwald, Miss Martha Hudson, Reuben Beckwith, Mrs. Yesta Boylen Stanley, Miss Beth Smith, Wilbur Doherty, Mrs. Hazel Warner Cedarvale, Paul Fennell, Mrs. Mildred Berkeley, Cecil McDonald, Mrs. Clara Strathman Harvey, Mrs. Lillian Gulliford Hampton and Robert Patton. Other guests were Lowell Ganser, Garland Ganser and V. H. Moon.
