THREE HOMERUNS IN SUNDAY'S CONTEST HELP BUCKS TO WIN

Three home runs and several other wickets hit, backed up by timely errors on the part of Helix, caused Captain Peterson's Bucaroos to lift the opening game of the season played Sunday afternoon at Round-Up park by a score of 5 to 0.

Notwithstanding the lop-sided character of the score, the game was interesting and kept the crowd going most of the time. Real classy twirling on the part of Sid Williams who held down the mound for the Bucks, and the superiority of the Pendleton gang when it came to stick work were the factors that put Helix in the cellar.

Peterson, Gordon and Styson qualified for membership in the homerun club by polling the spheroid over the fence, and Huey made a triple that yielded a run when he came home on a passed ball. Peterson also knocked a triple in the last half of the fourth inning and sprained his ankle on a slide to third, but he gave an exhibition of sportsmanship by limping his way through the remainder of the contest.

Only once did the visitors have a chance to do much dirty work and that came in the seventh when a base on balls on one hit gave Helix two runners on bases with two down. Hanson, the visitor's twirler came to bat and lost a chance to be a hero when, after fouling half a dozen, he popped to Hanson and was out, retiring his side.

The locals started the ball rolling in their half of the first inning. Olson and Huey both were out, the former on an infield grounder and Huey on a pop to Owens when Peterson came to bat and slammed one through second for a single. He took second on a passed ball, and when Styson hit one through second, Peterson came home. Styson tried to get to second, while Peterson was scoring but he got caught.

The next tally was ended in the fourth when Peterson came up after Huey had fanned and hit over third for a nice double. Seeing the third sack was not covered he waltzed down the line and hurt his ankle on the slide. He could not stand on his foot so Huey took his place, and when Styson knocked a high fly to the right garden on which he was out, Huey streaked home. Gordon got his homer in the fifth.

In the sixth Huey got a tripe when the ball bounced through the fence and he scored on a passed ball. "Crip"

Peterson gave another exhibition of his superior stick ability by getting his home run. That was the extent of the fireworks until the eighth when little Styson, maddened by the ability of everyone except himself to get close to the fence, gripped his bat and knocked the horseshoe clear over the grandstand behind center field for the longest drive of the year on these grounds. Hanson was safe when his high one to left field was carried back by the wind causing the fielder to misjudge it. Huey was sent to third when Bill Cary rapped a warm one over first. Bill stole second, and when Owens made an error on Gordon's bounder he and Hanson chalked up for the final scores of the game.

Game played at Pendleton on April 24 between Helix and Pendleton for the championship of the Wheat Belt Baseball League.

INDIANS SHOW GOOD METTLE IN BATTLE FOR LEAGUE LEAD

Ahead of Western Teams and Give Eastern Clubs Good Run; White Sox Come Back.

NEW YORK, April 25.—(A. P.)—The Cleveland world's champions, who took the lead yesterday in the American League pennant race by defeating St. Louis four straight, appear to have the edge on the other western teams. The Indians have made 72 runs on 113 hits in the ten contests they have played with St. Louis and Detroit. New York and Washington began battle yesterday for supremacy of the eastern section, the Senators winning on their home grounds.

Pittsburgh is outbattling the other American and National league clubs.

The Pirates have made 63 runs on 132 hits in their eleven games with Cincinnati and Chicago. New York has displayed the greatest strength of the eastern clubs.

Bad weather has prevented many major teams from getting into their stride. Twenty of the 36 games scheduled for last week were postponed.

In the American League the reorganized White Sox have done well with Faber or Kerr on the mound, but an attempt by Manager Gleason to try out recruit twirlers was disastrous. Detroit held Cleveland even in two games last week, while St. Louis lost three games to the Indians by only a one run margin. Boston is handicapped by a right stick work.

Philadelphia made more hits last week than Cleveland, but the Athletic pitchers were easy for New York and Washington.

The Chicago Nationals had little difficulty in downing St. Louis, Boston and St. Louis are not hitting effectively.

Cincinnati has been batting hard, but her opponents have been just as successful at the bat. Philadelphia has been losing by narrow margins.

PASTIME SUNDAY AND MONDAY

QUEEN OF UNDERWORLD

Her only friends were crooks, her life's game was crime. Kate, who is played by Eva Novak in Universal's production of "Wanted at Headquarters" had her own ideals, based on the moral code of the underworld. With the greatest coup she had even planned at the point of culmination, a jacket turned on her—the leader of the human wolf pack. Her ideal—Loyalty to the Pack—is shattered. Her criminal friends faithless, she has but one to whom she can turn and he is a detective. Too proud to league with her professional enemy, she sets out alone to defeat the crime in which she lately was a leader.

