EAT ONIONS, IF ONLY FOR SELF PROTECTION

CHICAGO, April 26.—(U. P.)—The "Everyday Eat-Onions-All-The-Time" Society has been organized here. This odoriferous fraternity is free-for-all and absolutely pebblan. Because you can get seventy pounds of onions for a dollar. A dollar for seventy pounds of anything is reasonable in these days. If onions get much cheaper, the non-onion eating public will have to provide themselves with gas masks, according to rumors. One declared you can buy ten bunches of the finest spring onions for a dollar or two pounds of the dry variety for a nickel. A report of the federal agricultural department says there is a sufficient surplus of onions of powerful strength of character to fill 2,000 empty freight cars.

What's this?

Oh, just Fashion's latest. Hat feathers that act as a veil as well. Snapped on Michigan boulevard, Chicago.
