NEW REPARATIONS PROPOSALS MADE BY GERMANY ARE NOT ACCEPTABLE TO FRANCE

FRANCE MAY BE ASKED TO DELAY OCCUPATION MOVE

U. S. Will Take This Step if Italy and England Refuse to Make Rejection of Last Offer
BRITISH ASK GERMANS TO CLARIFY SOME CLAUSES
Note Will be Taken Before Supreme Council This Week for Careful Consideration.

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(A. L. Bradford, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—The United States may ask France to delay the proposed occupation of the Ruhr Valley. This step, it is learned, is in contemplation in the event Italy and Britain refuse to support France in the flat rejection of the latest German offer.

British Ask Explanation
LONDON, April 27.—(Ed. L. Keen, U. P. Staff Correspondent.)—The British foreign office asked Berlin to clarify some clauses in the latest reparations offer. The note inquires that if acceptable explanations of the vague clauses were received, the new proposals will not be rejected outright but will be taken before the supreme council this week for careful consideration.

DIFFERENCE IN OPINION AS TO WAGE REDUCTION IS MET IN CONFERENCE

Shipping Board Representative and Spokesmen for Marine Workers do Not Agree on Cut

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(A. P.)—Sharp differences in opinion as to wage reductions between Chairman Benson of the shipping board and the spokesmen for the marine workers developed at the opening today of conferences called by the chairman in an effort to avert the threatened strike May first. Andrew Furuseth, president of the International Seamen Union and other spokesmen for the workers declared the 15 percent reduction announced by rear Admiral Benson as necessary was unacceptable to the unions. Benson said the present economic conditions fully warrant the reduction of the marine wages.

JEANETTE ROY FIRES BULLET INTO BODY OF CATHERINE DAVIS

After Shooting Friend Turns Gun on Herself; Both Girls Are Near Point of Death.

CHICAGO, April 27.—(U. P.)—Jeanette Roy, the daughter of a well known contractor, fired two bullets into the body of Catherine Davis and then turned the gun on herself. The tragedy is the result of a quarrel between the girls, who have been close friends for several years. Physicians said they were both near death.

PARADISE INN SNOW COVERED

TACOMA, Wash., April 27.—(A. P.)—Paradise Inn high on the side of snow-capped Mount Rainier near here, which is visited every summer by thousands of tourists, was buried under snow this winter. Several Tacoma boy scouts who visited Rainier park recently had to dig a twenty foot tunnel to gain entrance to the hotel. A caretaker told them it snowed continuously for forty days and nights on the mountain during the winter.

65,000 GIRLS DISAPPEAR IN U. S. IN ONE YEAR ACCORDING TO RECORDS

WASHINGTON, April 27.—(U. P.)—SIXTY five thousand girls disappeared in the United States last year without leaving any trace. The great majority were lured to big cities from small towns and farms. They have dropped from sight and their fate is an unsolved mystery. This story was brought to the national mothers' congress and parent teacher association convention with a plan for the creation of a central bureau to help find the missing girls.

IT WILL BE THE FINAL REVIEW FOR GRAND ARMY VETERANS IN PENDLETON

A dramatic feature of the G. A. R. convention to be held here in June is that it will be the last time the Grand Army men will ever assemble in Pendleton and quite likely they will never meet again in Eastern Oregon. The ranks of the G. A. R. grow thinner each year and as even the youngest of the veterans are in the seventies the hand of time will fall heavily upon them during the next decade.