"Wanted at Headquarters," which comes to the Pastime Theatre Sunday and Monday, begins almost without introduction with the mystery of the pearl necklace, and then speeds on to the theft of an armored freight car containing $10,000,000 in gold from its tracks while traveling at top speed. It is the first case on record of an armored train holdup.

"Wanted at Headquarters," which marks Eva Novak's entry into the stellar ranks by her older sister, Jane, has already attained, is from the pen of Edgar Wallace. It was made into scenario form by Wallace Clifton. The producer is Stuart Paton, who made "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" for Universal, and who recently completed "The Hope Diamond Mystery."

Assisting Miss Novak in the principal roles are Leonard Sedgwick, George Chaseboro, Agnes Emerson, William Marlon, Lloyd Sedgwick, Harry Carter and Frank Clarke.

ALTA SUNDAY AND MONDAY

WANDA HAWLEY CHARMS IN SPRINGLY FARCE

As a flirtatious young French wife Wanda Hawley has been given still further opportunity to demonstrate her versatility in "Her Beloved Villain," at the Alta Theatre Sunday and Monday.

"Her Beloved Villain," by the way, is a demonstration of Bialystok's belief that "the play's the thing." The picture is an adaptation of a very famous French farce which had a big vogue in Europe a few years ago. Deliberately it is being offered under an entirely different name. And those who saw last night's show believe the experiment will meet with success. For the plot holds so much genuine fun and interest that it is bound to succeed on its account, aside from any big reputation of previous successes as a stage play. The story is the old Priscilla Miles Standish, and John Alden situation, treated with that dash and brilliance of wit which the French mentality has brought to such a high point of excellence. Certainly it reaffirms the age-old fact that it's always dangerous to have a friend propose to your girl!

Ramsay Wallace, Miss Hawley's new leading man, is virile and convincing as the man who starts a whole train of complications when he becomes the matrimonial go-between for his friend, and then wins the girl for himself. Other excellent players in the cast include P. Temple Powell, Tully Marshall, Lillian Leighton, Robert Bolter and Margaret McWade.

Sam Wood directed the production for which Alice Eytton wrote the scenario. It is a Realart picture and will be shown Sunday and Monday.

ARCANE, SUNDAY AND MONDAY

OLD-HOME POEM GIVES CHARLES RAY BIG CHANCE

Charles Ray, the popular screen star, will be seen Sunday and Monday at the Arcane Theatre in "The Old Swimmin' Hole." It is said to be one of the most appealing pictures in which he has yet appeared and to call forth more laughs and tears to the reel than any other of his past successes.

The play was adapted for the screen by Bernard McConville and directed by Joseph De Grasse. It is a First National attraction presented by Arthur Karpis. The cast includes such well known players as James Gordon, Blanche Rose, Laura La Plante, Marjorie Prevost, Lincoln Stedman and Lon Poff. Riley's verse is interpreted with such artistry as to both charm the thousands of admirers of the Hoosier poet and to win new converts to his ballads of boyhood's happy days.

From the opening scenes to the close the story is brimful of heart interest. Charles Ray, as Ezra, is "just plain boy," wholesome but mischievous. He would rather fish and spend his time at the old swimmin' hole than study. He loves Myrtle, the flirtatious belle of the country school, but after bringing him to his knees and robbing him of all his treasures she jilts him for his best friend, "skinny." However, there is happiness awaiting him in the loving arms of the ever faithful Esther. Ezra is so busy falling in and out of scrapes that it is a wonder that he finds time for sweethearts.

It is skilfully directed and so wonderfully acted as to obviate the necessity for a single sub-title. It steals into the heart of the audience until the breath of new morn' hay seems to pervade the darkened theatre and the audience are wafted back on the wings of memory to their own school days. The play has received most enthusiastic notices wherever shown and will undoubtedly repeat its success at the Arcane Theatre.

TAKES CARE OF 5 CHILDREN

Mrs. Taylor's Sickness Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Roxbury, Mass.—"I suffered continually with backache and was often dependent, had dizzy spells and at my monthly periods it was almost impossible to keep around at my work. Since my last baby came two years ago my back has been worse and no position I could get in would relieve it, and doctor's medicine did not help me. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have found great relief since using it. My back is much better and I can sleep well. I keep house and have the care of five children so my work is very trying and I am very thankful I have found the Compound such a help. I recommend it to my friends and if you wish to use this letter I am very glad to help any woman suffering as I was until I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."
